GRATEFUL & GENEROUS

November 13, 2022

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"...Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us." ~2 Thessalonians 3:9

Most people who live a grateful and generous lifestyle don't go around bragging about it. But through their words and actions, others do take notice. They notice because of the joy and peace that results and others desire this in their own life. Know that the way you live your life may be the only interaction others may have with our Catholic faith.

Loving Mercifully, Living Marian.

Today, we celebrate the Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time. We are presented with a Gospel (Lk 21:5-19) that includes the signs of the end and the coming persecution. A significant part of this Gospel is when Jesus says, "It will lead to your giving testimony," (Lk 21:13). As a Life Teen author says, "If you cannot offer a testimony about the role God has played (and does play) in your life, pray about it. You never know when God will want to use it." Regarding a "testimony," Psalms 119:46 states, "I will speak of thy testimonies also before kings, and will not be ashamed." One should meditate on their personal testimony. Saint Thomas Becket said "All the saints give testimony to the truth that without real effort, no one ever wins the crown." On Sunday nights, Divine Mercy Youth discusses many of the testimonies in the Catholic church and other teachings of Jesus including discipleship and ways one can witness and reveal a testimony to Christ in their schools, workplaces, communities, society, and the world. We also discuss topics regarding Our Blessed Mother and how she leads us to her Son. Under the protection of Mary's mantle, you are invited to join us!

Divine Mercy Youth is a high school ministry for all 8th through 12th grade students. Our aim is to help teens grow in intentional discipleship through prayer, community, and formation. Divine Mercy Youth is held on Sunday Nights following the 5pm mass and will serve as the catechetical program for all students who are not in catholic school. See the parish website to register, for our schedule, and how to stay connected with us!

SEAS FAMILIES AND CHURCH SUPPORT

With the calendar year almost over, please be reminded that many of you indicated during school registration in January 2022 that you desired to be a registered, active, and supporting (RAS) family of Divine Mercy Parish. Thank you for your commitment to our parish and for your desire to support the work of the Church in proclaiming the Good News of the Gospel! Please note that to be recognized as a RAS family at Divine Mercy Parish, a minimum contribution level has been set at $500 per calendar year.

This is a friendly reminder that if you do not maintain the status of a RAS family by December 31, 2022, you will have to pay a higher, non-participating tuition rate per child for the 2023-2024 school year. This has been a long-standing policy of our parish and is consistent with our neighboring Catholic Churches in the Archdiocese of New Orleans. If you would like to check your current contribution level, please call Sherryl at the Parish Office at 466-5016. ## FR. COOPER'S CORNER

There is Poverty and Need

November is a time in which many of us slow down and thank God for the blessings He has given to us, to our family members and friends, and to our country. The anniversary of the first Thanksgiving in Plymouth, Massachusetts, should lead us to thank God in a special way for all He has given over the course of the past four centuries, helping this land be transformed from a vast wilderness into the “experiment in ordered liberty” we have now, which remains the destination not only of tourists but also of millions of immigrants annually seeking to cross its borders. Despite so many blessings, including extraordinary wealth, there remains great poverty in our country, both material and spiritual. I would like, however, to celebrate and give God thanks for a group of holy women God has sent to address that two-fold poverty.

Fifty-one years ago, on October 18, 1971, Saint Teresa of Calcutta arrived in New York City with the first Missionaries of Charity (MCs) to the United States. Mother Teresa had founded the Missionaries of Charity in 1950, four years after she had had a mystical experience — a call within her call as a religious — when Jesus summoned her to satiate His thirst and care for Him in the distressing disguise of the poorest of the poor. She left the Sisters of Loreto to found the MCs.

The sisters around her quickly grew and need for their care in India and beyond became heart wrenchingly obvious. By 1965, Pope St. Paul VI had erected them as a Pontifical Institute and they had permission, with the assent of local bishops, to open up houses in other countries. The first house outside of India was in Venezuela. The second house in this hemisphere was in New York City. Mother Teresa had first visited the United States in 1960 to give some talks to women’s groups. While in Manhattan, visiting with Dorothy Day, the future Servant of God took the future Saint to see the Bowery where Mother Teresa was shocked to see so many people lying sick on the streets a short distance from Wall Street. Day helped her to understand the demographics — some were homeless, others elderly, and most were alcoholics or addicted to drugs — and Mother never forgot the image of so many on the streets who were lonely, unwanted, and hungry for more than bread.

In 1969, Eileen Egan, a friend and supporter of Mother Teresa and longtime journalist, Pax Christi USA foundress, and staffer for the US Bishops’ international relief efforts, told Cardinal Terence Cooke that Mother Teresa was interested in sending a team of sisters to work in the inner city. He got the ball rolling and extended an official invitation on June 3, 1971. Four months later, on October 18, 1971, Cardinal Cooke welcomed Mother Teresa and the four first sisters to New York. It was the feast of St. Luke, the “evangelist of the poor.” At first, Mother and the sisters coordinated with the Franciscan Handmaids of Most Pure Heart of Mary, an historically Black Congregation of religious women, at their convent in Harlem, as the sisters got to know the situation better, determined a specific apostolate and found the best place to live so that they could respond to the poor. Mother Teresa said on that day, “I don’t know how it will work out. I don’t know whom we shall help. All I know is that there is poverty and need.”

In the last 51 years, the Missionaries of Charity have opened up 50 convents in the United States, 42 with active sisters and 8 with contemplatives. The Missionaries are present in Ashbury Park (NJ), Atlanta, Baltimore, Baton Rouge, Boston, Bridgeport, the Bronx, Brooklyn, Charlotte, Chester (PA), Chicago, Denver, Detroit, Gallup, Gary (IN), Harlem, Houston, Indianapolis, Jenkins (KY), Lafayette (LA), Lexington (KY), Little Rock, Los Angeles, Manhattan, Memphis, Miami, Minneapolis, Mohonoy City (PA), New Bedford (MA), Newark, Norristown (PA), Pacifica (CA), Phoenix,

Jesus, I trust in You!

Plainfield (NJ), Richmond (CA), Sacramento, San Diego, San Francisco, Spokane, St. Louis, and Washington DC. Of the 760 convents of Missionaries of Charity in 139 countries in the world, only India (244) has more than the United States. There is, of course, greater poverty in many places than in the United States, but the presence of so many Missionaries of Charity here is a sign, often ignored by the media, various politicians, citizens, and others, of the great poverty — material and spiritual — that remains in our country and the multitudes who are in need.

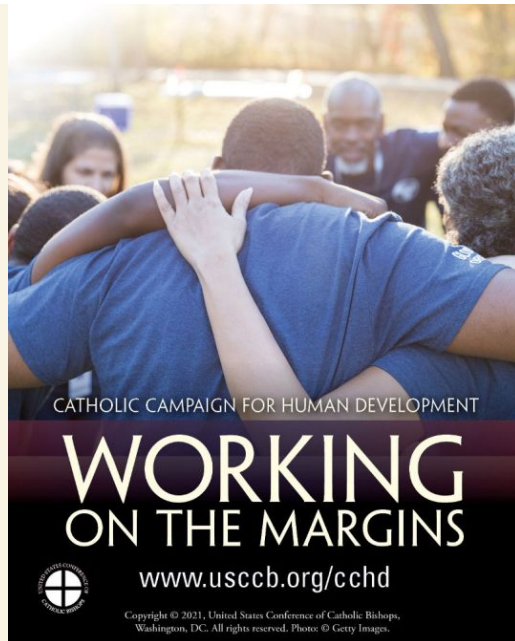

Throughout the world, the Missionaries of Charity operate homes and programs for the abandoned, the sick and dying, for sick and forsaken children, lepers, refugees, prisoners, former prostitutes, the homeless, the mentally ill, people with AIDS, the blind, aged, convalescent, alcoholics, pregnant women, victims of floods, epidemics, and famine. When they arrived in New York 51 years ago, they began to visit the elderly, cut their nails, and clean up their houses, to visit a hospital in Jersey City, and to bring Catholic children to Mass. They also began to visit different sections of the city to see where they would be most needed. When they came to the South Bronx, they knew.

As the first superior of the house, Sr. Andrea, wrote in 1972, “The South Bronx you can only compare to one place: Calcutta. The empty, deserted, burned out and vandalized houses, look even more ghostly than any of Calcutta’s slums, but in and around there live people, men, women and children in great numbers, in great poverty and in terrible neglect.” The street where their present convent and U.S. Provincial Headquarters is located was called by those in the 1970s a “cemetery for dead cars,” with windows and windshields smashed and insides torched. The neighborhood was just as bad, with people ubiquitously taking drugs around trashcan fire pits and the first (commercial) floor of most buildings burned out. Yet that is where they chose to establish their mission. They opened up a soup kitchen and a shelter for homeless women. They visited the shut-ins in three different parishes. They started catechetical programs for children and adult catechesis in Spanish.

To help children stay off the streets, they opened a recreation center on the ground floor of their convent, with a small carpentry workshop for boys, handcrafts for little girls, and cooking, typing and sewing classes for older girls and neighborhood mothers. In the summers, with the help of the city, they organized summer camps. In 1976, when Mother Teresa came to Philadelphia to give three talks at the international Eucharistic Congress, she announced that she was founding the first group of MC Contemplatives worldwide in the Bronx — led by Sr. Nirmala, who would become her successor — to pray for the needs of the poor, the Church, and the world.

When Mother Teresa stated, a half-century ago, “I don’t know how it will work out. I don’t know whom we shall help,” it is clear that I am among one of those her daughters have helped become a better Christian disciple and apostle as I seek to imitate their mission of charity. And I am sure many of those reading can echo that same appreciation. This Thanksgiving, let us express our gratitude together to God for 51 years and 50 convents of the Missionaries of Charity and ask Him to bless them with Himself, many vocations, and many apostolic fruits. And let us ask Him, through them, never to cease blessing us all.

The Second Collection Next Sunday is for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development November 19-20, 2022

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development operates with the belief that those most impacted by unjust structures have the best insight in how to overcome them by breaking the cycle of poverty. Currently, the Archdiocese of New Orleans has two groups receiving funding, one which focuses on housing, and the other focuses on energy resiliency. The motto for Catholic Campaign for Human Development is "a hand up, not a hand out."

Fr. Cooper will celebrate a special Thanksgiving Vigil Mass on Wednesday, November 23rd at 7:00 PM with the traditional blessing and distribution of Bread and Wine.

Thanksgiving Day is a special time to remember the blessings we have received from God, so that we can be a more thankful people every day. The reasons for having grateful hearts make up a long litany: the gift of life itself, faith in a God who loves us and is very near to us, good health, loving family, caring friends, opportunities to serve, food on our tables, roofs over our heads. Yes, we have our times of doubt, our worries and anxieties, our aches and pains, our family conflicts, and our economic struggles. But despite all the challenges during 2022, we are incredibly blessed!

There will be a 7:30 AM Mass on Thanksgiving morning, Thursday, November 24th.

The King Shall Come When Morning Dawns

1. The King shall come when morning dawns
And light triumphant breaks,
When beauty gilds the eastern hills
And life to joy awakes.

2. Not, as of old, a little child,
To bear, and fight, and die,
But crowned with glory like the sun
That lights the morning sky.

3. O brighter than the rising morn
When he, victorious, rose
And left the lonesome place of death,
Despite the rage of foes.

4. O brighter than that glorious morn Shall this fair morning be,
When Christ, our King, in beauty comes,
And we his face shall see!

5. The King shall come when morning dawns
And light and beauty brings.
Hail, Christ, the Lord!
Thy people pray:
Come quickly King of kings.

Lord of All Hopefulness

1. Lord of all hopefulness, Lord of all joy, Whose trust, ever childlike,
no cares can destroy,
Be there at our waking, and give us, we pray,
Your bliss in our hearts, Lord,
at the break of the day.

2. Lord of all eagerness, Lord of all faith, Whose strong hands were skilled at
the plane and the lathe,
Be there at our labors, and give us, we pray,
Your strength in our hearts, Lord,
at the noon of the day.

3. Lord of all kindliness, Lord of all grace,
Your hands swift to welcome,
your arms to embrace,
Be there at our homing,
and give us, we pray,
Your love in our hearts, Lord,
at the eve of the day.

4. Lord of all gentleness, Lord of all calm, Whose voice is contentment,
whose presence is balm,
Be there at our sleeping,
and give us, we pray,
Your peace in our hearts, Lord,
at the end of the day.

COMMUNION

How Can I Keep From Singing

1. My life flows on in endless song
Above earth's lamentation.
I hear the real though far-off hymn
That hails a new creation.

Refrain

No storm can shake my inmost calm,
While to that rock I'm clinging.
Since love is Lord of heaven and earth,
How can I keep from singing?

2. Through all the tumult and the strife,
I hear that music ringing;
It sounds and echoes in my soul;
How can I keep from singing?

3. What though the tempest
'round me roar,
I hear the truth, it liveth.
What though the darkness 'round me close,
song in the night it giveth.

4. When tyrants tremble sick with fear, and hear their death knells singing;
When friends rejoice both far and near,
how can I keep from singing?

5. The peace of Christ makes fresh my heart,
A fountain ever springing.
All things are mine since I am his;
How can I keep from singing?

SENDING FORTH

Sing a New Song

Refrain

Sing a new song unto the Lord;
let your song be sung from mountains high.
Sing a new song unto the Lord,
singing alleluia.

1. Shout with gladness! Dance for joy!
O come before the Lord. And play for God on glad tambourines,
and let your trumpet sound.

2. Rise, O children, from your sleep;
your Savior now has come.
He has turned your sorrow to joy,
and filled your soul with song.

3. Glad my soul for I have seen the glory of the Lord.
The trumpet sounds; the dead shall be raised.
I know my Savior lives.

OFFERTORY*Rise Again

1. From the grave,
from the dust and the ashes
we will rise again! We will rise again!
From the cold, empty tomb with Christ Jesus,
we will rise again! We will rise again!
Rise again with the poor and the helpless,
We will rise again! We will rise again!
Be our strength, help us stand,
walk, and follow.
We will rise again! Will rise again!

2. We will break through the deafening silence.
We will speak again! We will speak again!
Over crowds shouting insults and curses,
We will speak again! We will speak again!
Though their hearts are too hardened to listen,
We will speak again! We will speak again!
Make your Word now resound in our voices.
We will speak again! We will speak again!

3. Hear the silenced, abused, and forgotten.
We will hear again! We will hear again!
When they clamor and cry out for justice,
We will hear again! We will hear again!
Past the noise of our stubborn denial,
We will hear again! We will hear again.
Give us ears for compassion and mercy.
We will hear again! We will hear again!

4. Through the darkness,
the fog of deception,
We will see again! We will see again!
Through the shadows
of fear and obstruction,
We will see again! We will see again!
Through the lies, the betrayal, the hatred,
We will see again! We will see again!
Fill our eyes with your truth
and your radiance.
We will see again! We will see again!

5. Breathe in us, make anew your creation,
We will live again! We will live again!
In the light of your risen Anointed,
We will live again! We will live again!
With the wind and the flame moving in us,
We will live again! We will live again!
We awaken and stand as your chosen.
We will live again! We will live again!

We will see again! We will hear again!
We will speak again! We will rise again!

SENDING FORTH*How Can We Be Silent

1. How can we be silent
when we know our God is near,
bringing light to those in darkness,
to the worthless, endless worth?
How can we be silent
when we are the voice of Christ,
speaking justice to the nations,
breathing love to all the earth?

Refrain

None can stop the Spirit
burning now inside us.
We will shape the future.
We will not be silent!

2. How can we be silent
when our God has conquered death, stretching out his arms to suffer
so that we might have new life?
How can we be silent
when we know that Jesus rose,
and will come again in glory,
ending suffering and strife?

3. How can we be silent
as we turn our eyes away
and ignore the poor and broken
who lie bleeding in the street?
How can we be silent
when we're called to heal and serve in the image of Lord Jesus, who has stooped to wash our feet?

4. How can we be silent,
not give praise with all our hearts,
for Christ Jesus is our Savior and compassion is our king?

How can we be silent
when God gave us life to be vibrant instruments of worship,
made to laugh and dance and sing?

5. How can we be silent
when our souls are filled with awe
at the beauty of creation
and the mercy of our Lord?
How can we be silent
when we yearn to sing new songs?
In our hearts a fire is burning and it will not be ignored!

Dios asciende, Dios asciende
entre aclamaciones, el Señor,
el Señor, al son de trompetas.

1. Pueblos todos batan palmas, cántenle a Dios con júbilo;
porque el Señor es sublime
y terrible, Rey de toda la tierra

2. Dios asciende entre aclamaciones,
el Señor, al son de trompetas;
toquen para Dios, toquen,
toquen para el Rey.

3. Porque Dios es el rey del mundo;
toquen con maestría.
Dios reina sobre la tierra
en su santo trono.

Danos un corazón grande para amar.
Danos un corazón fuerte para luchar.

1. Pueblos nuevos, creadores de la historia, constructores de nueva humanidad.
Pueblos nuevos, que viven la existencia como riesgo de un largo caminar.

2. Pueblos nuevos, luchando en esperanza, caminantes, sedientos de verdad.
Pueblos nuevos, sin frenos ni cadenas,
pueblos libres que exigen libertad.

3. Pueblos nuevos, amando sin fronteras, por encima de razas y lugar.
Pueblos nuevos, al lado de los pobres,
compartiendo con ellos techo y pan.

5:00 PM MASS

ENTRANCE

The Lion and the Lamb

1. He's coming on the clouds,
Kings and kingdoms will bow down.
And every chain will break
as broken hearts declare His praise.
For who can stop the Lord Almighty?

Chorus

Our God is the Lion, the Lion of Judah.
He's roaring with power,
and fighting our battles.
And every knee will bow before Him.
Our God is the Lamb, the Lamb that was slain.
For the sins of the world,
His blood breaks the chains.
And every knee will bow
before the Lion and the Lamb.
Every knee will bow before Him.

2. So open up the gates,
make way before the King of kings.
The God who comes to save
is here to set the captives free.
For who can stop the Lord Almighty?

1. Saviour I come quiet my soul
Remember redemption's hill
Where Your blood was spilled
For my ransom

Pre-Chorus

Ev'rything I once held dear
I count it all as loss

Chorus

Lead me to the cross
Where Your love poured out
Bring me to my knees Lord I lay me down
Rid me of myself I belong to You
Oh lead me lead me to the cross

2. You were as I tempted and tried human
The word became flesh
Bore my sin in death
Now You're risen

COMMUNION

O Come To The Altar

1. Are you hurting and broken within Overwhelmed by the weight of your sin
Jesus is calling
Have you come to the end of yourself
Do you thirst for a drink from the well
Jesus is calling

Chorus

O come to the altar
The Father's arms are open wide Forgiveness was bought with
The precious blood of Jesus Christ

2. Leave behind your regrets and mistakes
Come today there's no reason to wait
Jesus is calling
Bring your sorrows and trade them for joy
From the ashes a new life is born
Jesus is calling

Bridge

Oh what a Savior, Isn't he wonderful
Sing alleluia Christ is risen
Bow down before him
For he is Lord of all
Sing alleluia Christ is risen

3. Bear your cross as you wait for the crown
Tell the world of the treasure you've found

SENDING FORTH

Alleluia! Sing to Jesus

1. Alleluia! Sing to Jesus!
His the scepter, His the throne;
Alleluia! His the triumph,
His the victory alone;
Hark! The songs of peaceful Zion
Thunder like a mighty flood;
Jesus out of ev'ry nation
Has redeemed us by His blood.

2. Alleluia! not as orphans
Are we left in sorrow now;
Alleluia! he is near us,
Faith believes, nor questions how:
Though the cloud from sight received him,
When the forty days were o'er,
Shall our hearts forget his promise,
'I am with you evermore'?

3. Alleluia! Bread of Angels,
Here on earth our food, our stay!
Alleluia! here the sinful
Flee to you from day to day:
Intercessor, friend of sinners,
Earth's redeemer, plead for me,
Where the songs of all the sinless
Sweep across the crystal sea.

4. Alleluia! King eternal,
You the Lord of lords we own;
Alleluia! Born of Mary,
Earth your footstool,
heav'n your throne:
You, within the veil, have entered,
Robed in flesh, our great High Priest;
Here on earth both priest and victim
In the Eucharistic feast.

Memorare

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us.
Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.
Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if you were already there, and I unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Acto de Comuni3n Espiritual

Mi Jes3s, yo creo que T3 est3s en el Sant3simo Sacramento. Yo te amo por encima de todas las cosas y yo Te deseo en mi alma. Como ahora no puedo recibirte sacramentalmente, al menos ven a mi coraz3n espiritualmente. Como ya has venido, Yo te abrazo y me uno enteramente a Ti. Nunca permitas que me separe de ti. Am3n

Memorare

Ac3rdete, oh piados3sima Virgen Mar3a!, que jam3s se ha o3do decir que ninguno de los que han acudido a tu protecci3n, implorando tu auxilio, haya sido desamparado. Animado por esta confianza, a Ti acudo, Madre, Virgen de la v3rgenes, y gimiendo bajo el peso de mis pecados me atrevo a comparecer ante Ti. Madre de Dios, no deseches mis s3plicas, antes bien, esc3chalas y ac3gelas benignamente. Amen.

Oraci3n a San Miguel Arc3ngel

O San Miguel, Arc3ngel defi3ndenos en la batalla. S3 nuestra protecci3n contra el mal y las trampas del diablo; humildemente te rogamos que Dios los reprenda. O Pr3ncipe Celestial de la Santa Hostia, que con la ayuda de Dios echas a satan3s al infierno y a los esp3ritus que vagan por el mundo para arruinar las almas. Am3n.

Nuestra Oraci3n Familiar

Dios amoroso y fiel, a trav3s de los a3os el pueblo de nuestra arquidi3cesis ha apreciado las oraciones y el amor de Nuestra Se3ora del Pronto Socorro en tiempos de guerras, desastres, epidemias y enfermedad. Venimos a Ti, Padre, con Mar3a nuestra Madre, y te pedimos nos ayudes en la batalla de hoy contra la violencia, el asesinato y el racismo. Te imploramos que nos des la sabidur3a para construir una comunidad fundada en los valores de Jes3s, que conceden respeto a la vida y dignidad a todas las personas. Bendice a los padres para que formen a sus hijos en fe. Bendice y protege a nuestros j3venes para que sean hacedores de paz en nuestro tiempos. Da consuelo a los que han perdido a seres queridos debido a la violencia. Te lo pedimos por Jesucristo, Nuestro Se3or.

Nuestra Se3ora del Pronto Socorro, apres3rate a socorrernos. Madre Henrieta Delille, ruega por nosotros para que seamos una familia Santa.
Am3n.
