GRATEFUL & GENEROUS

May 15, 2022
5th Sunday of Easter

"I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." (John 13:34)

"As I have loved you," this is the hard part – Jesus's love is unconditional; our love usually comes with strings attached. It is easy to love someone when they love you back. But it takes mercy and compassion to love someone when you feel unappreciated, feel used or feel like your opinion doesn't matter. It takes courage and the grace of God to "love my neighbor" when they may be someone you don't like, someone you don't know or someone that doesn't look like you.

Online Giving Welcome to Online Giving

Divine Mercy Parish would like to thank our families who are currently giving electronically. You may not see these fellow parishioners place an envelope in the basket every week, but their consistent giving does not go unnoticed. Each month our parish receives a steady and predictable stream of income from those donors who have made the commitment to give to God first by having a designated contribution automatically transferred to our parish through our Online Giving Program. If you would like to learn more about this easy, safe, and secure way of giving, please check out our website:

Today, we celebrate the Fifth Sunday of Easter. In the Gospel (Jn 13:31-33a, 34-35), we are presented with the time when Jesus gives a new commandment- love one another. Jesus says, "As I have loved you, so you also should love one another," (JN 13:34). The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) states that, "To love is to will the good of another," (CCC1766). It also states, "By loving one another, the disciples imitate the love of Jesus which they themselves receive," (CCC1823). We are called to love one another in our families, schools, workplaces, communities, society, and the world. Saint Frances de Sales said, "To love our neighbor in charity is to love God in man." On Sunday nights, Divine Mercy Youth discusses love... of our neighbor as well as the love of Jesus. We also discuss many teachings of the Catholic Church that show our love of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament during adoration. We also extend our love through charity as well as devotion to Our Blessed Mother, who leads us to her Son.

Under the protection of Mary's mantle, you are invited to join us!

Divine Mercy Youth is a high school ministry for all 8th-12th grade students. Our aim is to help teens grow in intentional discipleship through prayer, community, and formation. Divine Mercy Youth is held on Sunday Nights following the 5pm mass and will serve as the catechetical program for all students who are not in Catholic school. See the parish website to register, for our schedule, and how to stay connected with us!

Please join our Legion of Mary in praying the Patriotic Rosary following the 6:30 pm Mass on Tuesday, May 31st (the day following Memorial Day). There will also be a special recitation of a heroic Catholic officer's action on D-Day as part of the prayer.

Preliminary plans are now underway to call and form the next group. Archbishop Aymond has approved the formation of the next diaconate formation group.

Four sessions will be offered to illustrate and explore the formation, life and ministry of serving as a deacon in the Church.

These "Information Nights" are informal gatherings in the evenings. Those who sense God speaking to them about the possibility of serving in ordained ministry are encouraged to "Come and See". Attendance at one of these sessions will allow the formation community to share basic criteria for entrance into formation and will enable each participant to consider requesting an invitation to attend the more formalized "Discernment Gatherings".

Wives are encouraged to attend.

All are asked to pre-register for one of the sessions by email: pdiaconate@arch-no.org. Questions? 504-861-6329.

FR. COOPER'S CORNER

A Heart Stronger than Weapons

On March 25, the Solemnity of the Annunciation, marking the Incarnation of the Son of God in response to the Blessed Virgin Mary's fiat, Pope Francis, in communion with bishops, priests, religious, and faithful throughout the world, solemnly prayed in front of the image of Our Lady of Fatima brought to St. Peter's Basilica: "Mother of God and our Mother, to your Immaculate Heart we solemnly entrust and consecrate ourselves, the Church and all humanity, especially Russia and Ukraine. ... Grant that war may end and peace spread throughout the world. The 'Fiat' that arose from your heart opened the doors of history to the Prince of Peace. We trust that, through your heart, peace will dawn once more. To you we consecrate the future of the whole human family, the needs and expectations of every people, the anxieties and hopes of the world."

The consecration was done not only in response to the petition of many faithful but ultimately to a request of Mary herself during her private revelations to the three shepherd children in Fatima in 1917. After showing them an image of the souls of what sinners would experience in hell, she stated, "To save them, God wishes to establish in the world devotion to my Immaculate heart. ... I shall come to ask for the consecration of Russia to my Immaculate Heart and the Communion of reparation on first Saturdays. If my requests are heeded, Russia will be converted and there will be peace; if not she will spread her errors through the world, causing wars and persecutions of the Church, ... [and] various nations will be annihilated."

It is not necessary for Catholics to believe private revelations, but it is hard not to trust the credibility of the Fatima message, considering the incontestable miracle of the sun that occurred on October 13, 1917, as a foretold confirmation of the veracity of the apparitions, not to mention the clear fulfillment of Mary's predictions to the shepherd children that "the Holy Father will have much to suffer" and a "bishop dressed in white" would be shot, something that happened on, of all days, May 13, 1981, the anniversary of the first of the Fatima apparitions. It is clear that the Popes have believed in and acted on Mary's message in Fatima, consecrating the world repeatedly to her in 1942, 1964, 1982, and 1984.

Pope Francis was clear that he was recapitulating the consecration of his predecessors, saying in a homily moments before the act of consecration, "In union with the Bishops and faithful of the world, ... I wish to renew to her the consecration of the Church and the whole of humanity, and to consecrate to her in a particular way the Ukrainian people and the Russian people who, with filial affection, venerate her as a Mother."

The word "renew" was an unambiguous clarification for those who have never accepted that the consecration had been done properly before, that Pope Francis believes it had been done appropriately — as Sr. Lucia dos Santos, the surviving visionary, had affirmed, when she attested that St. John Paul II's 1984 consecration was "done just as our Lady asked."

Against other critics, who deem acts of devotion like a consecration to Mary's Immaculate Heart as superstitious, Pope Francis responded plainly in his homily: "This is no magic formula but a spiritual act. It is an act of complete trust on the part of children who, amid the tribulation of this cruel and senseless war that threatens our world, turn to their Mother, ... reposing all our fears and pain in her heart and abandoning ourselves to her." He framed it within the context of what Mary herself did in Cana, where she "interceded with Jesus and he worked the first of his signs." Pope Francis was asking Mary to intercede with that same Son for the gift of peace.

The ultimate meaning of this act of consecration to Mary's heart was explained by the future Pope Benedict XVI in a commentary accompanying the June 26, 2000, publication the third part of the Message of Fatima. He noted that the remedy proposed by Mary to the shepherd children — devotion to her Immaculate Heart and consecration of Russia to it — might initially seem surprising. But he said that since the heart indicates the center of human life and since Jesus says that the pure of heart see God (Mt 5:8), "to be devoted to the Immaculate Heart of Mary means therefore to embrace this attitude of heart that makes the fiat— 'your will be done' — the defining center of one's whole life."

When Mary says, "My Immaculate Heart will triumph," the future Pope Benedict XVI commented, she means to communicate that "the heart open to God, purified by contemplation of God, is stronger than guns and weapons of every kind." The fiat emanating from her pure heart, he continued, "has changed the history of the world, ... because thanks to her 'Yes,' God could become man in our world and remains so for all time."

Mary's heart will triumph because a heart pure like hers is ultimately stronger than all the hearts full of hatred and violence, and ultimately more powerful than bullets, tanks, hypersonic missiles, and even threatened nuclear bombs.

But what Pope Francis led the universal Church to do on March 25, the anniversary of Mary's initial fiat, must not remain just a one-time extrinsic rite. The consecration he asked all the members of the Church to pray with him is meant to be lived and renewed by believers. Together with the Holy Father, we were asking Mary not only to pray for an end to war and restore peace but to grant each of us a heart like hers. That is an ongoing process, because what Pope Francis did was not a "magic formula but a spiritual act," one that is meant to lead to a true spirituality of life.

Pope Francis pointed to this as he finished the act of consecration. He prayed: "Our Lady of the 'Fiat,' on whom the Holy Spirit descended, restore among us the harmony that comes from God. ... In your womb Jesus took flesh; help us to foster the growth of communion. You once trod the streets of our world; lead us now on the paths of peace." The path of peace involves a fiat to God's will not the will to power. It involves a heart like Mary's that ponders, treasures, and enfleshes God's Word. It involves an entrustment to Mary's motherhood, prayers, and powerful intercession. Let us renew the consecration of ourselves to her heart full of love each day until the war is ended — and beyond.

DIVINE WORSHIP AND SACRED MUSIC

Fifth Sunday of Easter

Memorare

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

ENTRANCE

God Is Love

- God is Love, let heav'n adore him;
God is Love, let earth rejoice;
Let creation sing before him
And exalt him with one voice.
God who laid the earth's foundation,
God who spreads the heav'ns above,
God who breathes through all creation:
God is Love, eternal Love.
- God is Love; and love enfolds us,
All the world in one embrace:
With unfailing grasp God holds us,
Every child of every race.
And when human hearts are breaking
Under sorrow's iron rod,
Then we find that self-same aching Deep within the heart of God.
- God is Love; and though with blindness
Sin afflicts all human life,
God's eternal loving kindness
Guides us through our earthly strife.
Sin and death and hell shall never
O'er us final triumph gain;
God is Love, so Love for ever
O'er the universe must reign.

COMMUNION

In Christ Alone

- In Christ alone my hope is found,
He is my light my strength, my song;
This Cornerstone, this solid Ground, firm through the
fiercest drought and storm.
What heights of love,
what depths of peace,
when fears are stilled,
when strivings cease.
My Comforter, my All in All,
here in the love of Christ I stand
- In Christ alone, who took on flesh,
fulness of God in helpless babe!
This gift of love and righteousness,
Scorned by the ones
He came to save.
Till on that cross as Jesus died,
the wrath of God was satisfied.
For every sin on Him was laid;
Here in the death of Christ I live.
- There in the ground His body lay,
Light of the world by darkness slain;
Then, bursting forth in glorious Day,
up from the grave He rose again!
And as He stands in victory,
sin's curse has lost its grip on me;

Loving Mercifully, Living Marian.

For I am His and He is mine, bought with the precious blood of Christ.

4. No guilt in life, no fear in death,
this is the power of Christ in me;
From life's first cry to final breath,
Jesus commands my destiny.
No power of hell, no scheme of man,
can ever pluck me from His hand;
Till He returns or calls me home,
here in the power of Christ I'll stand!

Love Divine, All Loves Excelling

1. Love divine, all loves excelling,
Joy of heav'n to earth come down!
Fix in us your humble dwelling,
All your faithful mercies crown.
Jesus, source of all compassion,
Love unbounded, love all pure;
Visit us with your salvation,
Let your love in us endure.

2. Come, almighty to deliver,
Let us all your life receive;
Suddenly return and never,
Never more your temples leave.
Lord, we would be always blessing,
Serve you as your hosts above,
Pray, and praise you without ceasing,
Glory in your precious love.

3. Finish then your new creation,
Pure and spotless, gracious Lord,
Let us see your great salvation
Perfectly in you restored.
Changed from glory into glory,
Till in heav'n we take our place,
Till we sing before the almighty
Lost in wonder, love and praise.

Memorare

Acuérdate, oh piadosísima Virgen María!, que jamás se ha oído decir que ninguno de los que han acudido a tu protección, implorando tu auxilio, haya sido desamparado. Animado por esta confianza, a Ti acudo, Madre, Virgen de la vírgenes, y gimiendo bajo el peso de mis pecados me atrevo a comparecer ante Ti. Madre de Dios, no deseches mis súplicas, antes bien, escúchalas y acógelas benignamente. Amen.

Oración a San Miguel Arcángel

O San Miguel, Arcángel defiéndenos en la batalla. Sé nuestra protección contra el mal y las trampas del diablo; humildemente te rogamos que Dios los reprenda. O Príncipe Celestial de la Santa Hostia, que con la ayuda de Dios echas a satanás al infierno y a los espíritus que vagan por el mundo para arruinar las almas. Amén.

Nuestra Oración Familiar

Dios amoroso y fiel, a través de los años el pueblo de nuestra archidiócesis ha apreciado las oraciones y el amor de Nuestra Señora del Pronto Socorro en tiempos de guerras, desastres, epidemias y enfermedad. Venimos a Ti, Padre, con María nuestra Madre, y te pedimos nos ayudes en la batalla de hoy contra la violencia, el asesinato y el racismo. Te imploramos que nos des la sabiduría para construir una comunidad fundada en los valores de Jesús, que conceden respeto a la vida y dignidad a todas las personas. Bendice a los padres para que formen a sus hijos en fe. Bendice y protege a nuestros jóvenes para que sean hacedores de paz en nuestro tiempos. Da consuelo a los que han perdido a seres queridos debido a la violencia. Te lo pedimos por Jesucristo, Nuestro Señor. Amén.

Nuestra Señora del Pronto Socorro, apresúrate a socorrernos. Madre Henrieta Delille, ruega por nosotros para que seamos una familia Santa.

They'll Know We Are Christians

1. We are one in the Spirit,
we are one in the Lord,
We are one in the Spirit,
we are one in the Lord,
And we pray that all unity
may one day be restored:

Refrain

And they'll know we are Christians
by our love, by our love,
Yes, they'll know we are Christians
by our love.

2. We will walk with each other,
we will walk hand in hand,
We will walk with each other,
we will walk hand in hand,
And together we'll spread the news that God is in our land:

3. We will work with each other,
we will work side by side,
We will work with each other,
we will work side by side,
And we'll guard human's dignity
and save human's pride:

4. All praise to the Father,
from whom all things come,
And all praise to Christ Jesus, his only Son.
And all praise to the Spirit
who makes us one:

Heavenly Father,
Thank you for creating each of us,
including our unborn brothers and sisters,
in Your image and likeness.
We ask for your protection on all precious babies waiting to be born.
We lift up their mothers and fathers
in their moment of need.
We pray for the Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States as they reconsider Roe v. Wade.
Please grant them wisdom to make decisions that safeguard the rights of the least among us.
Grant them the courage to stand for truth
even when they face opposition.
We pray for our nation that we may ensure that every life be cherished in the laws of our nation and the hearts of our people.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen
