The Catechism of the Catholic Church

Catechism of the Catholic Church - Paragraphs 310 - 311

310 But why did God not create a world so perfect that no evil could exist in it? With infinite power God could always create something better. But with infinite wisdom and goodness God freely willed to create a world "in a state of journeying" towards its ultimate perfection. In God's plan this process of becoming involves the appearance of certain beings and the disappearance of others, the existence of the more perfect alongside the less perfect, both constructive and destructive forces of nature. With physical good there exists also physical evil as long as creation has not reached perfection.

311 Angels and men, as intelligent and free creatures, have to journey toward their ultimate destinies by their free choice and preferential love. They can therefore go astray. Indeed, they have sinned. Thus has moral evil, incommensurably more harmful than physical evil, entered the world. God is in no way, directly or indirectly, the cause of moral evil. He permits it, however, because he respects the freedom of his creatures and, mysteriously, knows how to derive good from it: For almighty God. . ., because he is supremely good, would never allow any evil whatsoever to exist in his works if he were not so all-powerful and good as to cause good to emerge from evil itself.

A Letter from Fr. Christian

Dear faithful,

"For freedom Christ set us free; so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery." (Galatians 5:1)

In our country, we enjoy many freedoms that other countries do not. I am thankful for those freedoms and I never want to take them for granted. While we might be the freest country in the world there is also a sense in which we are also the most restrained and captive. While we do enjoy many freedoms we have come to see freedom in a warped way. Freedom has come to mean that we can do whatever we want, whenever we want and how we want. This warped sense of freedom leads us to become enslaved by our passions. It's no secret that we have a big problem with various addictions in our country. While there may be an appearance of freedom exteriorly . . . we have to question if we are interiorly free. This is true freedom . . . Not to be ruled and enslaved to sin and vice. This is really where the battle for our freedom lies: within.

A Blessed Independence Day to you and your family!

Serving God and Others

Soles for Christ: The "Paper Sole Lines" will be on display in the Gathering Space July 9th through July 17th. We're asked to take at least one paper sole and purchase a pair of athletic-type shoes -- the gender/shoe size appearing on the paper sole. Please bring the shoes back to church on July 23-24th. Our donated shoes will then be picked up by the staff of the AFL-CIO which handles distribution of the shoes to school children and youth prior to the start of the new school year. A new pair of shoes is a gift of dignity. It gives kids an increased sense of confidence. It's essentially a new beginning and can be life-changing for a child. Our Lady of Guadalupe is a giving parish. Let us do what we can to again be present to local kids in-need.

Hospitality after Sunday Masses on July 10th and August 14th: Summertime is a good time to reconnect with parish friends or make new ones and there's no better time than after worship on Sunday morning. Jane & Mark Hausman and Mary & Warren Nold prepare our 8:30 a.m. Mass Donut Sunday Hospitality on the second Sunday of the month; and now the same is being offered following the 11:00 a.m. Mass by our new hosts, Denise Prokop & Stacey Dasta. Consider taking a little time to stay a while to visit and get to know someone a little better!

Looking Ahead: For all our artists at heart in the parish, mark your calendars for Thursday, August 11th for our first ever "Pray, Sip & Paint," with our talented Mechele Humphreys leading us. It'll be from 6-9:00 p.m. in Summers Hall. This will be something that anyone with a little desire to paint will be able to do. Save the date and watch the bulletin for more information.

Cathedral school is seeking a fifth-grade teacher. Open to bachelors in liberal arts available for hire. Contact Catherine Neumayr at 907-360-9610 for more information.

Food of the Month for July is Pasta and/or Spaghetti Sauce.
Your contributions are very helpful. Please place your donation in one of the wooden food crates at all entrances of church. All the donations go directly to the local Catholic food pantries.

What better time for a life-changing faith trip than just before Holy Week? Nazareth, Bethlehem, Cana, Mt. Tabor, Jerusalem, the Dead Sea and much more. Don't just read about it ---experience it. Holy Land Pilgrimage (Mar 21-31, 2023) Scriptures, your prayer life and the Mass will become far more meaningful. It's a trip you'll treasure the rest of your life! Space is limited. Discounts for those who sign-up soon. For more info, contact Mark Wyble at 816-233-8427 or religiousramblers@gmail.com.
