GRATEFUL & GENEROUS

April 16, 2023

2nd Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday)

"Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.'" John 20:19

Are you good at making people feel welcome?

When you meet someone new, like a new neighbor, a new work colleague or a new parishioner, do you make them feel at home?

When we make people feel welcome, we make them feel like they are included instead of being excluded. We are made for relationships – with God and each other. When you see yourself as a beloved son or daughter of God, you tend to see others the same way, too – just as God, Our Father, sees us.

Loving Mercifully, Living Marian.

Today, we celebrate the Second Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday).. In the Gospel (Jn 20:19-31), we are presented with the appearance of the risen Jesus to the disciples in the upper room. Thomas wasn't with the disciples, so he wouldn't believe that the risen Jesus visited them. A week later, the risen Jesus visited the disciples in the upper room again. This time, Thomas was there and Jesus said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe," (JN 20:27). Then, in the next verse in the Bible (JN 20:28), Thomas replies, "My Lord and my God!" A Lifeteen author reminds us that "When Christ invited Thomas to place his hand on His side, He fulfilled the words of the prophet Isaiah, 'by His stripes we were healed' (Isaiah 53:5). Thomas was healed of his unbelief."

Christ wants to heal us as well. Through Jesus's Divine Mercy, healing graces are notable! In the Diary of St. Faustina, entry 699, Jesus promised to St. Faustina: "The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened."

The "mercy" pope, St. Pope John Paul II, in his Regina Caeli message on April 10, 1994, said, "Who can say that he is free from sin and does not need God's mercy? As people of this restless time of ours, wavering between the emptiness of self-exaltation and the humiliation of despair, we have a greater need than ever for a regenerating experience of mercy."

On Sunday nights, Divine Mercy Youth discusses Divine Mercy Sunday along with the awe of the graces we can receive. We also talk about the ABC's of mercy (Ask for Mercy, Be merciful, and have Complete trust in God) as well as ways we can show mercy to our family and friends in our homes, schools, workplaces, communities, society, and the world. We also discuss many other teachings of Jesus and topics regarding Our Blessed Mother and how she leads us to her Son. Under the protection of Mary's mantle, you are invited to join us!

Divine Mercy Youth is a high school ministry for all 8th through 12th grade students. Our aim is to help teens grow in intentional discipleship through prayer, community, and formation. Divine Mercy Youth is held on Sunday Nights following the 5pm mass and will serve as the catechetical program for all students who are not in catholic school. FR. COOPER'S CORNERThe Divine Physician's Remedy To Our Greatest Ailment*

In the moving Gospel we hear on this Second Sunday of Easter, we witness what Jesus did on the evening of the day He triumphantly rose from the dead. He walked through the closed doors of the Upper Room where the apostles were huddling together out of fear and He said to them, "Shalom!," "Peace be with you!" Jesus had come down from heaven to earth and had sacrificed His life to give us peace, but it was a special kind of peace, one the world can't give or take away. "Not as the world gives peace do I give it," Jesus had said during the Last Supper. The peace Jesus leaves and gives us is not the mere absence of war or conflict, but harmony with God through the forgiveness of sins. Without this type of peace, no other form can endure, because it is sin that destroys interior peace, the peace of the home, the peace of friendship, the peace of communities, the peace of nations. And so Jesus, wasting absolutely no time to set the next stage of His peace plan in motion, on the night of His resurrection divinely empowered the apostles as His peacemakers to bring that gift, and the joy to which it leads, to the ends of the earth.

It's important for us to pay close attention to the various steps Jesus took in today's Gospel so that we can understand better the divine foundation of the Sacrament of His Mercy, better take advantage of it, and better explain it to all those, Protestants and some Catholics alike, who say that they can confess their sins to God alone without the Sacrament. Jesus began by saying to the apostles, "Just as the Father sent me, so I send you!" We know that the Father had sent Jesus as the Lamb of God to take away the sins of the world and Jesus was sending His apostles to continue that saving mission of mercy. Since we know that only God can forgive sins against Him (see Mk 2:7), however, Jesus needed to impart to the apostles that divine power. So, He breathed on them as He said, "Receive the Holy Spirit." He gave them God the Holy Spirit so that they might forgive sins in God's name, just as we hear every time the priest pronounces those beautiful words in the Sacrament of Penance, "God, the Father of Mercies, through the death and resurrection of His Son, has ... poured out the Holy Spirit for the forgiveness of sins." And then Jesus did something that refers to the essential structure of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. He said, "Those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven; those whose sins you retain, they are retained." Since Jesus didn't give the apostles the capacity to read hearts and souls, the only way they — and their successors and their priestly collaborators — would be able to know which sins to forgive or to retain would be if people told them. And that's what happens in the Sacrament of Confession.

It's so fitting that Jesus established this Sacrament of His Mercy on Easter Sunday Evening because He wanted to link the joy of His resurrection to the joy of forgiveness. He had pointed to the connection between the two when He gave us the unforgettable Parable of the Prodigal Son. When the lost son returns to the Father to give his rehearsed speech of repentance, the Father interrupts him and erupts with happiness. He covers his son with the finest robe, adorns him with a ring and sandals, and kills the fattened calf. When the jealous older son asked why his dad was pulling out all the stops at the return of his brother, the Father replied, "We must celebrate with joy, because your brother was dead and has come to life again!" This Parable, which is about what happens in the Sacrament of Penance when we come back and say to our Father that we have sinned and He restores us to the full dignity as His beloved sons and daughters, points to the truth that every reconciliation is a resurrection! Pope Francis, in his homily at the Roman Church of Santo Spirito in Sassia, said simply confession is "the sacrament of resurrection." In every good confession, a son or daughter who was dead comes to life again, healed of sins both mortal and venial, and made fully alive once more in Christ Jesus!

That's why it's so fitting today, as we conclude the Easter Octave, that we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. Back in 2000, St. John Paul II established this Feast for the Sunday after Easter so that all of us could thank God for the gift of His mercy that led Him to stop at nothing in order to save us from our sins and from the eternal death to which our sins lead. John Paul announced the establishment of this Feast during the canonization of St. Faustina Kowalska, the humble Polish sister to whom in a series of profound mystical experiences during the 1930s, Jesus had revealed the depths of His merciful love for the human race and His desire for all people to recognize our need for His mercy, trust in it, come to receive it, and share it with others.

One of the requests St. Faustina described in her Diary that Jesus made of her was about this Feast. She wrote, “The Lord said, ‘I want... the first Sunday after Easter ... to be the Feast of Mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and a shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day, the very depths of my tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of my mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day are open all the divine floodgates through which graces flow.’”

What’s the Divine Mercy devotion all about? It’s about doing for Jesus’ love for us in the Sacrament of Confession what Eucharistic adoration has done for Jesus’ love for us in the Sacrament of the Eucharist. With the Eucharist, it wasn’t enough for Jesus for us merely to know or even to assent intellectually that He is really and substantially present body, blood, soul, and divinity in the Eucharist. Jesus Himself came into the world, and through appearances to mystics and Eucharistic miracles, made clear His will that He wanted us to celebrate that gift with Eucharistic adoration, with Holy Hours, with processions with Him in the streets and more. This is what led to the Feast of Corpus Christi through His apparitions to St. Juliana of Liège and the Eucharistic miracle of Bolsena-Orvieto. Similarly, it’s not enough for us to know and assent intellectually that Jesus has the power to forgive us our sins and does so through the Sacrament of Penance. He wants us to express our love and appreciation for it, because then, like with Eucharistic adoration, we will be better able to receive the infinite graces He wishes to give us through it.

One of the great crises today is that many people have lost an awareness of the power of God’s mercy because they don’t think they need it. There’s an eclipse of conscience and a loss of the sense of sin that Pope Pius XI once said was the greatest sin of the twentieth century. Saint John Paul II commented that secularism — living as if God does not exist — eventually leads us to seek to eliminate all vestiges of God from our daily life. We reduce sin from what offends God to what offends man. We deny or relativize moral norms we don’t like. Rather than take responsibility for our free actions, we blame our failings on our upbringing, or on society, or on others. Many are tempted, he wrote, “to replace exaggerated attitudes of the past with other exaggerations: From seeing sin everywhere they pass to not recognizing it anywhere; from too much emphasis on the fear of eternal punishment they pass to preaching a love of God that excludes any punishment deserved by sin; from severity in trying to correct erroneous consciences they pass to a kind of respect for conscience that excludes the duty of telling the truth.” The world wants sin to be canonized, not confessed and absolved. The Lamb of God came into the world to take away sin, not to hallow it. The truth is, as Jesus revealed in the Gospel, that only sinners need a Savior. Only the sick need a physician (Mk 2:17). The only way we will appreciate the depth of the Lord’s merciful love is to grasp, as we confess at the beginning of each Mass, that “I have greatly sinned ... through my most grievous fault.” Jesus wants to help us to grow in love of Him by loving us in this way. The Divine Mercy Devotion helps us to recognize our and the whole world’s need for His mercy, to ask for it, to receive it deeply, and to pay it forward. It transforms us so that we might become, like God, rich in mercy and as merciful as our heavenly Father is merciful.

As we, in this Mass, offer the Eternal Father in heaven Jesus’ body, blood, soul and divinity, we ask God Father, who is Rich in Mercy, to grant us the courage never to tire of receiving what He never tires of giving and to come to receive regularly that gift of His love through the hands of those same priests through whom He gives us each day His Son’s body and blood. We ask Jesus, God the Son, for the grace to receive that gift so profoundly that we might, like Him, become as “merciful as our Father in heaven is merciful” (Lk 6:36). And as we look upon the “Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world,” we ask God the Holy Spirit to help us say with all our mind, heart, soul, and strength, “Jesus, I trust in you!”

4:00 PM MASS

ENTRANCE

Alleluia! Sing to Jesus

1. Alleluia! Sing to Jesus!
His the scepter, His the throne;
Alleluia! His the triumph,
His the victory alone;
Hark! The songs of peaceful Zion Thunder like a mighty flood;
Jesus out of ev'ry nation
Has redeemed us by His blood.

2. Alleluia! not as orphans
Are we left in sorrow now;
Alleluia! he is near us,
Faith believes, nor questions how:
Though the cloud from sight received him,
When the forty days were o'er,
Shall our hearts forget his promise,
'I am with you evermore'?

3. Alleluia! Bread of Angels,
Here on earth our food, our stay!
Alleluia! here the sinful
Flee to you from day to day:
Intercessor, friend of sinners,
Earth's redeemer, plead for me,
Where the songs of all the sinless
Sweep across the crystal sea.

4. Alleluia! King eternal,
You the Lord of lords we own;
Alleluia! Born of Mary,
Earth your footstool,
heav'n your throne:
You, within the veil, have entered,
Robed in flesh, our great High Priest;
Here on earth both priest and victim
In the Eucharistic feast.

OFFERTORY

Worthy Is the Lamb

Refrain

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive honor and glory.
Worthy are the ones who believe to receive the goodness of God.

1. Worthy are you, O Paschal Lamb.
Wisdom and strength belong now to you.
You laid down your life
and died upon the cross:
we've become a people of hope.

2. Worthy are you, O Bread of Life.
Salvation and joy belong now to us.
By conquering death
and rising to new life, we've become a people of praise.

3. Worthy are you, O Risen Christ.
Wonders and signs, revealing your might.
Your power and glory shines upon our lives:
we've become a light for the world.

COMMUNION

How Beautiful

1. How beautiful
the hands that served
the wine and the bread
and the sons of the earth.
How beautiful
the feet that walked the long dusty roads and the hill to the cross.

Refrain

How beautiful,
how beautiful,
how beautiful
is the Body of Christ.

2. How beautiful
the heart that bled, that took all my sin
and bore it instead.
How beautiful the tender eyes that chose to forgive and never despise.
(to refrain...)

Bridge

And as He laid down His life, we offer this sacrifice that we will live just as He died:
Willing to pay the price,
willing to pay the price.

3. How beautiful
the radiant bride who waits for her Groom with his light in her eyes.
How beautiful
when humble hearts give the fruit of pure lives so that others may live.

4. How beautiful
the feet that bring the sound of good news and the love of the King.
How beautiful
the hands that served
the wine and the bread
and the sons of the earth.

SENDING FORTH

Sing to the Mountains

Refrain

Sing to the mountains, sing to the sea.
Raise your voices, lift your hearts.
This is the day the Lord has made.
Let all the earth rejoice.

1. I will give thanks to you, my Lord.
You have answered my plea.
You have saved my soul from death.
You are my strength and my song.

2. Holy, holy, holy Lord.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

3. This is the day the Lord has made.
Let us be glad and rejoice.
Death has lost and all is life.
Sing of the glory of God.

Cristo Resucitó

Estribillo

¡Aleluya, Cristo resucitó la madrugada del Domingo! (bis)

1. Fueron mujeres al sepulcro la piedra un Ángel removió les dijo: “Ha resucitado”.
Y al marchar les salió el Señor.

2. La Magdalena fue a llorarlo y Cristo se le apareció la mandó a ir a sus hermanos con un encargo que le dio.

3. A los discípulos, de tarde, Cristo también se presentó les enseñó las cinco llagas, dando la paz, los saludó.

4. Tomás no estaba en ese encuentro
y pidió ver para creer, Jesús volvió y le dijo: “Mira, palpa mis llagas y ten fe”.

5. Cleofás y otros caminaron con un extraño hasta Emaús, y en la fracción del pan notaron que ese Señor era Jesús.

6. Unos discípulos pescaban:
alguien la red les manda a echar, se hace el milagro ¡Es Cristo! dicen.
Luego Él los dio pescado y pan.

OFERTORIO

Quédate Junto a Nosotros

Estribillo

Quédate junto a nosotros,
que la tarde está cayendo;
pues sin ti a nuestro lado nada hay justo, nada hay bueno.

1. Caminamos solos por nuestro camino cuando vemos
a la vera un peregrino;
nuestros ojos, ciegos de tanto penar,
se nos llenan de vida,
se nos llenan de paz.

2. Buen amigo, quédate a nuestro lado, pues el día ya sin luces
se ha quedado;
con nosotros quédate para cenar, y comparte mi mesa
y comparte mi pan.

3. Tus palabras fueron la luz de mi espera
y nos diste una fe más verdadera;
al sentarnos junto a ti para cenar, conocimos quién eras
al partirnos el pan.

COMUNIÓN

¿Quién Eres Tú, Peregrino?

1. Me viste a la vera del camino, me invitaste a compartir tu pan, yo no sabía quien eras, peregrino, cuando sentí la fuerza de tu paz.
¿Quién eres tú? Me pregunte,
¿Quién eres tú? Quiero saber quien la respuesta me podrá dar.

Estribillo

Él es el Hijo de Dios, Jesús, el Siervo de Yahvé, Jesús.
Él es Hijo de David, Jesús, Promesa y Salvación, Jesús, Hijo del Hombre es Él, Jesús.
Alfa y Omega es Él, Jesús, Camino a la Verdad, Jesús.
La vida, Él nos la da, Jesús.
El Pan de vida es Él, Jesús;
Vino de Salvación, Jesús.
Él es el Buen Pastor, Jesús, mi Cristo Redentor, Jesús.

2. Un día, tú mismo preguntaste:
“¿Quién dice la gente que soy yo?”
“Unos dicen que tú eres un profeta, otros, Juan o Elías; yo, no sé”.
¿Quién eres tú? Me pregunte,
¿Quién eres tú? Quiero saber
quien la respuesta me podrá dar.

3. El mundo moderno, hoy me presenta
diferentes modelos que seguir, sin embargo, de mi alma surge un grito, ¿Quién es aquel, Jesús de Nazaret?
¿Quién eres tú? Me pregunte,
¿Quién eres tú? Quiero saber
quien la respuesta me podrá dar.

CANTO FINAL

El Señor Resucitó

1. El Señor resucitó, ¡Aleluya!
Muerte y tumba ya venció. ¡Aleluya!
Su poder y su virtud, ¡Aleluya!
Cautivó la esclavitud. ¡Aleluya!

2. El que al polvo se humilló, ¡Aleluya!
Vencedor se levantó. ¡Aleluya!

Y cantamos en verdad, ¡Aleluya!
Su gloriosa majestad. ¡Aleluya!

3. El que a muerte se entregó, ¡Aleluya!
El que así nos redimió, ¡Aleluya!
Hoy en gloria celestial, ¡Aleluya!
Reina en vida triunfal. ¡Aleluya!

4. Cristo nuestro salvador, ¡Aleluya!
De la muerte vencedor, ¡Aleluya!
Pronto vamos sin cesar, ¡Aleluya!
Tus loores a cantar. ¡Aleluya!

Jesus, I trust in You!

Memorare

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us.
Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.
Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if you were already there, and I unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Acto de Comunión Espiritual

Mi Jesús, yo creo que Tú estás en el Santísimo Sacramento. Yo te amo por encima de todas las cosas y yo Te deseo en mi alma. Como ahora no puedo recibirte sacramentalmente, al menos ven a mi corazón espiritualmente. Como ya has venido, Yo te abrazo y me uno enteramente a Ti. Nunca permitas que me separe de ti. Amén

Memorare

Acuérdete, oh piadosísima Virgen María!, que jamás se ha oído decir que ninguno de los que han acudido a tu protección, implorando tu auxilio, haya sido desamparado. Animado por esta confianza, a Ti acudo, Madre, Virgen de la vírgenes, y gimiendo bajo el peso de mis pecados me atrevo a comparecer ante Ti. Madre de Dios, no deseches mis súplicas, antes bien, escúchalas y acógelas benígnamente. Amen.

Oración a San Miguel Arcángel

O San Miguel, Arcángel defiéndenos en la batalla. Sé nuestra protección contra el mal y las trampas del diablo; humildemente te rogamos que Dios los reprenda. O Príncipe Celestial de la Santa Hostia, que con la ayuda de Dios echas a satanás al infierno y a los espíritus que vagan por el mundo para arruinar las almas. Amén.

Nuestra Oración Familiar

Dios amoroso y fiel, a través de los años el pueblo de nuestra arquidiócesis ha apreciado las oraciones y el amor de Nuestra Señora del Pronto Socorro en tiempos de guerras, desastres, epidemias y enfermedad. Venimos a Ti, Padre, con María nuestra Madre, y te pedimos nos ayudes en la batalla de hoy contra la violencia, el asesinato y el racismo. Te imploramos que nos des la sabiduría para construir una comunidad fundada en los valores de Jesús, que conceden respeto a la vida y dignidad a todas las personas. Bendice a los padres para que formen a sus hijos en fe. Bendice y protege a nuestros jóvenes para que sean hacedores de paz en nuestro tiempos. Da consuelo a los que han perdido a seres queridos debido a la violencia. Te lo pedimos por Jesucristo, Nuestro Señor.

Nuestra Señora del Pronto Socorro, apresúrate a socorrernos. Madre Henrieta Delille, ruega por nosotros para que seamos una familia Santa.
Amén.
