GRATEFUL & GENEROUS

June 6, 2021
Feast of Corpus Christi

"Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them and they all drank from it."

- Mark 14:23

Jesus, the perfect steward, gave thanks, just before He gave Himself up for us, completely for our salvation. He offers us the same chance to drink from His cup. In the bread and wine, we meet Christ personally.

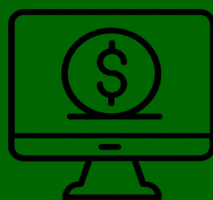

If we follow Him, drinking from His cup means our own self-sacrifice, using all of our gifts for the benefit of others and to do His work on earth.

Online Giving Welcome to Online Giving

Divine Mercy Parish would like to thank our families who are currently giving electronically. You may not see these fellow parishioners place an envelope in the basket every week, but their consistent giving does not go unnoticed. Each month our parish receives a steady and predictable stream of income from those donors who have made the commitment to give to God first by having a designated contribution automatically transferred to our parish through our Online Giving Program. DIVINE MERCY YOUTH MINISTRY

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. In the Gospel, Mark 14:12-16, 22-26, we are presented with the occurrence at the Lord's Supper. Jesus took the bread and said, "Take it; this is my body."

(MK 14:22). Then Jesus took a cup and said, "This is my blood of the covenant," (MK 14:24). A LIFE TEEN author reminds us that at Mass, "Christ shares His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity with us in the form of a meal." The LIFE TEEN author asks us to remember how meaningful a meal shared with one another is. On Sunday nights, we discuss what the LIFE TEEN author says about how "the sacraments, in particular the Eucharist, strengthen your relationship with Jesus."

Sunday Nights at Divine Mercy are designed for 7-12 grade students regardless of what school they attend. We are made up of adults and teens who are passionate about living for Jesus! Our ultimate goal is to one day become saints! Please join us as we discuss the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ and the LIFE TEEN author's comments about how "the Eucharist nourish(es) us, and the blood of Christ does more than protect us from death; it brings us life."

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Divine Mercy Parish,

I am very pleased to announce that Mr. Dylan Mitchell will join Divine Mercy Parish as our new Pastoral Associate/Director of Youth Ministry. Dylan will begin his journey with us on July 1, 2021 and will be working closely with Mr. Ryan Foulon during the month of July to ensure a smooth transition plan is in place as we continue the Lord's mission at Divine Mercy Parish and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton School.

As the Director of Youth Ministry, Dylan will be responsible for developing a parish based pastoral ministry with young people that includes goal implementation for those components outlined in the USCCB's document Renewing a Vision: A framework for Catholic Youth Ministry. This program, which will reach out to all youth in the community, provides for formal catechesis, invites, and enables youth to serve others. Dylan will provide vision and coordination for the parish's efforts in ministry to young people in middle school and high school (6th through 12th grade). Currently, this includes developing curricula, training, and staffing of middle and high school catechetical classes, sacramental preparation for Confirmation, and implementing a comprehensive Youth formation program.

As Pastoral Associate, Dylan will function as an integral member of the parish staff, sharing in the responsibility of the assessment, decision-making, planning, and implementation of parish ministries, operations, and pastoral care. Currently, this includes contributing to the faith formation and development of ministers and parishioners; demonstrating an interest in the initiation of new members to the parish community and in the process of evangelization and renewal; contributing to the initial formation and ongoing development of various ministers and parish groups; participating in the recruitment, training, formation, supervision, and empowering of others; assisting in the formation of the entire community in understanding the parish mission; and developing parish retreats, missions, and formation events.

Dylan currently serves as the Youth Minister and Confirmation Coordinator at Mary, Queen of Peace Catholic Church (Mandeville, LA) and has previously assisted in campus ministry at Christ the King Parish and Student Center at Louisiana State University (Baton Rouge, LA). He has ministry experience with the Salesian Fathers and has served as a Core Team Member with the Life Teen Program at Our Lady of Mercy Catholic Church (Baton Rouge, LA). Dylan holds a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from LSU (Baton Rouge, LA) and is currently pursuing a Master of Arts in Pastoral Leadership from Notre Dame Seminary Graduate School of Theology (New Orleans, LA).

Dylan is newly married to his wife Gabby (December 2020), and they look forward to becoming active parishioners of Divine Mercy Parish. Dylan's great enthusiasm, joyful spirit, and spiritual maturity, coupled with his many talents and gifts, will be a tremendous blessing to our parish family. His desire is to share his love for the Catholic faith and the Church, and his experience in parish life with all of us.

As Dylan notes, "In all that has happened over the past year, I am excited to be able to assist Fr. Cooper in bringing the Divine Mercy Parish family forward and closer to Christ. It is my belief that pastoral staff members are not only called to build disciples but to also help those disciples build more disciples for the kingdom. That is the mission that I want to be a part of and aid in its growth."

Join me in welcoming Dylan to our pastoral staff! Let us hold each other in prayer in this time of transition and new beginnings.

FR. COOPER'S CORNER

Lex Orandi, Lex Credendi

A poor family was gathered around the dinner table for the birthday of the youngest son. After a short prayer of thanksgiving, the father said: "Son, it's your birthday. Now make a wish, and then blow the candles." The boy dutifully closed his eyes and then blew the candles. Then the father asked him, "Son, what was your birthday wish?" The boy said, "I wished that on my birthday next year, there will be a cake on the table so that I won't be holding the candles." The family was so poor that there was not even a small birthday cake on the table. But they knew that it was not what is essential in the birthday celebration. Rather, it is the gift of life that they are thankful to God for; it is the family gathered together in love and harmony; it is the assurance of God's abiding presence that fills them with hope and joy. These are the things that make a birthday celebration truly meaningful, and not the cake, food, or merriment.

This Sunday we come together again to celebrate the Eucharist. It is always and essentially a thanksgiving, for that is what "Eucharist" means. The spirit of joy and gladness should be in us every time we celebrate the Eucharist. Unfortunately, there are many Catholics who do not see it that way anymore. Many have even left the Catholic Church because they found the celebrations boring and dry. They have come to Mass with lots of expectations and these have not been met, so they say. I am not saying that it is not good to have such expectations, but these are not what we came to Mass for.

For instance, some are saying that the Mass does not provide enough entertainment, and so people are bored. A boy was asked why he had to keep quiet in the church. And he quickly replied, "Because there are people sleeping in church." People want something new and spectacular every time. No wonder the most attended Masses are Ash Wednesday, Palm Sunday, Easter Sunday, and Christmas – there are added attractions: ashes, palms, Easter eggs, and Christmas trees! Many expect the priest to always have jokes and stories in his homily to keep the congregation wide awake. Others demand that the choir members have great voices and sing more "upbeat" music; others want well-choreographed movements of the ministers, polished lectors, comfortable seats, the best lighting and sound facilities, and other amenities. Admittedly, these are all valid concerns and expectations.

Worse than these, moreover, some priests have fallen into the same trap. Instead of giving the people what God wants for them, these priests give what the people want to hear and see for fear of offending them. In effect, the Word of God is not preached faithfully and prophetically. The celebration becomes like a concert or stage play, and the real sense of God's active presence is totally lost. Too much emphasis on the horizontal dimension – the relationship between human persons – has led to the utter neglect of the more important dimension in the liturgy, the vertical dimension – the relationship between God and man.

Unfortunately, many of us have lost sight of what is really essential in the liturgical celebration: Jesus Christ Himself. Pope Emeritus Benedict insists on this: "The Liturgy is God's action." The center of the liturgy is not man, but God. Therefore, no Pope, bishop, or priest can mess with the liturgy just to be accommodating and entertaining to people. Just as a cake is not that essential to a birthday celebration, so also the music, the ministers, the church facilities, and even the personality of the priest, cannot be more important than the divine and real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. We have come here to Mass, not because of the ministers, the congregation, the music, or the environment; we have come here for Jesus, to encounter Him personally in the Eucharist. Knowing and believing that Jesus is truly present, we then do the best we can to make this celebration truly meaningful and joyful. That is where the other things come in: the good homily, the orderly and solemn rituals, the “heavenly” music, the splendid service of the ministers, and the like. Pope Emeritus Benedict said, “The best catechesis on the Eucharist is the Eucharist itself well celebrated.”

Jesus, I trust in You!

There is the classic saying in Catholic Theology, Lex orandi, lex credendi, the law of prayer is the law of faith. It refers to the relationship between worship and belief. The Catechism of the Catholic Church states: “The Church’s faith precedes the faith of the believer who is invited to adhere to it. When the Church celebrates the sacraments, she confesses the faith received from the apostles – whence the ancient saying: lex orandi, lex credendi. The law of prayer is the law of faith: The Church believes as she prays. Liturgy is a constitutive element of the holy and living Tradition” (CCC 1124).

In other words, if we really believe that the Mass is the one and the same sacrifice of Jesus on the cross, that the bread and wine become the body and blood of Christ, that Jesus is truly present in the Holy Eucharist, then we will do the best we can to behave properly during Mass and to worship solemnly and appropriately. If we truly believe that the Eucharist is the sacrament of God’s love for us, then we who partake of it must also be motivated and filled with love. St. Josemaria Escrivá said, “You say the Mass is long; and I add, because your love is short!”

On this celebration of the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, let us renew our faith in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Let this renewed faith inspire and move us to always come to Church every Sunday full of joy and eagerness to encounter Jesus, and to make our Eucharistic celebrations meaningful and truly pleasing in God’s eyes. In this way, we will be duty-bound, first, to prepare ourselves properly in our physical and spiritual life; second, to actively and meaningfully participate in the celebration; and third, to worthily receive Jesus in Holy Communion. Then the Mass ceases to be boring and dry. It becomes for us the source and the summit of our life as Christians. The Eucharist is truly our life! Welcome Home!!

The second collection this weekend is for our Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration Chapel

This annual collection, held on Corpus Christi Sunday, allows us to maintain and make necessary repairs and improvements to our chapel.

Thank you for your generosity to the Lord as we continue to foster devotion to Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament.

The second collection next weekend is for Debt Reduction

DIVINE WORSHIP AND SACRED MUSIC

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Memorare

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

Table of Plenty

Refrain

Come to the feast of heaven and earth!
Come to the table of plenty!
God will provide for all that we need,
here at the table of plenty.

1. O come and sit at my table where saints and sinners are friends.
I wait to welcome the lost and lonely to share the cup of my love.
2. O come and eat without money;
come to drink without price.
My feast of gladness will feed your spirit with faith and fullness of life.
3. My bread will ever sustain you through days of sorrow and woe.
My wine will flow like a sea of gladness to flood the depths of your soul.

4. Your fields will flower in fullness;
your homes will flourish in peace.
For I, the giver of home and harvest, will send my rain on the soil.

OFFERTORY

All That We Have

Refrain

All that we have and all that we offer
Comes from a heart
both frightened and free.
Take what we bring now
and give what we need,
All done in his name.

1. Some would rely on their power, others put trust in their gold.
Some have only their Savior,
Whose faithfulness never grows old.

2. Sometimes the road
may be lonesome,
often we may lose our way;
Take courage and always remember Love isn't just for a day.

3. Sometimes when troubles are many, Life can seem empty,
it's true,
But look at the life of the Master,
Who lovingly suffered for you.

COMMUNION

Let Us Be Bread

Refrain

Let us be bread,
blessed by the Lord,
broken and shared,
life for the world.
Let us be wine, love freely poured.
Let us be one in the Lord.

1. I am the bread of life, broken for all.
Eat now and hunger no more.

2. You are my friends
if you keep my commands,
no longer servants but friends.

3. See how my people have nothing to eat.
Give them the bread that is you.

4. As God has loved me so I have loved you.
Go and live on in my love.

SENDING FORTH

Alleluia! Sing to Jesus

1. Alleluia! Sing to Jesus!
His the scepter, His the throne;
Alleluia! His the triumph,
His the victory alone;
Hark! The songs of peaceful Zion
Thunder like a mighty flood;
Jesus out of ev'ry nation
Has redeemed us by His blood.

2. Alleluia! not as orphans
Are we left in sorrow now;
Alleluia! he is near us,
Faith believes, nor questions how:
Though the cloud from sight received him,
When the forty days were o'er,
Shall our hearts forget his promise,
'I am with you evermore'?

3. Alleluia! Bread of Angels,
Here on earth our food, our stay!
Alleluia! here the sinful
Flee to you from day to day:
Intercessor, friend of sinners,
Earth's redeemer, plead for me,
Where the songs of all the sinless
Sweep across the crystal sea.

4. Alleluia! King eternal,
You the Lord of lords we own;
Alleluia! Born of Mary,
Earth your footstool,
heav'n your throne:
You, within the veil, have entered,
Robed in flesh, our great High Priest;
Here on earth both priest and victim
In the Eucharistic feast.

5. Alleluia! Alleluia!
Glory be to God on high Alleluia to the Savior
Who has won the victory;
Alleluia to the Spirit,
Font of love and sanctity;
Alleluia! Alleluia!
To the triune majesty.

We Bring Our Gifts to Your Altar

1. We bring our gifts
to your altar, O Lord God of hosts,
We lay them at the foot of your throne.
We bring our gifts
to your altar, O Lord God of hosts,
We offer them to praise you alone.
We bring our gifts
to your altar, O Lord.

2. We bring our hearts
to your altar, O Lord God of hosts;
Unite them with the heart of your Son.
For he offered his life
as a ransom for sin;
By his death the victory is won.
We bring our hearts
to your altar, O Lord.

3. Prepare our hearts to receive you, O Lord God of hosts;
Cleanse us and wash away our sins.
We sing your praise with the angels and saints at your throne,
For this is where heaven enters in.
Prepare our hearts
to receive you, O Lord.

4. We bring our gifts to your altar,
O Lord God of hosts;
May our sacrifice be pleasing in your sight, fruit of the earth
and work of human hands,

Which will become for us
the Bread of Life.
We bring our gifts
to your altar, O Lord.
We bring our gifts
to your altar, O Lord.

COMMUNION

Soul of Christ

Refrain

Soul of Christ, oh sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.

1. Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Jesus Christ,
strengthen me.

2. O good Jesus, hear me.
Within thy wounds hide me.

3. Permit me not to separate from thee.
From the wicked foe defend me.

4. At the hour of my death, call me and bid that I might come to thee, that with thy saints I may praise thee forever and ever.

Final Refrain

Soul of Christ, oh sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Soul of Christ, oh sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Inebriate me. Inebriate me.

SENDING FORTHJesus Messiah

1. He became sin, who knew no sin; that we might become
His righteousness;
He humbled Himself,
and carried the cross.
Love so amazing, Love so amazing.

Refrain

Jesus, Messiah;
Name above all names;
Blessed Redeemer; Emmanuel.
The Rescue for sinners,
the Ransom from heaven;
Jesus, Messiah, Lord of all.

Memorare

Acuérdete, oh piadosísima Virgen María!, que jamás se ha oído decir que ninguno de los que han acudido a tu protección, implorando tu auxilio, haya sido desamparado. Animado por esta confianza, a Ti acudo, Madre, Virgen de las vírgenes, y gimiendo bajo el peso de mis pecados me atrevo a comparecer ante Ti. Madre de Dios, no deseches mis súplicas, antes bien, escúchalas y acógelas benigneamente. Amen.

Oración a San Miguel Arcángel

O San Miguel, Arcángel defiéndenos en la batalla. Sé nuestra protección contra el mal y las trampas del diablo; humildemente te rogamos que Dios los reprenda. O Príncipe Celestial de la Santa Hostia, que con la ayuda de Dios eches a satanás al infierno y a los espíritus que vagan por el mundo para arruinar las almas. Amén.

Nuestra Oración Familiar

Dios amoroso y fiel, a través de los años el pueblo de nuestra arquidiócesis ha apreciado las oraciones y el amor de Nuestra Señora del Pronto Socorro en tiempos de guerras, desastres, epidemias y enfermedad. Venimos a Ti, Padre, con María nuestra Madre, y te pedimos nos ayudes en la batalla de hoy contra la violencia, el asesinato y el racismo. Te imploramos que nos des la sabiduría para construir una comunidad fundada en los valores de Jesús, que conceden respeto a la vida y dignidad a todas las personas. Bendice a los padres para que formen a sus hijos en fe. Bendice y protege a nuestros jóvenes para que sean hacedores de paz en nuestro tiempos. Da consuelo a los que han perdido a seres queridos debido a la violencia. Te lo pedimos por Jesucristo, Nuestro Señor. Amén.

Nuestra Señora del Pronto Socorro, apresúrate a socorrernos.

Madre Henrieta Delille, ruega por nosotros para que seamos una familia Santa.

2. His body the bread,
His blood the wine
broken and poured out,
all for love.
The whole earth trembled,
and the veil was torn.
Love so amazing,
Love so amazing
