GRATEFUL & GENEROUS

May 22, 2022
6th Sunday of Easter

“...Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid.” (John 14:27)

Our limited human understanding cannot begin to understand the immense power of God. Instead of trusting in God, we often think we can control every outcome. Do you want to make God laugh? Tell Him your plans. The next time worry, anxiety or fear creeps in, thank God for all He has given you and trust that He has a better plan for you. Make God your first choice and not your last resort.

Online Giving Welcome to Online Giving

Divine Mercy Parish would like to thank our families who are currently giving electronically. You may not see these fellow parishioners place an envelope in the basket every week, but their consistent giving does not go unnoticed. Each month our parish receives a steady and predictable stream of income from those donors who have made the commitment to give to God first by having a designated contribution automatically transferred to our parish through our Online Giving Program. If you would like to learn more about this easy, safe, and secure way of giving, please check out our website:

Today, we celebrate the Sixth Sunday of Easter. In the Gospel (John 14:23-29), we are presented with the time when Jesus tells the disciples about the coming of the Advocate (the Holy Spirit). Jesus says, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you," (JN 14:27). The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) states that, "Through the Holy Spirit we are restored to paradise, led back to the Kingdom of heaven, and... given a share in eternal glory," (CCC 736). The Holy Spirit offers us peace which is one of the 12 fruits of the Holy Spirit. This peace can give us comfort in our daily lives.

Saint Teresa of Avila said, "Let nothing disturb thee." On Sunday nights, Divine Mercy Youth discusses the peace of Christ and many other teachings of Jesus including community and unity. We also discuss topics regarding Our Blessed Mother and how she leads us to her Son. Under the protection of Mary's mantle, you are invited to join us!

Divine Mercy Youth is a high school ministry for all 8th-12th grade students. Our aim is to help teens grow in intentional discipleship through prayer, community, and formation. Divine Mercy Youth is held on Sunday Nights following the 5pm mass and will serve as the catechetical program for all students who are not in Catholic school. See the parish website to register, for our schedule, and how to stay connected with us!

LEGION OF MARY'S
PATRIOTIC ROSARY
TUES, MAY 31ST
FOLLOWING 6:30 PM MASS
(DAY AFTER MEMORIAL DAY)

Please join our Legion of Mary in praying the Patriotic Rosary following the 6:30 pm Mass on Tuesday, May 31st (the day following Memorial Day).

There will also be a special recitation of a heroic Catholic officer's action on D-Day as part of the prayer.

Our Knights of Columbus members are incredible examples of being men of faith and service! We were blown away at the 8:30am Mass on Sunday, May 15 when they presented Fr. Cooper with a check of nearly $29,000: funds that were raised through the hard work of weekly fish fries during the Lenten season. Thank you so much for your generosity of not only these hard-earned funds but even more-so for the gift of your time and talents!

Catholic Charities Archdiocese of New Orleans is looking for adult and youth volunteers for the summer. High school students can participate in our SERVE program -an opportunity for high school students to give back to the community and achieve required service hours. Registration is non-refundable - $15 for SERVE.

Registration is open now until full. All participants will receive a t-shirt. Register online at http:// www.ccano.org/serve-app/ For more information contact Shannon Murphy, Director of Volunteers at (504) 310-6962.

We wish to share a BIG thank you and congratulations to the entire Parish for making our Lenten Service Project with The Magic Yarn Project such an amazing success! Thanks to all who attended our Yarn Parties and took yarn home to measure, we were able to cut and package enough yarn to make over 750 specialty wigs for these brave kids!

LENTEEN PARISH SERVICE PROJECT UPDATE

We are also thankful for the generosity of all of our parishioners and supporters of this project. Thanks to you, we were able to not only cover expenses for this service project but were also able to send The Magic Yarn Project 100% of all remaining donations, totaling over $1,500 to help this non-profit organization create even more wigs for childhood cancer patients.

We especially would like to thank Maria Sotomayor and Mark Stewart for their incredible hearts of service and dedication during this MASSIVE and rewarding project. We can't thank you enough!

God bless you all and thank you again for your immense support!

Ministerio confinado en casa

Algunos de nuestros Ministros Extraordinarios de la Sagrada Comunión no solo distribuyen a Jesús en la Misa, sino que algunos también lo llevan a los confinados en casa, a Ochsner Kenner Hospital y Chateau Living Center. El Ministerio al Homebound permite a la Parroquia de la Divina Misericordia tener contacto con los feligreses que no pueden asistir a la Misa a través de visitas semanales con distribución de la Sagrada Eucaristía. Proporcionamos información sobre la parroquia y la Arquidiócesis a los feligreses asegurándonos de que reciban el boletín semanal y el Clarion Herald. Si usted o un ser querido, le gustaría recibir Santo Comunión o que alguien visite su casa, comuníquese con la oficina parroquial al 504-466-5016.

FR. COOPER'S CORNER

Celebrating Like It's 1622

In March, the Church marked the 400th anniversary of the joint canonization of four of the most influential figures not just in the counter-reformation but in all of Church history — Saints Teresa of Avila, Ignatius of Loyola, Francis Xavier, and Philip Neri — together with the one who, at the time, King Philip IV tried to make the “headliner,” St. Isidore the Farmer.

St. Isidore was already devotionally the patron of the new Spanish capital of Madrid, and the Spanish monarch sponsored a theater structure within what is now St. Peter's Square with scenes and miracles from St. Isidore's life. Of course, it did not work because even with four Spaniards, they could not collectively match the popularity of the Italian St. Philip, only 27 years after his death. The Romans dubbed the canonization, quattro Spagnoli e un santo!, “Four Spaniards and a Saint!,” a quip that has similarly stood the test of time!

The quatercentenary is something I have looked forward to from the first time I had heard — during my college years — that all of these saints, to whom I had devotion, were canonized together. Perhaps the only liturgical dates I have looked forward to with greater anticipation are April 6-9 in 30 AD, which, if scholars are right, will be the two thousandth anniversary of the Last Supper, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and Easter Sunday. Even though the actual bimillennial of the Resurrection will take place on Tuesday of the Fifth Week of Lent in 2030, I am planning — if God permits me still to be around — to break the fast and celebrate with the joy befitting such an anniversary. I would encourage you to circle your calendar and, if God permits you, likewise, to be around, to join me!

For this 400th anniversary, I want to focus on how these five saints illustrate for us the call to conversion and holiness. With regard to holiness, St. Teresa showed us an extraordinary hunger for it as a seven-year-old resolving to journey immediately with her younger brother Rodrigo to Morocco to be martyred so that they could become a saint the quickest way possible. Their plan was foiled by a chance meeting with their uncle Francisco coming back from the hunt; otherwise, we would have seen how they would have traversed the Mediterranean!

A similar desire for holiness ultimately characterized all five, but it did not come easily. It required conversion. After 19 years of religious life, Teresa needed to convert from laxity, lukewarmness, and a life of deliberate venial sin. Isidore needed to convert from fear in the face of criticism by co-workers. Philip Neri needed to convert from his Florentine desire to become rich. Francis Xavier needed to convert from a desire for ecclesiastical ambition to become, first, a famous priest professor, and, later, Bishop of Pamplona. And most famously of all, Ignatius needed to convert from a desire for worldly fame on the battlefield. After his right leg, however, was shattered and his left calf torn off by a cannonball, as he was biding his time reading lives of the saints during many months of convalescence, he was touched in conscience and asked why he could not respond to grace the way Francis of Assisi and Dominic of Guzman had before him. He eventually did. The Christian vocation is a call to holiness and all five show us how: turning away from sin and being truly faithful to the Gospel.

Each of them, likewise, was a person and a master-teacher of prayer. Through his Spiritual Exercises, St. Ignatius is the most famous teacher of Christian meditation in the history of the Church. St. Teresa, together with her spiritual co-conspirator St. John of the Cross, is the greatest teacher of contemplation and cartographer of the prayerful journey of the soul. St. Isidore taught us how to pray our work. St. Philip showed us how to pray with the saints and to incorporate the beauty inspired by faith into our conversation with God. Finally, St. Francis Xavier taught us how to teach others to pray, as he creatively catechized so many converts in Goa and the Pearl Fishery Coast of India, Sri Lanka, Indonesia, and Japan.

They also all gave witness to the greatest form of almsgiving, which is to share the most important gift of all, which is the gift of God. Each was incandescent with a desire to share the gift of faith. The most famous example is that of St. Francis Xavier, the greatest missionary in Church history after St. Paul. His 1544 letter from the trenches has stirred readers ever since. After describing how hard he was working to baptize the multitudes, he commented, “Many, many people hereabouts are not becoming Christians for one reason only: there is nobody to make them Christians. Again and again, I have thought of going round the universities of Europe, especially Paris, and everywhere crying out like a madman, riveting the attention of those with more learning than charity: ‘What a tragedy: how many souls are being shut out of heaven and falling into hell, thanks to you!’ I wish they would work as hard at this as they do at their books, and so settle their account with God for their learning and the talents entrusted to them.”

He got that desire from the one to whom he sent the letter, St. Ignatius, whose whole life was a commentary on Jesus’ words, “I have come to set the earth on fire and how I wish it were already blazing!” (Lk 12:49). St. Ignatius ignited a spiritual bonfire that lit the flame of generations of Jesuit missionaries who risked and, in many cases, gave their lives to bring the Gospel to the New World. A similar zeal characterized their brothers who founded educational institutions to carry out a deep penetration of the Gospel among those in Europe and areas already evangelized.

St. Teresa founded convents all over Spain on the principle that the first and most important aspect of the Church’s mission is to pray to the Harvest Master. On our own, she knew, we cannot make new disciples because faith is always a gift. We must beg them of God and that is what St. Teresa taught her Carmelites — and the whole Church — to do. St. Isidore sought to evangelize the farmers who worked alongside of him, and, together with his wife, St. Maria de la Cabeza, to spread the joy of faith to other couples, families, and their neighbors.

After having read St. Francis Xavier’s letters, St. Philip approached his spiritual director saying that he believed God was asking him to follow his Jesuit contemporary to India. The wise Cistercian told him, “No. Rome will be your Indies!” And he spent the rest of his life re-evangelizing Rome, cooperating with the gift of the Holy Spirit, through contagious joy, friendship, caring for the poor and sick, fun pilgrimages to different sanctuaries, opportunities for adult education and prayer, the sacrament of penance, and helping them appreciate what was really going on in the miracle of the Mass. Over the course of his time in Rome, the eternal city went from a traumatized moral cesspool to a converted city in which holiness was not only tolerated but seen to be what it really is, the path to the only happiness that endures. His example shows us that to be a Missionary, we do not have to go to far away places, but just as he made Rome his Indies, we are each called to make our neighbor, city, or town.

There are so many other angles we can focus on in their very rich lives. The main point is, however, that if we heed their lessons of conversion and holiness, of prayer and a love of neighbor so deep as to share with them the pearl of great price, the odds are we will be able, at the 500th anniversary, to celebrate with them in person — in that place where Christ, by what he did April 6-9, 30 AD made possible!

Our St. Anthony Ministry to the Needy's Food Pantry is in need of donations!

Items can be placed in the back of the Church in or next to the St. Anthony Basket (please ensure items are NOT expired nor in glass containers). If you are donating gift cards, please drop them in the St. Anthony Box.

We are currently in need of:

- Canned Items: Carrots, Corn, Green Beans, Tomato Sauce, Mixed Vegetables, Soups, Beans, Canned Fruit, Canned Meats (Tuna, Chicken, Chef Boyardee, Spaghetti & Meatballs, etc.)
- Other Items: Peanut Butter, Jelly, Macaroni & Cheese, Pasta, Rice, Dry Beans, Instant Potatoes, Jiffy Corn Muffin Mix, Dry Cereal, Grits, Juice, Oatmeal, Individually wrapped snacks, Back to School Lunch Box snacks

Gift Cards (for families to purchase their own food): Walmart, Rouses, Dollar Tree

Preliminary plans are underway to call and form the next group. Archbishop Aymond has approved the formation of the next diaconate formation group. Four sessions will be offered to illustrate and explore the formation, life and ministry of serving as a deacon in the Church.

These "Information Nights" are informal gatherings in the evenings. Those who sense God speaking to them about the possibility of serving in ordained ministry are encouraged to "Come and See". Attendance at one of these sessions will allow the formation community to share basic criteria for entrance into formation and will enable each participant to consider requesting an invitation to attend the more formalized "Discernment Gatherings".

Wives are encouraged to attend.

Pre-register for one of the sessions by email: pdiaconate@arch-no.org. Questions? 504-861-6329.

You may choose to attend any one of the following, but attendance at one of these nights is required to attend the remaining "Discernment Gatherings" and to submit an application to enter formation.

DIVINE WORSHIP AND SACRED MUSIC

Sixth Sunday of Easter

Memorare

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

ENTRANCE

God, We Praise You!

1. God, we praise you, God, we bless you!
God, we name you sovereign Lord!
Mighty King whom angels worship,
Father, by your Church adored:
all creation shows your glory, heaven and earth draw near your throne, singing, 'Holy, holy, holy,
Lord of hosts, and God alone!'

2. True apostles, faithful prophets, saints who set their world ablaze, martyrs, once unknown, unheeded, join one growing song of praise, while your Church on earth confesses
one majestic Trinity:
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
God, our hope eternally.

3. Jesus Christ, the King of glory, everlasting Son of God,
humble was your virgin mother, hard the lonely path you trod.
By your cross is sin defeated, hell confronted face to face, heaven opened to believers, sinners justified by grace.

4. Christ, at God's right hand victorious, you will judge the world you made;
Lord, in mercy help your servants for whose freedom you have paid.
Raise us up from dust to glory,
guard us from all sin today;
King enthroned above all praises,
save your people, God, we pray!

OFFERTORY

All Creatures of Our God and King

1. All creatures of our God and King,
Lift up your voice and with us sing
O praise Him, alleluia!
Thou burning sun with golden beam,
Thou silver moon with softer gleam;
O praise Him, O praise Him,
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

2. Thou rushing wind that art so strong,
Ye clouds that sail in Heav'n along,
O praise Him, alleluia!
Thou rising, moon in praise rejoice;
Ye lights of evening, find a voice,
O praise Him, O praise Him,
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

3. Let all things their Creator bless,
And worship Him in humbleness.
O praise Him, alleluia!
Praise, praise the Father, praise the Son, and praise the Spirit, three in One.
O praise Him, O praise Him,
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

O Alleluia! Alleluia!
O Alleluia! Alleluia!
O Alleluia! Alleluia!
O Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

COMMUNION

Prayer of St. Francis

1. Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred,
let me bring your love.
Where there is injury,
your pardon Lord,
And where there's doubt,
true faith in you.

2. Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life,
let me bring hope.
Where there is darkness only light,
and where there is sadness ever joy.

3. O Master, grant that I may never seek so much to be consoled, as to console, to be understood, as to understand,
to be loved as to love with all my soul.

4. Make me a channel of your peace.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
In giving of ourselves that we receive,
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.

SENDING FORTH

Let There be Peace on Earth

Let there be peace on earth,
and let it begin with me.
Let there be peace on earth,
the peace that was meant to be.
With God as our Father, family all are we.

Let us walk with each other in perfect harmony.
Let peace begin with me;
let this be the moment now.

With ev'ry step I take,
let this be my solemn vow;
To take each moment,
and live each moment
in peace eternally!

Let there be peace on earth,
and let it begin with me.

COMMUNION

Come to the Lord

1. Do not let your hearts be troubled.
Children, do not fear.
Though you suffer as I suffered,
I am always near.

Refrain

Come to the Lord;
come to the table of lasting life.
Bring your burdens;
there's no price,
just come to the Lord.

2. I will never leave you orphans;
you are not alone.
I have made your place in heaven,
in my father's home.

3. Eat this bread and never hunger;
I will give you life.
Drink the cup I place before you;
you will never die.

Amor de Dios

Estribillo

Amor de Dios, convócanos.
Amor de Dios, haznos uno, que compartamos lo que recibimos para construir la comunidad,
para construir la comunidad.

1. En el agua de vida nos convertimos en cuerpo del Señor.

2. Hay diversos dones, pero un sólo Dios que nos inspira.

3. Haznos una familia que se une por obras de tu amor.

Open the Eyes of My Heart

Refrain

Open the eyes of my heart, Lord,
open the eyes of my heart.
I want to see You. I want to see You.

1. To see You high and lifted up, shining in the light of Your glory.
Pour out Your power and love as we sing "Holy, holy, holy".
(repeat refrain and verse...)

Holy, holy, holy, holy, holy, holy, holy, holy, holy, I want to see You.

OFFERTORY

Holy Spirit

1. There's nothing worth more that will ever come close.
Nothing can compare; You're our living hope.
Your Presence.

2. I've tasted and seen
of the sweetest of loves, where my heart becomes free and my shame is undone, in Your Presence, Lord.

Chorus

Holy Spirit, You are welcome here; Come flood this place
and fill the atmosphere;
Your glory, God, is what our hearts long for,
to be overcome by Your Presence, Lord.

Interlude

Your Presence, Lord.

Interlude 2

Your Presence, Lord. Your Presence, oh God, how we love Your Presence, Lord.

Bridge

Let us become more aware of Your Presence.
Let us experience the glory of Your goodness.

COMMUNION

Ever Be

1. Your love is devoted like a ring of solid gold Like a vow that is tested like a covenant of old
Your love is enduring through the winter rain
And beyond the horizon with mercy for today

Pre-Chorus

Faithful You have been and faithful You will be You pledge Yourself to me and it's why I sing

Chorus

Your praise will ever be on my lips
Ever be on my lips
Your praise will ever be on my lips
Ever be on my lips (Repeat)

2. You Father the orphan
Your kindness makes us whole
You shoulder our weakness
And Your strength becomes our own

You're making me like You Clothing me in white Bringing beauty from ashes
For You will have Your bride

Pre-Chorus

Free of all her guilt and rid of all her shame
And known by her true name
and it's why I sing

Bridge

You will be praised, You will be praised
With angels and saints we sing
worthy are You Lord
You will be praised, You will be praised
With angels and saints we sing
worthy are You Lord (Repeat)

And it's why I sing

SENDING FORTH

All The People Said Amen

1. You are not alone if you are lonely.
When you feel afraid, you're not the only.
We are all the same, in need of mercy,
to be forgiven and be free.
It's all you got to lean on,
but thank God it's all you need.

Refrain

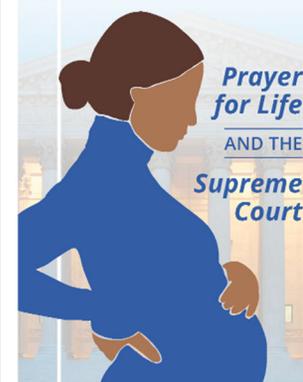

And all the people said, "Amen".
And all the people said, "Amen".
Give thanks to the Lord,
for His love never ends.
And all the people said, "Amen".

2. If you're rich or poor, well it don't matter.
Weak or strong,
you know love is what we're after.
We're all broken,
but we're all in this together.
God knows we stumble and fall,
and He so loved the world,
He sent His son to save us all.

Bridge

Blessed are the poor in spirit who are torn apart.
Blessed are the persecuted
and the pure in heart.
Blessed are the people
hungry for another start,
For theirs is the kingdom,
the kingdom of God. (to refrain 2X...)

Heavenly Father,
Thank you for creating each of us,
including our unborn brothers and sisters,
in Your image and likeness.
We ask for your protection on all precious babies waiting to be born.
We lift up their mothers and fathers in their moment of need.
We pray for the Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States as they reconsider Roe v. Wade.
Please grant them wisdom to make decisions that safeguard the rights of the least among us.
Grant them the courage to stand for truth even when they face opposition.
We pray for our nation that we may ensure that every life be cherished in the laws of our nation and the hearts of our people.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

ARCHDIOCESE OF
NEW ORLEANS

Memorare

Acuérdate, oh piadosísima Virgen María!, que jamás se ha oído decir que ninguno de los que han acudido a tu protección, implorando tu auxilio, haya sido desamparado. Animado por esta confianza, a Ti acudo, Madre, Virgen de la vírgenes, y gimiendo bajo el peso de mis pecados me atrevo a comparecer ante Ti. Madre de Dios, no deseches mis súplicas, antes bien, escúchalas y acógelas benignamente. Amen.

Oración a San Miguel Arcángel

O San Miguel, Arcángel defiéndenos en la batalla. Sé nuestra protección contra el mal y las trampas del diablo; humildemente te rogamos que Dios los reprenda. O Príncipe Celestial de la Santa Hostia, que con la ayuda de Dios echés a satanás al infierno y a los espíritus que vagan por el mundo para arruinar las almas. Amén.

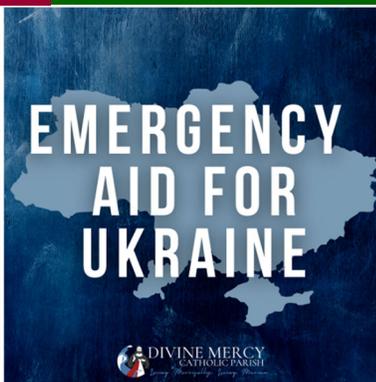

Nuestra Oración Familiar

Dios amoroso y fiel, a través de los años el pueblo de nuestra arquidiócesis ha apreciado las oraciones y el amor de Nuestra Señora del Pronto Socorro en tiempos de guerras, desastres, epidemias y enfermedad. Venimos a Ti, Padre, con María nuestra Madre, y te pedimos nos ayudes en la batalla de hoy contra la violencia, el asesinato y el racismo. Te imploramos que nos des la sabiduría para construir una comunidad fundada en los valores de Jesús, que conceden respeto a la vida y dignidad a todas las personas. Bendice a los padres para que formen a sus hijos en fe. Bendice y protege a nuestros jóvenes para que sean hacedores de paz en nuestro tiempos. Da consuelo a los que han perdido a seres queridos debido a la violencia. Te lo pedimos por Jesucristo, Nuestro Señor. Amén.

Nuestra Señora del Pronto Socorro, apresúrate a socorrernos. Madre Henrieta Delille, ruega por nosotros para que seamos una familia Santa.

We continue to accept donations for all of our Relief Efforts. Please place envelope in the collection basket with Relief Effort noted or contribute online at the parish website.
