GRATEFUL & GENEROUS

April 2, 2023

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

"As they were marching out, they came upon a man of Cyrene, Simon by name; this man they pressed into service to carry his cross." ~Matthew 27:32

The Lord calls us to love God and to love our neighbor. Every day we are presented with opportunities to love our neighbor and help him "carry his cross." These opportunities aren't usually big events, they are usually ordinary occurrences like helping someone carry their groceries or holding the door open for them. The key is putting the other person's needs before our own and not expecting anything in return.

Loving Mercifully, Living Marian.

Today, we celebrate Palm Sunday. On the Lifeteen website, in the video for this Sunday, the Lifeteen spokesperson, Mark Hart, says that Holy Week is "the most important week of the year." We are reminded that St. Pope John Paul called the Passion of Our Lord the "fulcrum of history." It was so important that everything that happened before this, is directed to it and everything that's happened since, points back to it. Instead of an explanation of the Gospel today on Palm Sunday, we are challenged by Lifeteen to "put ourselves into the story" of MT 26 and MT 27. We are asked to imagine what the Upper Room looked like for the Last Supper or in the garden of Gethsemane. It is suggested that we reflect upon the trial before Pilate and what it must have been like to carry a cross through the city streets. We can further examine what it might have sounded like to be nailed to the cross or to look at the onlookers as they mock you. After a time of prayerful reflection, which may be a day or a week long, the Lord will bless you . . . The Lifeteen spokesperson says that God "wants to help you recapture the awe, because what happened 2,000 years ago was awe inspiring." Mark Hart goes on to say that "We have a God who loves us so much that He would rather die than risk spending eternity without us." On Sunday nights, Divine Mercy Youth discusses the events of Our Lord's Passion. We talk about ways we can reflect on these events and share them with our family and friends in our homes, schools, workplaces, communities, society, and the world. We also discuss many other teachings of Jesus and topics regarding Our Blessed Mother and how she leads us to her Son. Under the protection of Mary's mantle, you are invited to join us!

Divine Mercy Youth is a high school ministry for all 8th through 12th grade students. Our aim is to help teens grow in intentional discipleship through prayer, community, and formation. Divine Mercy Youth is held on Sunday Nights following the 5pm mass and will serve as the catechetical program for all students who are not in catholic school. See the parish website to register, for our schedule, and how to stay connected with us!

FR. COOPER'S CORNER

The Night That Set us Apart

The Easter Vigil is by far the most important and beautiful Mass of the entire year. It is the Mass that contains the Church's greatest promises. It is the Mass that impels us to maximize our liturgical love and gratitude to God in celebration of Jesus' resurrection and what it means. Yet, it is also a Mass that many Catholics, including those who otherwise take the faith very seriously, rarely attend. It is much longer than other Masses and therefore demands greater spiritual stamina and attention. It can also require greater faith and love, since it is the antithesis of, and antidote for, the religious minimalism that looks, even on Easter, for the fastest way to fulfill one's Sunday Mass "obligation."

The bold promise of the Easter Vigil is made at the very beginning of the ceremony, when the priest, after the sign of the Cross, says, "Dear Brothers and Sisters, on this most sacred night in which our Lord Jesus Christ passed over from death to life, the Church calls upon her sons and daughters, scattered throughout the world, to come together to watch and pray." Those words, "watch and pray," are exactly what Jesus told Peter in the Garden would help to strengthen his frail flesh to align with his willing spirit. As we gather to keep that contemplative vigil, the priest for the Church makes an astounding guarantee: "If we keep the memorial of the Lord's paschal solemnity in this way, listening to his word and celebrating his mysteries, then we shall have the sure hope of sharing his triumph over death and living with him in God." The Church gives us an assurance that she makes in no other liturgy throughout the year, promising that if we learn how to celebrate and live the Easter Vigil, then we will share, in this life and forever, Jesus' victory over sin and death and abide in communion with Him in the heart of the Trinity.

Because the Easter Vigil synthesizes the entire Christian faith, if we develop the spirituality of the Easter Vigil and make our life a living celebration of its mysteries, we are promised the most important gifts of all in this world and forever. If this is what the Easter Vigil promises, how could we not attend with eagerness?

The Easter Vigil is broken down into four parts and each has great lessons for us of the mysteries we are called to celebrate. The first part is the Lucernarium, the Liturgy of Light, in which we bless the Easter fire, prepare the Paschal Candle, and with it chant the Easter Proclamation. The fire is a reminder for us of how the celebration of Easter is to help us "be so inflamed with heavenly desires that with minds made pure we may attain festivities of unending splendor." Lighting the candle from it, we beg that "the light of Christ rising in glory [will] dispel the darkness of our hearts and minds." As we enter the Church, we proclaim that Christ is the light, have our candles lit from the Easter candle (symbolizing being illuminated by Christ) and then light the candles of those around us, an image of the transmission of the faith. Then the deacon, or a priest, chants the "Exsultet," the exultation of the Church for the light of Christ's resurrection. We beg for the grace to have the Church building "shake with joy, filled with the mighty voices of the people."

And then we describe what makes the Easter Vigil different from every other. "This is the night that even now, throughout the world, sets Christian believers apart." The Easter Vigil, in other words, is what makes Christians Christian. If we live the spirituality of the Easter vigil, it proclaims, it separates us "from worldly vices and from the gloom of sin, leading [us] to grace and joining [us] to [God's] holy ones." It has a "sanctifying power" that makes us holy by dispelling wickedness, washing faults away, restoring innocence to the fallen, giving joy and the hope of resurrection to those mourning the loss of loved ones, driving out hatred, fostering peace, humbling the mighty, and wedding heaven to earth and the divine to the human. We pray that the light of the Easter Candle, the light of Jesus risen from the dead that illumines us like the candles in our hands symbolic of our vigilant faith, “may persevere undimmed,” and be found by Christ still burning brightly when He returns as Bridegroom. It’s the spirituality of the wise bridesmaids that Jesus describes in Matthew 25.

The second part of the Easter Vigil is Liturgy of the Word, which is the most striking thing that distinguishes the Easter Vigil from every other Mass. Instead of one Old Testament reading and one Psalm, there are seven and seven respectively, each followed by a special prayer. There is a New Testament Reading, another Psalm, and the Proclamation of the Gospel. If we are called to live by every word that comes from God’s mouth, and if the Liturgy of the Word on normal Sundays is considered a feast, then the Easter Vigil is a 17-course banquet of the most important lessons God has taught in the history of salvation. The priest introduces it by praying that we will listen with “quiet hearts” to God’s word, so that, meditating on how “God in times past saved his people and in these, the last days, has sent us his Son as our Redeemer,” He may complete in us “this paschal work of salvation.”

The third part of the Easter Vigil is the Baptismal Liturgy in which new Christians enter into this history of salvation, previously baptized Christians are received into full communion with the Catholic Church, and all of those who have already been baptized renew the graces, commitment, and gratitude for their own baptism. Most of us consider it an honor and a joy to be present at the birth of new family members. How much greater should be our joy at the sacred rebirth of our spiritual brothers and sisters, who are more related to us by Christ’s blood than we are to our own siblings? How impressive it is for new Catholics to experience the joyful welcome of the Church in the presence of their new fellow parishioners!

As the priest blesses the baptismal water, calling to mind how the waters of creation, the flood, the Red Sea, the Jordan, and from Christ’s pierced side were all prophecies of the healing, saving waters of baptism, he asks God the Father to send the Holy Spirit into the water to wash us clean from our old life “so that we may be found worthy to rise to the life of newborn children through water and the Holy Spirit.” We light our candles anew, just like our baptismal candles were lit at our baptism, and renew our baptismal vows, rejecting the Devil, his evil works, and empty promises and professing once more our total trust in God, in the Church He founded to continue His saving work, the communion of saints interceding for us, the forgiveness of sins that He beckons us to receive and share, and the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting that we are guaranteed to receive if we “keep the memorial of the Lord’s paschal mystery in this way.”

The fourth and last part of the Easter Vigil is the Liturgy of the Eucharist, similar to other Masses but enhanced, because it’s “on this night above all [we] laud [God] yet more gloriously,” pulling out all the stops, “overcome with paschal joy” at “celebrating the most sacred night of the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ in the flesh.” The Church prepares us, together with our new spiritual siblings across the globe to whom God was “pleased to give the new birth of water and the Holy Spirit granting them forgiveness of all their sins,” for the most incredible reality in human life, when the Risen Lord Jesus who left the tomb on Easter morning enters sacramentally into each of us.

The Easter Vigil is the “most sacred night” in which all of this occurs. Mother Church hopes to see you there.

3. The people of the Hebrews
With palms before you went:
Our praise and prayers and anthems
Before you we present.
4. To you before your passion
They sang their hymns of praise:
To you, now high exalted,
Our melody we raise.
5. Their praises you accepted,
Accept the prayers we bring,
Great source of love and goodness,
Our Savior and our King.

COMMUNION

Crown of Thorns

1. My seed was born one bright spring morn in gardens grown by God.
Out of the earth my stem gave birth to petals red as blood.
The gentle rain my growth sustained,
And like each seed God sows,
I dreamed one day that I'd be named a king's most precious rose.

2. One day a soldier bent me over, tore me from my bed.
All beaten, battered, my stem tattered,
wanted not, but dead.
In cruel hands gripped, my beauty stripped,
'twas not the dream I chose.
And filled with shame, I wept in pain,
no more a precious rose.

3. Then I did see the soldiers lead a man through palace doors.
Was this my king? Why did they bring him in, this man so poor?
A purple garment hid the torment
None but I could see.
They mocked and laughed, gave him a staff,
and bowed on bended knee.

4. They bent me round and wove a crown and placed me on his head.
My petals found crushed on the ground,
like tears of God turned red.
With each small sin I was pressed in.
I pierced with self-disdain.
In thought and deed I made him bleed, my selfishness, his pain.

5. "Behold!" they'd sing, "Behold your King!
Hail, King of the Jews!"
With each reed's blow our pain did grow.
As one we were abused.
Despite the crown he did not frown;
He smiled with love instead, and carried me for all to see upon his tender head.

6. Once placed with awe in manger straw, anointed by John's hands, transfigured on a mountain dawn,
now wore a mangled branch.
Once gently kissed by Mary's lips,
and blessed with magi's myrrh, baptized by a parting sky,
now streamed with blood so pure.

Jesus, I trust in You!

7. An innocent brow calls to us now to follow this example:

to let our thorns and all that scorns be healed within his temple.

Though dreams may fade, each one was made in seed that Jesus sows.

And now I see I'm called to be the King's most precious rose.

Lift High The Cross

Refrain

Lift high the cross, the love of Christ proclaim till all the world adore his sacred name.

1. Come, Christians, follow where the Master trod,
our King victorious, Christ, the Son of God.

2. Led on their way by this triumphant sign, the hosts of God in conquering ranks combine.

3. Each newborn foll'wer of the Crucified bears on the brow the seal of him who died.

4. O Lord, once lifted on the glorious tree, your death has bought us life eternally.

5. So shall our song of triumph ever be:
praise to the Crucified for victory!

OFERTORIO

Perdóname, Señor

1. Perdóname, Señor, que soy un pecador, perdóname, perdóname, Señor.
Perdóname, Jesús, que expirando en la cruz,
me hiciste conocerte, oh, Jesús.
¡Oh cuánto es el dolor que te causo, Señor, las veces que renuncio a tu amor!
¡Dolorosa la pasión! ¡Feliz resurrección!
¡Qué inmenso amor irradian sobre mí!

2. Perdóname, mi Dios, y escucha hoy mi voz, aunque te he ofendido, oh, mi Dios.
Ayúdame, Señor, a ser digno de tu amor,
perdóname, perdóname, Señor.
Acudo a ti, Señor, amado Redentor, colgado en la cruz en tu dolor.
Y en mi tribulación, me das la salvación.
Enséñame a amar de corazón.

3. Perdóname, Señor, que soy un pecador,
perdóname, perdóname, Señor.
Perdóname, Jesús, que expirando en la cruz,
me hiciste conocerte, oh, Jesús.

Hosanna

1. I see the King of glory, coming on the clouds with fire.
The whole earth shakes,
the whole earth shakes. Yeah.
2. I see His love and mercy, washing over all our sin.
The people sing, the people sing.

Refrain

Hosanna, hosanna. Hosanna in the highest.
Hosanna, hosanna. Hosanna in the highest.

3. I see a generation, rising up to take their place, with selfless faith. With selfless faith.

4. I see a near revival.
Stirring as we pray and seek.
We're on our knees, We're on our knees.

Bridge

Heal my heart and make it clean.
Open up my eyes to the things unseen.

Empty and Beautiful

1. My past won't stop haunting me.
In this prison there's a fight between who I am, and who I used to be.
This thorn in my side is a grace,
for because of it,
the flesh and blood of God was offered in my place, my place.

Refrain

You fought the fight in me,
You chased me down and finished the race.
I was blind, but now I see;
Jesus, You kept the faith in me.

2. Where did my best friends go?
At my defense they disappeared,
just like Your Friends did to You, oh Lord.
But You were there You gave me strength, so this little one might come to know the glory of Your name, Your name.

Bridge

I'm waiting, and set apart, like incense to Your heart
a libation I'm pouring out, empty and beautiful, beautiful, beautiful.

Ending

Jesus, You kept the faith in me.
Savior, You kept the faith in me.

At The Cross (Love Ran Red)

1. There's a place where mercy reigns and never dies,
there's a place
where streams of grace flow deep and wide;
Where all the love I've ever found
comes like a flood,
comes flowing down.

Refrain

At the cross, at the cross,
I surrender my life.
I'm in awe of You, I'm in awe of You.
Where Your love ran red,
and my sin washed white.
I owe all to You, I owe all to You.

2. There's a place where sin and shame are powerless, where my heart
has peace with God and forgiveness;
Where all the love I've ever found
comes like a flood,
comes flowing down.

Bridge

Here my hope is found,
here on holy ground;
Here I bow down, here I bow down.
Here, arms open wide,
here You saved my life;
Here I bow down, here I bow (down).

Jesus, I trust in You!

Memorare

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us.
Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.
Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if you were already there, and I unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Acto de Comuni3n Espiritual

Mi Jes3s, yo creo que T3 est3s en el Sant3simo Sacramento. Yo te amo por encima de todas las cosas y yo Te deseo en mi alma. Como ahora no puedo recibirte sacramentalmente, al menos ven a mi coraz3n espiritualmente. Como ya has venido, Yo te abrazo y me uno enteramente a Ti. Nunca permitas que me separe de ti. Am3n

Memorare

Ac3rdate, oh piados3sima Virgen Mar3a!, que jam3s se ha o3do decir que ninguno de los que han acudido a tu protecci3n, implorando tu auxilio, haya sido desamparado. Animado por esta confianza, a Ti acudo, Madre, Virgen de la v3rgenes, y gimiendo bajo el peso de mis pecados me atrevo a comparecer ante Ti. Madre de Dios, no deseches mis s3plicas, antes bien, esc3chalas y ac3gelas benignamente. Amen.

Nuestra Oraci3n Familiar

Dios amoroso y fiel, a trav3s de los a3os el pueblo de nuestra arquidi3cesis ha apreciado las oraciones y el amor de Nuestra Se3ora del Pronto Socorro en tiempos de guerras, desastres, epidemias y enfermedad. Venimos a Ti, Padre, con Mar3a nuestra Madre, y te pedimos nos ayudes en la batalla de hoy contra la violencia, el asesinato y el racismo. Te imploramos que nos des la sabidur3a para construir una comunidad fundada en los valores de Jes3s, que conceden respeto a la vida y dignidad a todas las personas. Bendice a los padres para que formen a sus hijos en fe. Bendice y protege a nuestros j3venes para que sean hacedores de paz en nuestro tiempos. Da consuelo a los que han perdido a seres queridos debido a la violencia. Te lo pedimos por Jesucristo, Nuestro Se3or.

Nuestra Se3ora del Pronto Socorro, apres3rate a socorrernos. Madre Henrieta Delille, ruega por nosotros para que seamos una familia Santa.
Am3n.

Oraci3n a San Miguel Arc3ngel

O San Miguel, Arc3ngel defi3ndenos en la batalla. S3 nuestra protecci3n contra el mal y las trampas del diablo; humildemente te rogamos que Dios los reprenda. O Principe Celestial de la Santa Hostia, que con la ayuda de Dios ech3s a satan3s al infierno y a los esp3ritus que vagan por el mundo para arruinar las almas. Am3n.
