A EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

WEEK 7: WHAT IS THE EUCHARIST?

One morning when the Israelites stepped outside their tents in the desert, despairing of starvation, they saw flakes of... something... laying on the ground. What was it? That's exactly what they said. Manna literally means "what is it?" This mysterious food, the food they could see with their eyes yet nonetheless defied everything they knew about nature and physics, quite literally saved them. Today at Mass, look at the Eucharist as it is consecrated. What is it? With your eyes, you will see flat, round bread and ordinary wine. But better yet—who is the Eucharist? Jesus has answered this question: This is My body, given up for you. The Eucharist is far more than miraculous food in the desert. The Eucharist is Jesus Himself, making Himself available in a most vulnerable and humble way to you. The host is not a symbol or reminder. Communion is not a cultural tradition or rite of passage. The Eucharist is Him who loves you most, coming to be close to you. The Eucharist is your Lord and your God, giving Himself into your hands. This mystery and miracle cannot be explained by anything we know of nature or physics, but only by faith, hope, and love. Look at Jesus in the Eucharist closely. What does it mean that He has done this for you? How do you respond?

Focus this week: This week, try to make a visit to the Eucharistic adoration chapel. Focus on simply being in Jesus' presence and pondering the astonishing mystery of the Eucharist. You don't need to do or read or "say" anything in adoration—just spend ten or fifteen minutes with Jesus. Let Him speak to you and reveal His true presence. You can find Divine Mercy's adoration chapel on the parish map found at divinemercyparish.org/adoration-chapel.

WORDS OF WISDOM

"The Eucharist, however, is not just Christ's gift to us. It is the Giver, it is Christ himself in person, the whole person, who is both divine and human—within the human, both body and soul and within the body, both flesh and blood."

– Dr. Peter Kreeft

SCRIPTURE HIGHLIGHT

"I remind you, to stir into flame the gift of God that you have through the imposition of my hands. For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control. So do not be ashamed of your testimony to our Lord"

2 Timothy 1:6-8

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control." ~2 Timothy 1:7

Many of us compartmentalize our Faith, we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Being a good steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything - all the time. The next time you are at a neighborhood party or at work or out shopping, would your words and actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?

Today, we celebrate the Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time. We are presented with the time Jesus speaks to His disciples and talks about the attitude of a servant. In the Gospel (Luke 17:5-10), Jesus says, "When you have done all you have been commanded, say, 'We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do,'" (LK 17:10). One clearly sees the obedience in the attitude of the servant. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) discusses the topic of obedience in a section about man's freedom and responsibility. The CCC states, "The choice to disobey and do evil is an abuse of freedom and leads to 'the slavery of sin,'" (CCC#1733). Many wish to be good servants and avoid sin. St Augustine said, "In doing what we ought, we deserve no praise, because it is our duty." On Sunday nights, Divine Mercy Youth discusses exactly how one should "do what we ought" with concrete ways for following what God commands. We explore many other lessons from the Bible including tips on how to be obedient in our families, schools, workplaces, communities, and the world. We also discuss topics regarding Our Blessed Mother and how she leads us to her Son. Under the protection of Mary's mantle, you are invited to join us!

Divine Mercy Youth is a high school ministry for all 8th through 12th grade students. Our aim is to help teens grow in intentional discipleship through prayer, community, and formation. Divine Mercy Youth is held on Sunday Nights following the 5pm mass and will serve as the catechetical program for all students who are not in catholic school. Respect Life Sunday 2022

Today, which the U.S. Bishops have designated as Respect Life Sunday, there are many life issues that we could consider. But there is one that is worth our attention since it is, I think, a major stumbling block to the pro-life message. It concerns abortion and the welfare of women. The media often structures the abortion debate as a conflict between women and those who claim to represent the unborn child. The message is conveyed that pro-life equals anti-women. Those who promote respect for the rights of the unborn child are said to be against women. Once this assumption is accepted, the pro-life position is cut off before it is even heard. After all, what woman wants to listen to someone who is, they are told, anti-woman?

For this reason, leaders in the pro-life movement have tried to stress that they are not, and never were, anti-women or anti-women's rights, properly understood. One sees this idea put forward in some of the posters displayed at the March for Life in Washington D.C. They said, "Here till no more women cry, till no more children die."

This love for women as well as their unborn children is not just a matter of words, or a pro-life public relations ploy, but a proud legacy of the pro-life movement. The Catholic Church has manifested this love in concrete ways, especially in direct services to women experiencing problem pregnancies.

But beyond the offering of services to pregnant women, we should consider this too: that the Church and the pro-life movement help women specifically by helping them to choose life. By educating people's consciences about the importance of respect for life and the serious moral evil of abortion, the Church is in fact serving women. It is always a benefit to a person to support them in doing what is right. And when we support a woman and help her choose life, we help her in a way that touches the very core of her person. We help her walk the path of virtue and confirm and strengthen her in making rightful moral choices. When a woman has chosen life, she has manifested good moral judgment, inner strength, and love for the child within her. While her choice may be painful, she maintains an inner self-esteem because she knows that another person has benefited immensely from her sacrifice. And the spiritual reward God will give her we cannot begin to imagine.

If we are going to say then that the pro-life movement seeks to help women as well as unborn children, we have to look at the other side of the coin as well. In other words, we should consider that abortion hurts women. That abortion is a violation of the human rights of unborn children must be affirmed. As St. Pope John Paul II wrote in his encyclical, the Gospel of Life, 58: "Among all the crimes which can be committed against life, procured abortion has characteristics making it particularly serious and deplorable." The Second Vatican Council defines abortion, together with infanticide, as an "unspeakable crime." The one eliminated is a human being at the very beginning of life. No one more absolutely innocent could be imagined. He or she is weak, defenseless, even to the point of lacking that minimal form of defense consisting in the poignant power of a newborn baby's cries and tears.

But in addition to this, what has also come to light during the years of abortion on demand is the destructive effects of abortion on the women themselves who choose it. A woman does not help herself by taking the life of her unborn child. Rather she hurts herself. Abortion is a lose-lose proposition.

For example, by choosing an abortion, women have suffered medical complications and even death. The substandard care they have received at the hands of abortion providers is documented extensively. This is as one would expect it.

Regarding the psychological effects of abortion, one can say at the very least that there is no evidence of its having positive therapeutic value. On the contrary, there is substantial evidence of its ill effects on women. A number of psychologists have identified what they once called Post-Abortion Syndrome, now re-defined as Post Abortion Trauma. This condition usually manifests itself five years after an abortion, when a woman begins to experience problems such as depression, nightmares, low self-esteem, unexplained anger, or substance abuse. The roots of these problems are repressed guilt and the lack of an opportunity to grieve the loss of one's child. To help women dealing with Post Abortion Trauma, the American Bishops have supported programs such as "Project Rachel." These and other similar programs help women face the truth about what they have done and to open their hearts to God's healing love and mercy.

But as bad as such effects may be, the most serious harm women suffer from abortion is the harm done to the conscience itself. We never help another person by conspiring with them to silence the voice of conscience. And in the case of abortion, as Post Abortion Trauma manifests, the voice of conscience is screaming. We never help a person by confirming them in a state of denial about what is really in the womb or about the moral wrongfulness of what they are doing. As much as a woman may feel that abortion is the answer to her problem, we must never cooperate with her efforts to obtain one. To do so would be to conspire with a woman against herself.

One can see then, that when a woman is with child, her life and the life of the child are already so closely bonded that to help one is to help the other, and to hurt one is to hurt the other. The pro-life movement and the Catholic Church are actively committed to helping and loving both and have proven that commitment in a way worthy of praise.

As St. Pope John Paul II once remarked to a group of American Bishops, "The pro-life movement is one of the most positive aspects of American public life, and the support given it by the bishops is a tribute to your pastoral leadership." On this Respect Life Sunday, let us be grateful for the pastoral leadership of the American Bishops, and answer their call to promote respect for the lives of unborn children, and to serve women in problem pregnancies with a love and compassion worthy of the name "Christian."

Beginning the weekend of October 15/16, the Knights of Columbus, St. Anthony Ministry to the Needy and the Culture of Life Ministry will kick-off our annual Baby Bottle Campaign to benefit Catholic Charities Pregnancy Centers (Formerly known as ACCESS Pregnancy).

DIVINE WORSHIP AND SACRED MUSIC

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Memorare

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

Table of Plenty

Refrain

Come to the feast of heaven and earth!
Come to the table of plenty!
God will provide for all that we need,
here at the table of plenty.

1. O come and sit at my table where saints and sinners are friends.
I wait to welcome the lost and lonely
to share the cup of my love.

2. O come and eat without money;
come to drink without price.
My feast of gladness will feed your spirit with faith and fullness of life.

3. My bread will ever sustain you through days of sorrow and woe.
My wine will flow like a sea of gladness to flood the depths of your soul.

4. Your fields will flower in fullness;
your homes will flourish in peace.
For I, the giver of home and harvest,
will send my rain on the soil.

OFFERTORY

We Walk by Faith

1. We walk by faith, and not by sight:
No gracious words we hear
Of him who spoke as none e'er spoke,
But we believe him near.
We may not touch his hands and side,
Nor follow where he trod;
Yet in his promise we rejoice,
And cry. We cry...

Refrain

'My Lord and God!'
You are my Lord and God.
You are my Lord and God.
You will always be the Lord of all of me.

2. Help then, O Lord, our unbelief,
And may our faith abound;
To call on you when you are near,
And seek where you are found:
That when our life of faith is done
In realms of clearer light
We may behold you as you are
In full and endless sight.
(to refrain...)

Bridge

I believe you were born
of the Virgin's womb
I believe you're the Way,
the Life, the Truth
I believe that you died
so that we might live!
I believe! I believe!
I believe that you rose
through the Father's love.
I believe that you breathed
the Spirit on us.
Lord, I know though
I doubt you will stand by me.
Help my unbelief!

Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity,
consume me completely.
I am yours.

1. I surrender to the power of your love.
And I surrender. Let your will be done in me.

2. Lead me to the silence
where you whisper to my heart.
Lead me to the place where your love consumes me.

3. Let your light shine, let it shine in my heart.
Let your light shine.
Let me be your light in this world.

4. O Bread of Life, You answer all our needs, and fill our souls with the fullness of love and grace.

5. O Bread of Life,
You, the longing of our hearts,
we welcome you. Let your will be done in us.

6. O Blood of Christ,
Source of life, and source of peace,
water of life flowing from your side.

7. O Blood of Christ,
Our deep stream of mercy wash over us.
Flood our souls completely.

8. O Soul of Christ, sanctifying us,
Body of Christ, save us.

Final Refrain

Bread of Life, Wine of Peace,
Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity,
consume me completely. I am yours.
Consume me completely. I am yours.

Holy God, We Praise Thy Name

1. Holy God, we praise thy name!
Lord of all, we bow before thee;
All on earth thy scepter claim,
All in heav'n above adore thee;
Infinite thy vast domain,
Everlasting is thy reign.
Infinite thy vast domain,
Everlasting is thy reign.

2. Hark! the loud celestial hymn
Angel choirs above are raising;
Cherubim and Seraphim
In unceasing chorus praising,
Fill the heav'ns with sweet accord:

Holy, holy, holy Lord!
Fill the heav'ns with sweet accord:
Holy, holy, holy Lord!

3. Lo! the apostolic train
Join, the sacred Name to hallow;
Prophets swell the loud refrain,
And the white-robed martyrs follow;
And from morn to set of sun,
Through the Church the song goes on.
And from morn to set of sun,
Through the Church the song goes on.

4. Holy Father, Holy Son,
Holy Spirit, Three we name thee,
While in essence only One,
Undivided God we claim thee,
And adoring bend the knee,
While we own the mystery.
And adoring bend the knee,
While we own the mystery.

Que Alegría Cuando Me Dijeron

Estribillo

Que alegría cuando me dijeron:
“Vamos a la casa del Señor”!
Ya están pisando nuestros pies
tus umbrales, Jerusalén.

1. Jerusalén está fundada
como ciudad bien compacta.
Alla suben las tribus,
las tribus del Señor.

2. Según la costumbre de Israel, a celebrar el nombre del Señor.
En ella están los tribunales
de justicia,
en el palacio de David.

3. Desead la paz a Jerusalén:
vivan seguros los que te aman,
haya paz dentro de tus muros,
en tus palacios seguridad.

4. Por mis hermanos y compañeros
voy a decir: “la paz contigo”.
Por la casa del Señor nuestro Dios,
te deseo todo bien.

OFERTORIO

Espero en Ti, Señor

Estribillo

Espero en ti, Señor,
mi alma confía en tu palabra.
Como el centinela a la aurora,
mi alma te espera, Señor.

1. Desde el abismo clamo a ti, Señor,
escucha mi clamor.
Estén atentos tus oídos, mi Dios,
a la súplica de mi voz.

2. Desde el abismo clamo a ti, Señor,
escucha mi clamor.

Ten misericordia de mí, Señor, libérame con tu perdón.

COMUNIÓN

Celebración de Unidad

Estribillo

Con trigo que se hizo pan
y vino sobre el altar, celebramos hoy con Dios
este banquete de amor.
Tú lo transformas Señor,
en cuerpo y sangre de ti,
fiesta de la salvación, celebración de unidad.

1. Hoy tú nos llamas otra vez
a servir contagiados de tu amor.
Haz que podamos celebrar
con gran fe el banquete de unidad.

2. Tú que eres fuente del amor
lograrás acercarnos más y más,
y con perdón y con bondad
nos traerás al festín de la hermandad.

3. Ya no debemos cultivar el afán de buscar el propio bien.
No hay un amor más singular,
ni mayor, que la vida misma dar.

CANTO FINAL

Creo en Jesús

Estribillo

Creo en Jesús, creo en Jesús,
Él es mi amigo, es mi alegría,
Él es mi amor; creo en Jesús,
Creo en Jesús, Él es mi Salvador.

1. Él llamó a mi puerta,
me invitó a compartir su heredad;
seguiré a su lado,
llevaré su mensaje de paz.

2. Ayudó al enfermo
y le trajo la felicidad;
defendió al humilde,
combatió la mentira y el mal.

3. Día y noche creo en Jesús,
Él está a mi lado, creo en Jesús.
Sigo sus palabras, creo en Jesús,
doy por Él la vida, creo en Jesús.
Es mi Salvador.

4. Enseñó a Zaqueo
a partir su hacienda y su pan;
alabó a la viuda
porque dio cuanto pudo ella dar.

5. Aleluya, creo en Jesús,
Él es el Mesías, creo en Jesús.
Él es mi esperanza, creo en Jesús,
vive para siempre, creo en Jesús.
Es mi Salvador.

They say these chains will never break
But they don't know You like we do

We've heard the tide will never change
They haven't seen what You can do
There is power in Your name
So much power in Your name

Break the unbreakable
God we believe, God we believe for it

From the imposible We'll see a miracle
God we believe, God we believe for it

3. We know that hope is never lost
Oh for there is still an empty grave
God we believe no matter what
There is power in Your name

Oceans (Where Feet May Fail)

1. You call me out upon the waters, the great unknown where feet may fail.
And there I find You in the myst'ry,
in oceans deep, my faith will stand.

Chorus

And I will call upon Your name
and keep my eyes above the waves.
When oceans rise,
my soul will rest in Your embrace
for I am Yours and You are mine.

2. Your grace abounds in deepest waters,
Your sov'reign hand will be my guide.
Where feet may fail and fear surrounds me,
You've never failed and You won't start now.

Interlude

Oh. And You are mine. Oh.

Bridge

Spirit lead me where my trust
is without borders,
let me walk upon the waters
wherever You would call me.
Take me deeper than my feet
could ever wander
and my faith will be made stronger
in the presence of my Saviour.

Interlude

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah.
Oh, Jesus, yeah. My God.

Chorus 2

I will call upon Your name,
keep my eyes above the waves.
My soul will rest in Your embrace.
I am Yours and You are mine.

Memorare

Acuérdate, oh piadosísima Virgen María!, que jamás se ha oído decir que ninguno de los que han acudido a tu protección, implorando tu auxilio, haya sido desamparado. Animado por esta confianza, a Ti acudo, Madre, Virgen de la vírgenes, y gimiendo bajo el peso de mis pecados me atrevo a comparecer ante Ti. Madre de Dios, no deseches mis súplicas, antes bien, escúchalas y acógelas benignamente. Amen.

Oración a San Miguel Arcángel

O San Miguel, Arcángel defiéndenos en la batalla. Sé nuestra protección contra el mal y las trampas del diablo; humildemente te rogamos que Dios los reprenda. O Príncipe Celestial de la Santa Hostia, que con la ayuda de Dios echés a satanás al infierno y a los espíritus que vagan por el mundo para arruinar las almas. Amén.

Nuestra Oración Familiar

Dios amoroso y fiel, a través de los años el pueblo de nuestra arquidiócesis ha apreciado las oraciones y el amor de Nuestra Señora del Pronto Socorro en tiempos de guerras, desastres, epidemias y enfermedad. Venimos a Ti, Padre, con María nuestra Madre, y te pedimos nos ayudes en la batalla de hoy contra la violencia, el asesinato y el racismo. Te imploramos que nos des la sabiduría para construir una comunidad fundada en los valores de Jesús, que conceden respeto a la vida y dignidad a todas las personas. Bendice a los padres para que formen a sus hijos en fe. Bendice y protege a nuestros jóvenes para que sean hacedores de paz en nuestro tiempos. Da consuelo a los que han perdido a seres queridos debido a la violencia. Te lo pedimos por Jesucristo, Nuestro Señor. Amén.

Nuestra Señora del Pronto Socorro, apresúrate a socorrernos. Madre Henrieta Delille, ruega por nosotros para que seamos una familia Santa.

COMMUNION

Do It Again

1. Walking around these walls,
I thought by now they'd fall,
but you have never failed me yet.
Waiting for change to come,
knowing the battle's won;
for you have never failed me yet.

Chorus

Your promise still stands;
great is your faithfulness, faithfulness.
I'm still in your hands. This is my confidence:
you've never failed me yet.

2. I know the night won't last.
Your word will come to pass.
My heart will sing your praise again.
Jesus, you're still enough;
keep me within your love.
My heart will sing your praise again.

Bridge

I've seen you move. You move the mountains,
and I believe I'll see you do it again.
You made a way where there was no way,
and I believe I'll see you do it again.

Ending

You've never failed me yet. I never will forget.
You've never failed me yet. I never will forget.

SENDING FORTH

Battle Belongs

1. When all I see is the battle
You see my victory
When all I see is a mountain
You see a mountain moved
And as I walk through the shadow
Your love surrounds me
There's nothing to fear now
For I am safe with You

Chorus

So when I fight I'll fight on my knees
With my hands lifted high
O God the battle belongs to You
And every fear I lay at Your feet
I'll sing through the night
O God the battle belongs to You

2. And if You are for me
Who can be against me
For Jesus there's nothing
Impossible for You
When all I see are the ashes
You see the beauty
When all I see is a cross
God You see the empty tomb

Bridge

(An) Almighty Fortress You go before us
Nothing can stand against
The power of our God
You shine in the shadows
You win every battle
Nothing can stand against
The power of our God
