GRATEFUL & GENEROUS

October 25, 2020

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind.” – Matthew 22:37

Do you put other “gods” before God? Is your love of money, power, status, comfort or some personal possession greater than your love for God? Do you really recognize that everything you have and that everything you are is a gift from God? The good news – it’s not too late to put God first in all things in your life.

Online Giving Welcome to Online Giving

Divine Mercy Parish would like to thank our families who are currently giving electronically. You may not see these fellow parishioners place an envelope in the basket every week, but their consistent giving does not go unnoticed. Each month our parish receives a steady and predictable stream of income from those donors who have made the commitment to give to God first by having a designated contribution automatically transferred to our parish through our Online Giving Program. If you would like to learn more about this easy, safe, and secure way of giving, please check out our website:

Prayer Blanket Ministry

Relief to the suffering, peace to the fearful. May each Prayer Blanket Recipient know they are not alone. We are praying for their healing and comfort. This beautiful act of sacrifice before the Lord transforms this blanket into a prayer blanket whose very threads become interwoven with pleas for healing on behalf of the recipient. To request a Prayer Blanket for someone who is ill or in need, contact Meryl Rooney at (504) 472-4383.

DIVINE MERCY YOUTH MINISTRY

Today, we celebrate the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time. In the Gospel (MT 22:34-40), we are presented with the greatest commandment. Jesus says, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind," (MT 22:37). A LIFETEEN author states, "learning about God is, itself, an act of love." The LIFETEEN author further reminds us that "the golden rule ('Do to others whatever you would have them do to you.' MT 7:12) is based in love, God's love." At LIFETEEN and Edge we discuss what the LIFETEEN author says about how "we keep His commandments and love our neighbor." Please join us as we discuss how to love God with our all of our heart, soul, and mind.

"Peoples and nations of the entire world need to hear these words – BE NOT AFRAID. Their conscience needs to grow in the certainty that Someone exists who holds in his hands the destiny of this passing world... And this someone is Love – Love that became man, Love crucified and risen, Love unceasingly present among men." St. John Paul II

Karol Wojtyla was a young man when the Nazis invaded Poland in 1939. His seminary training took place in secret and in 1946 he was ordained with Poland now under the control of the Soviets. He served as a priest and a bishop under communist rule and then was elected pope in 1978.

Throughout his life he developed a great devotion to the Blessed Virgin, consecrated his life to her and wrote this poem entitled "Totus Tuus."

Immaculate Conception, Mary my Mother, Live in me, Act in me, Speak in me and through me. Think your thoughts in my mind, Love through my heart... Teach me, lead me and guide me to Jesus... Possess my soul. Take over my entire personality and life, replace it with yourself... Pray in me and through me, Let me live in you and keep me in this union always. Amen.

May he lead us to see Mary through the eyes of God the Father who chose her to be the mother of His Son.
May we too truly depend on her to take us to Jesus.

FR. COOPER'S CORNER

A New American Blessed

The December 7, 2019, beatification of an American, LaSallian Brother James Alfred Miller, a native of Stevens Point, Wisconsin, who was martyred for the faith in Guatemala in 1982, is a great blessing for the Church. Pope Francis, in his 2018 exhortation on holiness, Gaudete et Exsultate, wrote about the “saints next door,” and in many ways Blessed James is an all-American holy neighbor. He was born in 1944 and grew up working hard on his family’s dairy and chicken farm in Custer, Wisconsin, praying at home, and wanting to be a priest. He was fascinated by other countries, reading an encyclopedia from cover to cover to get to know foreign countries and regions where he hoped to bring the faith.

When he entered Pacelli High School and met the Brothers of the Christian Schools, he quickly discerned he had a vocation to share in their educational apostolate. He entered the juniorate of the community at 15 (much like boys at that time could enter high school seminaries at 14), became a postulant and novice at 18, professed first vows at 21, and final vows at 26. He was sent by the Christian Brothers to St. Mary’s University in Winona, Minnesota, where, hoping to share in their missionary apostolates, he got both Bachelors’ and Master’s degrees in Spanish. He was described by those who knew him as likable, sociable, simple, humble, generous, honest, kind, intelligent, ordered, courageous, prayerful, zealous, and hardworking. His fellow Christian Brothers dubbed him a “common, good guy,” “very human,” “a man of union and communion,” who had the “gift of gab,” a perpetual smile, “deep faith and love for his religious vocation,” and a contagious, boisterous guffaw.

He also, they noted, was perpetually “late to class and community prayers,” something that Cardinal José Luis Lacunza of Panama, presiding over his beatification, joked had prepared him very well for service in Latin America, “where punctuality is not numbered among our virtues!” His first assignment was to teach Spanish, English, and religion for a few years at Cretin High School in St. Paul, Minnesota. While there, he supervised the maintenance of the school, earning the nickname “Brother Fix-It.” He also coached football, a sport at which, at 6’2” and 220 pounds, he was prone to excel. In 1969, after a fellow Christian Brother got sick at the Brothers’ school in Bluefield, Nicaragua, “Hermano Santiago” was sent to replace him. For four-plus years, he taught sixth grade, then high school, while also repairing the residence, running a bookstore, and starting a soccer team.

In 1974, Brother James was transferred to Puerto Cabezas where, as director of the school, he catalyzed an increase of enrollment from 300 to 800 students, helped build an industrial arts complex, offices, an auditorium and science center, taught, founded a volunteer fire department, and served as janitor, fixing the plumbing, cleaning the bathrooms and sweeping the floor. His practical know-how won the attention of the Somoza Government, who contracted him to build ten more schools in the rural region so that the children of the area would have a chance at an education.

When the Sandinistas took over the country, because of his having erected schools for the Somoza government and his general work of education and care for the human dignity of people long-neglected, he was put on a list of those to be “dealt with.” His superiors, therefore, decided to summon him back to Cretin High School in Minnesota. He feared that the people of Puerto Cabezas would see his departure as an act of cowardice and so he wrote them telling them he would return, but he never got his wish. After two years of trying to return to Latin America, his superiors sent him to their Mission in Huehuetenango, Guatemala, to teach at the Indigenous House School and work at the Indian Center, training indigenous Mayans in agricultural techniques, leadership skills, and basic educational subjects.

St. Jean Baptiste de la Salle had told his spiritual sons, “Your zeal must go so far that you are ready to give your life, so dear to you are the children entrusted to you,” and Hermano Santiago took his founder’s instruction to heart. His new assignment was as dangerous as the one in Nicaragua. The Guatemalan government regularly conscripted indigenous students, even though they were exempt by law, into service. The government resented the Christian Brothers' constantly appearing to present documentation to liberate their students. Word quickly spread that members of the G-2 death squad were looking for the "sub-director," Brother James' office at the school.

He well knew the danger, but responded with humor, realism, and faith. When asked if he were afraid, he replied, "Are you kidding? I never thought I could pray with such fervor when I go to bed!" He wrote his sister a month before he died, "One of two frightening things could happen to me in Guatemala: I could be kidnapped, tortured and killed or I could simply be gunned down." He added, however, "You don't think about that, that's not why you're there. There's too much to be done. You can't waste your energy worrying about what might happen. If it happens, it happens." He insisted, "I pray to God for the grace and strength to serve Him faithfully among the poor and oppressed in Guatemala. I place my life in His Providence. I place my trust in Him."

On Saturday, February 13, 1982, after returning with students from a picnic, Brother Fix-It mounted a ladder to repair a broken lamp on the outer wall of the school. At 4:15 pm, four hooded men, whom the government would later call "subversive criminal elements," sped past in a car with windows down and submachine guns loaded. They shot Hermano Santiago seven times in the neck and chest, as shocked children looked on from a window in the school. He fell from the ladder, dead. His funeral was held first in Huehuetenango and then in St. Paul, Minnesota, before he was buried in Ellis, Wisconsin, at a cemetery just outside the family farm.

At his beatification on the Huehuetenango soccer field, Cardinal Lacunza called him a "martyr, an excellent educator and an evangelical defender of the poor and oppressed" who "made himself one of us and for us gave his life." He suggested that Hermano Santiago died in witness of Christ's great commission to teach all nations and was an icon of Christ the Teacher who died to give witness to the truth. "There is nothing that bothers totalitarianisms...more than education," Lacunza said, since the greatest way to ensure that people remain docile to manipulation is by keeping them "ignorant, without criteria or values." If education is subversive to tyrants, the Gospel is even more of a threat.

One of the Christian brothers who had known Blessed James throughout his religious life said he loved to do things "very quietly, behind the scenes," and "never asked for recognition." Now, all he did is in the foreground, with his having received the most important acknowledgment a human being can. His beatification shows that the Lord continues to exalt the humble. It also shows that the greatest in the kingdom of heaven remain those who keep the faith and teach others to do the same.

DIVINE WORSHIP AND SACRED MUSIC

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Memorare

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

4:00 PM MASS

ENTRANCE

Here I Am, Lord

1. I, the Lord of sea and sky,
I have heard My people cry.
All who dwell in dark and sin.
My hand will save.
I who made the stars of night,
I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear my light to them?
Whom shall I send?

Refrain

Here I am Lord. Is it I, Lord?

I have heard You calling in the night.
I will go, Lord, if You lead me,
I will hold Your people in my heart.

2. I, the Lord of snow and rain.
I have borne My people's pain.
I have wept for love of them.
They turn away.
I will break their hearts of stone,
Give them hearts for love alone.
I will speak My word to them.
Whom shall I send?

3. I, the Lord of wind and flame,
I will tend the poor and lame.

I will set a feast for them.
My hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide,
till their hearts be satisfied.
I will give my life to them.
Whom shall I send?

Jesus, Savior, Friend and Brother, Intercessor, Son of God,
save your people in your dying,
and in rising, conquer death.

2. May we be for one another all that you would have us be.
May we live your law of kindness,
love, compassion, charity.
May we climb your holy mountain;
may we see your holy face!
Visit now this humble dwelling;
dwell within this holy place.

3. God before us through the ages;

COMMUNION

I Am Yours

Refrain

Bread of Life, Wine of Peace,
Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity,
consume me completely.
I am yours.

1. I surrender
to the power of your love.
And I surrender.
Let your will be done in me.

2. Lead me to the silence where you whisper to my heart.
Lead me to the place where your love consumes me.

3. Let your light shine,
let it shine in my heart.
Let your light shine.
Let me be your light in this world.

4. O Bread of Life,
You answer all our needs, and fill our souls with the fullness of love and grace.

5. O Bread of Life,
You, the longing of our hearts,
we welcome you.
Let your will be done in us.

6. O Blood of Christ,
Source of life, and source of peace,
water of life flowing from your side.

7. O Blood of Christ,
Our deep stream of mercy
wash over us.
Flood our souls completely.

8. O Soul of Christ, sanctifying us,
Body of Christ,
save us.
(to final refrain...)

Final Refrain

Bread of Life, Wine of Peace,
Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity,
consume me completely.
I am yours.
Consume me completely.
I am yours.

SENDING FORTH

Lift Up Your Hearts

Refrain

Lift up your hearts to the Lord, praise God's gracious mercy!
Sing out your joy to the Lord, whose love is enduring.

1. Shout with joy to the Lord, all the earth!
Praise the name above all names!
Say to God,
"How wondrous your works,
how glorious your name!"

2. Let the earth worship, singing your praise.
Praise the glory of your name!
Come and see what God has revealed;
bless God's holy name!

3. God's right hand made a path through the night, split the waters of the sea.
All creation, lift up your voice:
"Our God set us free!"

4. Listen now, all you servants of God, as I tell of these great works.
Blessed be the Lord of my life, whose love shall endure!

OFFERTORY

Whatever You Do

1. When I was hungry
you gave me to eat.
When I was thirsty
you gave me to drink.
When I was homeless
you opened your door.
When I was naked
you clothed me and more.
O come, come, come
into my Father's house.
O come, come, come on home.

Refrain

Whatever you do to the
least of my sisters and brothers
you have done to me.
Whatever you do to the
least of my sisters and brothers
you have done to me,
you have done to me.

2. When I was little you taught me to read.
When I was anxious you calmed all my fears.
When in a prison
you came to my cell, reached out your hand

to me when I fell.
O come, come, come
into my Father's house.
O come, come, come on home.

3. When I was not of the color of choice,
you stood beside me
and walked the course.
When people laughed
and made fun of me,
you were my friend
in time of need.

O come, come, come
into my Father's house.
O come, come, come on home.

COMMUNION

In Christ Alone

1. In Christ alone my hope is found,
He is my light my strength, my song;
This Cornerstone, this solid Ground, firm through the fiercest drought and storm.
What heights of love,
what depths of peace,
when fears are stilled,
when strivings cease.
My Comforter, my All in All,
here in the love of Christ I stand

2. In Christ alone, who took on flesh, fulness of God in helpless babe!
This gift of love and righteousness,
Scorned by the ones
He came to save.
Till on that cross as Jesus died,
the wrath of God was satisfied.
For every sin on Him was laid;
Here in the death of Christ I live.

3. There in the ground His body lay,
Light of the world by darkness slain;
Then, bursting forth in glorious Day,
up from the grave He rose again!
And as He stands in victory,
sin's curse has lost its grip on me;
For I am His and He is mine, bought with the precious blood of Christ.

4. No guilt in life, no fear in death,
this is the power of Christ in me;

From life's first cry to final breath,
Jesus commands my destiny.
No power of hell,
no scheme of man,
can ever pluck me from His hand;
Till He returns or calls me home,
here in the power of Christ I'll stand!

2. Day after day, night after night,

You're with me in this fight.
Although the battle, it rages on,

I know the war is already won.

COMMUNION*Miracle of Grace

1. Miracle of grace, mystery of faith calling us to venture to the deep.
Though our senses fail,
Your graces still prevail,
and we become the love that we receive.

Refrain

Bread of Life, Bread of Life.
Those who eat this bread shall live and never die.
Bread of Life, Bread of Life.
Your true presence in this holy sacrifice.
Bread of Life, Bread of Life.

2. Unworthy though we are,
You feed the hungry heart with bread come down from heaven above.
And like a grain of wheat,
we fall down at Your feet,
dying here with You,
oh, let us rise!

3. Your faithfulness revealed
In this covenant You've sealed with Your very body and Your blood.
Come, claim Your bride again with love that cannot end, for what God joins no one can divide.

Acuérdete, oh piadosísima Virgen María!, que jamás se ha oído decir que ninguno de los que han acudido a tu protección, implorando tu auxilio, haya sido desamparado. Animado por esta confianza, a Ti acudo, Madre, Virgen de la vírgenes, y gimiendo bajo el peso de mis pecados me atrevo a comparecer ante Ti. Madre de Dios, no deseches mis súplicas, antes bien, escúchalas y acógelas benignamente. Amen.

Oración a San Miguel Arcángel

O San Miguel, Arcángel defiéndenos en la batalla. Sé nuestra protección contra el mal y las trampas del diablo; humildemente te rogamus que Dios los reprenda. O Príncipe Celestial de la Santa Hostia, que con la ayuda de Dios echas a satanás al infierno y a los espíritus que vagan por el mundo para arruinar las almas. Amén.

Nuestra Oración Familiar

Dios amoroso y fiel, a través de los años el pueblo de nuestra arquidiócesis ha apreciado las oraciones y el amor de Nuestra Señora del Pronto Socorro en tiempos de guerras, desastres, epidemias y enfermedad. Venimos a Ti, Padre, con María nuestra Madre, y te pedimos nos ayudes en la batalla de hoy contra la violencia, el asesinato y el racismo. Te imploramos que nos des la sabiduría para construir una comunidad fundada en los valores de Jesús, que conceden respeto a la vida y dignidad a todas las personas. Bendice a los padres para que formen a sus hijos en fe. Bendice y protege a nuestros jóvenes para que sean hacedores de paz en nuestro tiempos. Da consuelo a los que han perdido a seres queridos debido a la violencia. Te lo pedimos por Jesucristo, Nuestro Señor. Amén.

Nuestra Señora del Pronto Socorro, apresúrate a socorrernos.

Madre Henrieta Delille, ruega por nosotros para que seamos una familia Santa.
