Fifth Sunday of Lent

"Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?'" JOHN 11:40

Many of us say that we believe in God. We attend Sunday Mass and participate in parish events. But when life gets hard and the pressure is on, when things aren't going our way, do we really believe? Do we really put our trust in the Lord? When we live a life of gratitude, recognizing all that we have been given, we really do see that God is providing for our needs. Living a grateful and generous life allows us to see God's active presence in our daily lives and we become "partakers of the divine nature."

Loving Mercifully, Living Marian.

Today, we celebrate the Fifth Sunday of Lent. We are presented with the time Jesus raises Lazarus from the dead. In the Gospel (John 11:1-45), after Lazarus has been dead for four days, his sister, Martha, says to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died," (JN 11:21). She probably hoped that there might've been a way that Lazarus would not have died if Jesus had gotten there sooner. In some ways her reaction may demonstrate a desire for a different scheduling of the time of events that took place. But, as a Lifeteen author explains, "God's timelessness cannot be scheduled." Time and patience may be focused on in this Bible story. On the USCCB (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops) website, a number of articles address time and also patience. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) further addresses similar topics including the implications of Faith in One God which can involve patience. In paragraph #227, the CCC states, "It means trusting in God in every circumstance." As St. Paisios the Athonite said, "Patience is the strongest medicine that heals great and long-lasting trials." On Sunday nights, Divine Mercy Youth discusses patience (one of the 12 fruits of the Holy Spirit) and faith. We talk about ways we can practice patience with our family and friends in our homes, schools, workplaces, communities, society, and the world. We also discuss many other teachings of Jesus and topics regarding Our Blessed Mother and how she leads us to her Son. Under the protection of Mary's mantle, you are invited to join us!

Divine Mercy Youth is a high school ministry for all 8th through 12th grade students. Our aim is to help teens grow in intentional discipleship through prayer, community, and formation. Divine Mercy Youth is held on Sunday Nights following the 5pm mass and will serve as the catechetical program for all students who are not in catholic school. See the parish website to register, for our schedule, and how to stay connected with us!

FR. COOPER'S CORNER

The Legacy of Pope Benedict XVI

Normally the death and funeral of a successor of St. Peter takes place within the context of a major distraction. The routine shock that comes even when death is expected, the grief that accompanies the realization that in this world we will never again hear the deceased pope's shepherdly voice, the realization for Catholics of being in some sense spiritually orphaned — all inexorably and impatiently give way, despite the traditional nine days of mourning, to the dynamics of an upcoming conclave and the inevitable prognostications, aspirations, and anxieties as to who will be the next to bear the responsibility of the Petrine office. Not for Pope Benedict. One of the consequences of his renunciation of the papacy in February 2013 — although perhaps not recognized or deemed important at the time of his historic announcement — was that his death and funeral would not take place with the attendant intrigues involved in replacing the supreme pontiff, a reigning head of state, and a global spiritual father.

They would be more “normal,” in the sense that the whole Christian world would be able to pray with fewer diversions for divine mercy that “the Lord may admit [him] to the eternal dwellings, despite all [his] sins and shortcomings,” as he asked us to do in his spiritual testament. It would be an opportunity to thank God for the gift of his life and for the multitude of ways that God through him has blessed our lives. It would be a chance to focus on another form of succession than on the chair of St. Peter: namely, about receiving, living, and transmitting the legacy of virtues, experiences, and teachings the man who became Pope Benedict XVI richly bequeathed us.

Pope Benedict XVI was the greatest theologian to occupy Peter's chair since at least Pope St. Leo the Great (440-461). He used the extraordinary intellectual gifts God gave him, first, to shore up the faith of German university students in the immediate aftermath of the Nazis' ideological terrorism and the compounded traumas of World War II. As the theological expert and ghost writer of Cologne Cardinal Josef Frings at the Second Vatican Council, he played major roles not only in the overall direction of the Council but in the composition of its major documents, particularly the Dogmatic Constitution on Divine Revelation, Dei Verbum. After the Council, when various theologians and others in the Church, intoxicated by the so-called “spirit” of the Council that they sought to use as a justification to discard anything in the faith they didn't understand, appreciate, or like, he served on the International Theological Commission and co-founded the journal Communio, to do theology in communion with the Church. As Archbishop of Munich-Freising, he sought to implement the authentic teachings of the Council during a time of seismic cultural shifts and confusion.

During his nearly 25 years as the head of the Vatican's Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, he sought to help the Church transmit with clarity and beauty the teachings of the Church in response to the questions of the age, and with courage, kindness, and firmness to correct heterodox ideas and theologians. When he was elected the 265th Peter in 2005 at the age of 78, he was well aware not only of the enormous demands of the office and but also of his strengths and weaknesses before its three-fold task of teaching, sanctifying, and governing.

Let's start with his leadership weaknesses. At a physical level, he had already had two strokes, a pacemaker for 20 years, prostate problems, degenerative joint disease, and was slowly beginning to lose sight in one eye. He humbly admitted his deficits in terms of the energy, training, and administrative and managerial skill sets needed for the task of governance — something that would prove problematic over the 2,873 days of his papacy, as he was betrayed by those close to him, as many within the Vatican tried to advance their own agendas, and as several unforced errors took place to his and the Church's embarrassment. The enormous physical demands needed to effectively govern the Church was one of the major factors that led him to renounce the papacy for the good of the Church. It would be hard enough for an 85-year-old to run a bustling parish, not to mention a world-wide Church, and he humbly and courageously recognized that he could no longer do it to the minimal standards he thought the Church deserved. But he was also aware of his leadership strengths and sought to use them fully in the service of the Church.

He saw as his principal task to lead us to God. He did that, first, through his teaching. Rather than teaching a world-wide doctoral seminar for theological scholars, he decided to put all his training to use in teaching everyone the foundations of Christian faith and life. He wrote two encyclicals on charity, another on hope, a third on faith, an exhortation on the Eucharist and another on the Word of God. He dedicated catechetical series to prayer, faith, the apostles, the Fathers and Doctors of the Church, St. Paul's life and writings, great male and female Saints, and the Psalms and Canticles of the Liturgy of the Hours. He gave great annual Christmas addresses to children and regular talks to young people. He celebrated Holy Years dedicated to the Eucharist, St. Paul, the priesthood, and faith. He used his vacation time to work on a trilogy dedicated to helping us to get to know the real Jesus of Nazareth after various scholars had injured the faith of many by importing philosophical biases and ideologies to their work. Like a good teacher, he regularly engaged in question-and-answer sessions with clergy and other groups, as well as did book-length interviews responding to the questions of the world.

Pope Benedict likewise led liturgically. He labored to bring back a true and fitting worship to the celebration of the Mass, after decades of liturgical chaos. The Mass, he taught by word and example, is supposed to be focused on God, rather than remaining a self-enclosed circle in which priests and people effectively worship themselves. His homilies were doxological, focused above all on God and His glory. He formed priests in the "art of celebrating the Mass," which means aligning their minds, hearts, soul, strength, and all they are to the prayers being directed toward God, and he helped the faithful grasp what "active participation" really means: not external activity but greater and more devout awareness of what is taking place during Mass and how it applies to daily life.

More than anything, he sought to lead us to God through prayer. Not only did he give us between the greatest papal catechesis on prayer in Church history, but his renunciation of the papal office to "serve the Holy Church of God in the future through a life dedicated to prayer" shows that he considered prayer even more important than the exercise of the papacy. His last decade was a living illustration, in other words, of what Jesus taught Martha and Mary in Bethany: that the "one thing necessary" and "better part" is not what we do for Him but the friendship we form with Him in his presence (Lk 10:38-42).

The day after he was elected, Pope Benedict returned to the Sistine Chapel with the Cardinals who elected him and told them: "I undertake ... the Petrine ministry at the service of the Universal Church, with humble abandon to the hands of the Providence of God. And it is to Christ in the first place that I renew my total and trustworthy adhesion: 'In you, Lord, have I put my hope: and I will never hope for you in vain.'" Those words, taken from the beginning of Psalm 71, the Church prays in the last lines of the Te Deum, the hymn used on Sundays and Solemnities and other major occasions. They're used by the Church every December 31st as well, when during Vespers at St. Peter's, the Church thanks God for the graces of the year ending and expresses its trust and hope in Him for the one upcoming. It's fitting that as the Lord Jesus arrived on December 31, 2022, for his faithful vicar and simple, humble servant in His vineyard, the end of the Te Deum would be resonating within the heart of His Mystical Body.

Pope Benedict's homily from exactly 14 years earlier serves not only as a fitting valedictory to his inaugural words, but also an exclamation point on his faith, hope, and loving longing for God: "Our great hope as believers is eternal life in communion with Christ and the whole family of God. This great hope gives us the strength to face and to overcome the difficulties of life in this world. ... God never abandons us if we entrust ourselves to him and follow his teachings. ... Full of trust, we shall then be able to sing at the end of the Te Deum: ... 'In you, Lord, is our hope: and we shall never hope in vain.' Yes, Lord, in you we hope, today and forever. You are our hope. Amen!"

Return to God

1. From ashes to the living font your church must journey, Lord, baptized in grace, in grace renewed by your most holy word.

Refrain

Return to God with all your heart.
Surrender and be free.
With humble hearts we cry to you:
Have mercy on us, Lord;
forgive our sin, we pray, we pray.

2. Through fasting, prayer, and charity your voice speaks deep within, returning us to ways of truth and turning us from sin.

3. From desert to the mountain top in Christ our way we see, so, tempered by temptation's might,
we might transfigured be.

4. For thirsting hearts let waters flow, let fainting souls revive;
and at the well your waters give our everlasting life.

Refrain

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
O my soul;
worship His holy name.
Sing like never before,
O my soul;
I'll worship Your holy name.

1. The sun comes up, it's a new day dawning, it's time to sing Your song again.

Whatever may pass,
and whatever lies before me,
let me be singing when the evening comes.

2. You're rich in love and You're slow to anger.
Your name is great and Your heart is kind.
For all Your goodness, I will keep on singing;
Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find.

3. And on that day, when my strength is failing,
the end draws near, and my time has come.
Still, my soul will sing Your praise unending ten thousand years, and then forevermore.

COMMUNION

I Am the Bread of Life

1. I am the Bread of life.
You who come to me shall not hunger;
and who believe in me shall not thirst.
No one can come to me
unless the Father beckons.
And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up,
and I will raise you up on the last day.

2. The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world, and if you eat of this bread,
you shall live forever, you shall live forever.
And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up,
and I will raise you up on the last day.

3. Unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and drink of his blood, and drink of his blood, you shall not have life within you.
And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up,
and I will raise you up on the last day.

4. I am the Resurrection, I am the life.
If you believe in me, even though you die,
you shall live forever.
And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up,
and I will raise you up on the last day.

5. Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, Who has come into the world.
And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up,
and I will raise you up on the last day.

SENDING FORTH

Jerusalem, My Destiny

Refrain

I have fixed my eyes on your hills,
Jerusalem, my destiny!
Though I cannot see the end for me,
I cannot turn away.
We have set our hearts for the way;
this journey is our destiny.
Let no one walk alone.
The journey makes us one.

Jesus, I trust in You!

1. Other spirits, lesser gods, have courted me with lies.
Here among you I have found a truth which bids me rise.

2. See, I leave the past behind;
a new land calls to me.
Here among you now I find a glimpse of what might be.

3. In my thirst, you let me drink the waters of your life.
Here among you I have met the savior, Jesus Christ.

4. All the worlds I have not seen you open to my view.
Here among you I have found a vision, bright and new.

5. To the tombs I went to mourn the hope I thought was gone.
Here among you I awoke to unexpected dawn.

¿A quién iremos, Señor, a quién iremos?
Tienes palabras de vida. ¿A quién iremos,
Señor, a quién iremos?

Amar a Dios es mi deber.

si no amo a Dios y a mi hermano.
Pues este amor será muy vano
si no amo a Dios y a mi hermano.

OFERTORIO

Las Aguas de Siloé

1. Vete a lavar tu ceguera
con aguas de Siloé,
para que veas que el Reino ya ha comenzado a crecer.
Vete a lavar tus mentiras
con aguas de Siloé,
como un destello de espejos comienza a resplandecer.

Estribillo

Vete y anuncia que el Reino sus brotes ya empieza a echar.
Su luz deslumbra a los ciegos, su fuerza nos hace andar. (bis)

2. Vete a lavar tus tinieblas
con aguas de Siloé,
para que sean tus luces antorchas vivas de fe.
Vete a lavar tu cansancio
con aguas de Siloé,
sal a las plazas gritando cantares de renacer.

3. Vete a lavar tus errores
con aguas de Siloé,
haz que tu paz sea con todos, que el Reino va a amanecer.
Vete a lavar tus pecados
con aguas de Siloé,
para que seas comienzo,
camino nuevo a emprender.

Jesus, I trust in You!

Memorare

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us.
Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.
Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if you were already there, and I unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Acto de Comuni3n Espiritual

Mi Jes3s, yo creo que T3 est3s en el Sant3simo Sacramento. Yo te amo por encima de todas las cosas y yo Te deseo en mi alma. Como ahora no puedo recibirte sacramentalmente, al menos ven a mi coraz3n espiritualmente. Como ya has venido, Yo te abrazo y me uno enteramente a Ti. Nunca permitas que me separe de ti. Am3n

Memorare

Ac3rdate, oh piados3sima Virgen Mar3a!, que jam3s se ha o3do decir que ninguno de los que han acudido a tu protecci3n, implorando tu auxilio, haya sido desamparado. Animado por esta confianza, a Ti acudo, Madre, Virgen de la virgenes, y gimiendo bajo el peso de mis pecados me atrevo a comparecer ante Ti. Madre de Dios, no deseches mis s3plicas, antes bien, esc3chalas y ac3gelas ben3gnamente. Amen.

Oraci3n a San Miguel Arc3ngel

O San Miguel, Arc3ngel defi3ndonos en la batalla. S3 nuestra protecci3n contra el mal y las trampas del diablo; humildemente te rogamos que Dios los reprenda. O Principe Celestial de la Santa Hostia, que con la ayuda de Dios echas a satan3s al infierno y a los esp3ritus que vagan por el mundo para arruinar las almas. Am3n.

Nuestra Oraci3n Familiar

Dios amoroso y fiel, a trav3s de los a3os el pueblo de nuestra arquidi3cesis ha apreciado las oraciones y el amor de Nuestra Se3ora del Pronto Socorro en tiempos de guerras, desastres, epidemias y enfermedad. Venimos a Ti, Padre, con Mar3a nuestra Madre, y te pedimos nos ayudes en la batalla de hoy contra la violencia, el asesinato y el racismo. Te imploramos que nos des la sabidur3a para construir una comunidad fundada en los valores de Jes3s, que conceden respeto a la vida y dignidad a todas las personas. Bendice a los padres para que formen a sus hijos en fe. Bendice y protege a nuestros j3venes para que sean hacedores de paz en nuestro tiempos. Da consuelo a los que han perdido a seres queridos debido a la violencia. Te lo pedimos por Jesucristo, Nuestro Se3or.

Nuestra Se3ora del Pronto Socorro, apres3rate a socorrernos. Madre Henrieta Delille, ruega por nosotros para que seamos una familia Santa.
Am3n.
