GRATEFUL & GENEROUS

July 2, 2023
13th Sunday of Ordinary Times

"...whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me."

Matthew 10:38

Pope Benedict XVI said "The world offers you comfort. But you were not made for comfort, you were made for greatness". "Comfort" puts me first. "Picking up your cross and following Jesus" puts God and others first. Why settle for comfort when you can achieve greatness! Pick up your cross, ask Jesus for guidance on using your gifts and live the life God intended for you!

Loving Mercifully, Living Marian.

Today, we celebrate the Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. In the Gospel (Mt 10:37-42), we are presented with the time when Jesus spoke to his apostles about the conditions of discipleship. Jesus says, "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me," (MT 10:37). A Lifeteen author reminds us that "We are called to love God with our entire heart and our call to love Him carries with it the challenge to be single-hearted, abandoning other loves for His alone." So, one is urged to put God before everything else and strive to perform righteous acts that show our faith in Jesus. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) addresses "God's righteousness." It states "that He himself is righteous and that He justifies him who has faith in Jesus," (CCC 1992). Saint John Vianney further expands upon the fact that we desire righteousness and long to perform acts of kindness as he said, "The soul hungers for God, and nothing but God can satiate it." On Sunday nights, Divine Mercy Youth discusses the righteousness of God and ways we can attempt to perform righteous and kind acts with our family and friends in our homes, schools, workplaces, communities, society, and the world. We also talk about many other teachings of Jesus as well as His promises to us. In addition, we discuss topics regarding Our Blessed Mother and how she leads us to her Son. Under the protection of Mary's mantle, you are invited to join us!

Divine Mercy Youth is a high school ministry for all 8th through 12th grade students. Our aim is to help teens grow in intentional discipleship through prayer, community, and formation. Divine Mercy Youth is held on Sunday Nights following the 5pm mass and will serve as the catechetical program for all students who are not in catholic school. See the parish website to register, for our schedule, and how to stay connected with us!

Jesus, I trust in You!

Dear Divine Mercy Parishioners:

I have often said, "If God has a sense of humor, so should we!" Who would have thought that I would be assigned to a parish church in Kenner for a third time! But one thing I am sure of is that God wants me here, with you.

As many of you know, my second assignment as a priest was to St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish (2003-2004) where I had the privilege of serving Bishop Carmon and some of you as parochial vicar. It was my shortest parish assignment lasting only thirteen months. At first, I was not happy about this assignment because the church was a multi-purpose building with some ugly yellow chairs! I also have to admit that I had some fear about this new assignment because the parish community had in recent years gone through a very rough time.

I questioned why God was doing this to me. The beauty in all of this was that I ended up loving the SEAS community and when I left, I had made and kept some long lasting friendships! I was very saddened to leave.

I was then appointed Vocations Director for the Archdiocese of New Orleans and parochial vicar of St. Angela Merici Parish, a lovely and faithful community in Metairie. And I loved it there too! After almost two years at St. Angela, I was asked to be the parochial vicar and a few months later pastor of Nativity of Our Lord Parish in Kenner (2006-2009). I could not believe that I was changing parishes again. And to top it off, I am being assigned to a parish that had just experienced some serious heartache. Why is this happening to me? But God knows what He is doing. After becoming pastor, the Archdiocese announced the closures and merger of SEAS and NOL. For fourteen months I worked with Fr. David Dufour to begin the merger of these two parishes. Being the only priest that had been assigned to both parishes, I was being bombarded by members from both sides. I thought to myself over and over again, "Dear Lord, why is all of this happening to me, to us?" But again, I tell you, God knows what He is doing. Through all of these struggles, something beautiful was taking place, slowly but surely: two parish families were asked to blend and become one and after a few years have become this beautiful and life-giving community called Divine Mercy Parish!

Once Divine Mercy Parish was established, I was sent to St. Clement of Rome in Metairie, my parish before I became a priest. It never crossed my mind that I would return to SCR as a priest and remain as pastor for the next fourteen years! And what blessed years these have been!

Now after all these years, I am heading back to Kenner for round three. One of the first things I need to tackle upon my arrival is what do we, your parish priests, want to be called. The complication here is that with two priests named Luis, who prefer to be called by their first name and not by their last, we still have not figured out this little dilemma. But this weekend is our deadline. We will let you know.

Yes, God has a sense of humor, and yes, God knows what is best for you and for me. What a wonderful opportunity for me to lead this great parish that I am blessed to come back to. I look forward to these years to come as pastor of Divine Mercy Parish and getting a chance to really know and serve you, its loving and faith filled members!

Fr. Luis Felipe Rodriguez
Pastor

POWER HOUR

HOW 60 MINUTES WITH JESUS
CAN TRANSFORM YOUR LIFE

You Open The Floodgates Of God's Mercy

One of the most important graces that God showers upon the earth, through your Holy Hour, is that of His great Mercy, according to Blessed Mother Teresa and Pope John Paul II. In other words, your Holy Hour opens up the floodgates of His Mercy onto everyone in the world.

For many people in the World, this may be the first time, or maybe the only time, they are ready to accept this grace. It also has been said, by our Saints, that God's Mercy is infinite, but that His Justice is total.

God may be counting on you to extend His time of mercy for yet another day to many people in the world before He will try to use His Justice to save them.

The roof of the Church building at Divine Mercy Parish has been a saga! The original roof fitted at construction was installed improperly (all the shingles were installed backward) and had to be replaced entirely with the second roof a year later. That roof was heavily damaged during Hurricane Ida and was completely replaced with the third roof. That roof has had tremendous problems since installation with continued leaks. After almost a year of negotiations (with the roofing contractor, the Archdiocese of New Orleans, and our agents), the roof will be completely replaced for the FOURTH time. Work is scheduled to begin on Monday, July 10th. I pray that completing this project will allow the parish to move forward with the interior repairs to the Church building and the Parish Center. It has been a journey!

May God raise the ROOF!

FR. COOPER'S CORNER

Praying for Pope Francis

Ten years ago this year, the 266th Peter walked out for the first time onto the Balcony of Blessing in the center of the façade of St. Peter's Basilica in the Vatican. After greeting us, he led us in prayer for the recently retired Pope Benedict XVI. Before he gave us his customary first blessing as the new Bishop of Rome, he asked us a "favor." He humbly implored, "I ask you to pray to the Lord that he will bless me," and bowed his head in silence as those in a hushed St. Peter's Square and across the world quietly prayed for him. After giving us his blessing, he thanked us, wished us a good night, and repeated the petition, "Pray for me."

He has been insistently asking us to pray for him ever since, in every language he can utter the phrase, at the end of almost every encounter. To pray for Pope Francis is the best way to mark his tenth anniversary. Prayer is what Catholics ought always to do first and do best. The Church prays for the Pope in every Mass from the rising of the sun to its setting. With 407,000 priests in the world, celebrating daily, Sunday, funeral and nuptial Masses, the Pope likely has 600,000 to a million Masses a day offered for him, a prayer meant to bring us into greater communion.

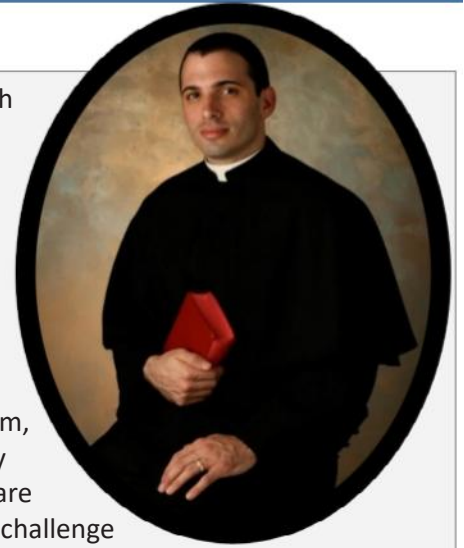

Catholics also pray for him in the petitions in the Liturgy of the Hours, at the beginning and end of the Rosary, and in various other spontaneous supplications made to the One whom he serves as earthly vicar. The ancient prayer for the Pope, sung regularly in the Vatican in Latin and found in prayer books and hymnals everywhere, is paraphrased from Ps 41:3: "May the Lord preserve him, give him a long life, make him blessed upon the earth, and not hand him over to the power of his enemies." That invocation finishes with a beautiful concluding prayer that synthesizes the Church's faith in the divine provenance and purpose of the Petrine office: "O God, Shepherd and Ruler of all the faithful, look down in your mercy upon your servant, Francis, whom you have appointed to preside over your Church, and grant, we beseech you, that both by word and example, he may edify all those under his charge so that, with the flock entrusted to him, he may arrive at length unto life everlasting."

Pope Francis has often spoken about how much he depends on the prayers of the faithful. In his first airplane press conference, returning from World Youth Day in Brazil four months after his election, an inquiring journalist asked why he so often asked us for prayers. "We're not used to hearing a Pope," the reporter said, "ask so often that people pray for him." Many people can naively think that the Pope doesn't need prayers. If he has Jesus Christ praying for him (Lk 22:32), they can wonder, why does he need us? Moreover, if he's supposed to be interceding for us before God, why do we need to intercede for him? Pope Francis responded to the journalist: "Because I sense that if the Lord does not help in this work of assisting the People of God to go forward, it can't be done. I am truly conscious of my many limitations, with so many problems, and I am a sinner, as you know, and I have to ask for this. But it comes from within! I ask Our Lady, too, to pray to the Lord for me. It is a habit ... that comes from my heart and also a real need in terms of my work."

Pope Francis seems to recognize that prayers for the Pope cannot be taken for granted. When he came to the United States in 2015 and visited Our Lady Queen of Angels School in the Bronx, the Holy Father said to the students before leaving, "I want to give you some homework. Can I? It is just a little request, but a very important one. Please don't forget to pray for me!" We've all received from him the same assignment.

Devout prayers for the Popes began to increase in regularity and intensity two centuries ago when Napoleon kidnapped Pope Pius VI in 1798 and brought him to live and ultimately die in Valence, France, preventing his body to be buried for five months or returned to the Vatican for more than two years. Such prayers grew when in 1809, Napoleon abducted Pope Pius VII and kept him in captivity for five years, until Napoleon and the French were finally defeated. Prior to that point, many, especially in Europe, had been tempted to view the Pope less as a spiritual figure than as the civil monarch of the Papal City States. But when the Pope was seized, maltreated, and imprisoned by a megalomaniacal dictator, Catholics throughout the globe began to pray for his safety, health, release, and intentions. Catholic piety has been positively impacted ever since.

Jesus, I trust in You!

To pray for the Pope implies a recognition that the Pope, like everyone, needs them, and with his responsibilities very likely needs them more, since Satan continuously seeks to sift the Pope like wheat (Lk 22:31). In every papacy, there are some who are better at complaining about the Pope than praying for him. It's a good practice to challenge those who criticize the Pope whether they pray for him as much as they protest. To pray for the Pope does not mean one approves of every decision he's made or even the general direction of the papacy. Pope Francis himself humbly recognizes his "many limitations," "problems," and sins, and in various pre-papal and papal interviews, he has candidly admitted that his first take on many decisions is often erroneous.

Praying for the Pope is not inconsistent with sincere concerns, for example, over the way he is handling various crises in the Church, responding to certain scandals, or handling liturgical matters. It doesn't imply one agrees with the wisdom of everything he's said, written, or done. It doesn't mean one deems prudent every curial, episcopal, or cardinalatial appointment. Prayers aren't supposed to come just from cheerleaders after all, but from every loyal spiritual son and daughter, and the more honest concerns people have, the more frequent and fervent they should pray.

Prayers for the Pope can, therefore, justly ask God to give him the wise and understanding heart that Solomon beseeched, so that he might govern God's people wisely (1 Kings 3:9). They can implore that he grow in docility to the Holy Spirit as he seeks to guide the Church into all truth (Jn 16:13). They can beg that he be given a tongue of fire to teach and defend the faith with zeal and clarity. They can humbly beseech that God persuade him to reverse some of the reversible decisions he's made. They can pray for the Pope's and their own continual conversion and even, when the circumstances warrant it, for a merciful and blessed death. But sincere prayers for the Pope ought to be a daily practice for every Catholic — for his good and the good of the whole Church.

Therefore, as we mark Pope Francis' tenth anniversary, let's give him what he has never ceased to ask for as a "favor," but which is in fact our loving Christian duty.

Please join the entire Archdiocese in prayer for Fr. Jeff Montz who has been diagnosed with a brain tumor.

PRAYER TO OBTAIN A FAVOR THROUGH THE INTERCESSION OF VENERABLE FULTON SHEEN

Eternal Father, You alone grant us every blessing in Heaven and on earth, through the redemptive mission of Your Divine Son, Jesus Christ, and by the working of the Holy Spirit. If it be according to Your Will, glorify Your Servant, Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen, by granting the favor I now request through his prayerful intercession that Fr. Jeffery Montz will have a complete healing and recovery. I make this prayer confidently through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Loving Mercifully, Living Marian.

Una de las gracias más importantes que Dios

En otras palabras, tu Hora Santa abre las

DIVINE WORSHIP AND SACRED MUSIC*4:00 PM MASS*ENTRANCE*America

1. My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrims' pride,
From every mountainside
Let freedom ring!

2. My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills,
Like that above.

3. Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

4. Our fathers' God, to thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King.

OFFERTORYThe Servant Song

1. Brother let me be your servant,
let me be as Christ to you;
Pray that I might have the grace
to let you be my servant, too.

2. We are pilgrims on the journey,
We are brothers on the road;
We are here to help each other
Walk the mile and bear the load.

3. I will hold the Christ light for you
In the night time of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you,
Speak the peace you long to hear.

4. I will weep when you are weeping;
When you laugh, I'll laugh with you.
I will share your joy and sorrow
Till we've seen this journey through.

5. When we sing to God in heaven
We shall find such harmony,
Born to all we've known together
Of Christ's love and agony.

6. Brother sister let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
Pray that I might have the grace
to let you be my servant, too.

For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.

2. O beautiful for pilgrim feet,
Whose stern, impassioned stress
A thoroughfare for freedom beat
Across the wilderness!
America! America!
God mend thine ev'ry flaw,
Confirm thy soul in self-control,
Thy liberty in law.

3. O beautiful for heroes proved
In liberating strife,
Who more than self their country loved,
And mercy more than life!
America! America!
May God thy gold refine,
Till all success be nobleness,
And every gain divine.

4. O beautiful for patriot dream
That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam, Undimmed by human tears!
America! America!
God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.

MISA — 12:30 PMENTRADA*Vamos Cantando al Señor*Estrillo

Vamos cantando al Señor:

Él es nuestra alegría.

1. La luz de un nuevo día venció a la oscuridad, que brille en nuestras almas
la luz de la verdad.

2. La roca que nos salva es Cristo nuestro Dios, lleguemos dando gracias
a nuestro Redentor.

3. Los cielos y la tierra
aclaman al Señor:
“ha hecho maravillas, inmenso es su amor”.

4. Unidos como hermanos venimos a tu altar, que llenes nuestras vidas
de amor y de amistad.

OFERTORIOBienaventurados

1. Bienaventurados,
pobres de la tierra,
porque de ustedes
es el reino de Dios.
Bienaventurados
los que pasan hambre, los que lloran sangre por amor a Dios.

Estrillo

Alégrense y llénense de gozo, porque les esperan
maravillas en el cielo.

Alégrense y llénense de gozo,
bienaventurados serán.

2. Bienaventurados
los desesperados,
serán consolados por Jesús, el Rey.
Si eres buen amigo,
si eres buen vecino,
estará contigo
nuestro hermano, Jesús.

3. Bienaventurados los sacrificados;
los desamparados
serán grandes ante Dios.
Tiende más tu mano,
haz a todos hermanos
con tu cristianismo y amor a Dios.

COMUNIÓNVen Al Banquete*Estrillo

Ven, ven al banquete.
Ven a la fiesta de Dios.
Los que tienen hambre
y sed serán saciados.
Ven a la cena de Cristo,
ven a la fiesta de Dios.

1. ¿Quién le puede dar
de comer a la multitud?
Con Jesús,
al compartir lo poco que hay, recibimos plenitud.

2. Hay que darse a morir para cosechar,
las semillas de libertad y resurrección,
la promesa de vivir.

3. Los desamparados vendrán a partir el pan
y verán su dignidad de nuevo en Jesús, Salvador y Buen Pastor.

CANTO FINALPueblo Santo y Elegido

1. Caminamos hacia ti, oh ciudad de nuestro Dios, construyendo en este mundo la verdad y el amor.

Estrillo

Pueblo Santo y elegido
congregado en el amor,
vas buscando, peregrino,
la ciudad de nuestro Dios.

2. Avanzamos, peregrinos, con Jesús, nuestra esperanza.
Él nos salva, Él nos guía, con la luz de su palabra.

3. Quien tiene hambre de justicia, quien anhela la verdad,
en la mesa del Señor
su palabra encontrará.

4. Reunidos en la Iglesia
proclamamos su verdad:
Jesucristo es el que salva dando al mundo su amistad.

5. Los caminos de este mundo son caminos sin final:
sólo Cristo es el sendero que conduce a la verdad.

6. Cuando llegue el momento de nuestra hora final, Jesucristo, nuestro hermano, nos dará su eternidad.

Amen, amen,
I'm alive, I'm alive because He lives;
Amen, amen,
let my song join the one that never ends
because He lives.

2. I was dead in the grave;
I was covered in sin and shame;
I heard mercy call my name;
He rolled the stone away.

Because He lives, I can face tomorrow;
Because He lives ev'ry fear is gone;
I know He holds my life,
my future in His hand.

OFFERTORYTake Up Our Cross

1. Behold the wood that bears our name; behold the nails that hold our sin.
The tree from which salvation blooms;
the death by which we're born again.

Refrain

We take up our cross and follow him;
we lay down our lives that we might live.
We carry the hope of Christ within;
we take up our cross and follow him.

2. We embrace the sacrifice, and walk the path we cannot see.
The burdens of this world made light;
by blood and thorn we are redeemed.
(to Refrain)

Bridge

Lift him high, lift him high;
let his name be glorified.
Lift him high, lift him high;
let his name be glorified.

COMMUNIONChrist Is Risen

1. Let no one caught in sin remain inside the lie of inward shame, but fix our eyes upon the cross, and run to Him who showed great love
and bled for us, freely You've bled for us.

Refrain

Christ is risen from the dead, trampling over death by death
come awake, come awake,
come and rise up from the grave.
Christ is risen from the dead,
we are one with Him again
come awake, come awake,
come and rise up from the grave.

2. Beneath the weight of all our sin,
You bowed to none but heaven's will;
No scheme of hell, no scoffer's crown,
no burden great can hold You down.
In strength You reign;
Forever let Your church proclaim.

Bridge

O death, where is your sting?
O hell, where is your victory?
O church, come stand in the light;
The glory of God has defeated the night.
Singing: O death, where is your sting?
O hell, where is your victory?
O church come stand in the light;
Our God is not dead.
He's alive, He's alive.

Jesus, I trust in You!

Memorare

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us.
Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.
Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if you were already there, and I unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Acto de Comunión Espiritual

Mi Jesús, yo creo que Tú estás en el Santísimo Sacramento. Yo te amo por encima de todas las cosas y yo Te deseo en mi alma. Como ahora no puedo recibirte sacramentalmente, al menos ven a mi corazón espiritualmente. Como ya has venido, Yo te abrazo y me uno enteramente a Ti. Nunca permitas que me separe de ti. Amén

Memorare

Acuérdete, oh piadosísima Virgen María!, que jamás se ha oído decir que ninguno de los que han acudido a tu protección, implorando tu auxilio, haya sido desamparado. Animado por esta confianza, a Ti acudo, Madre, Virgen de la vírgenes, y gimiendo bajo el peso de mis pecados me atrevo a comparecer ante Ti. Madre de Dios, no deseches mis súplicas, antes bien, escúchalas y acógelas benignamente. Amen.

Oración a San Miguel Arcángel

O San Miguel, Arcángel defiéndenos en la batalla. Sé nuestra protección contra el mal y las trampas del diablo; humildemente te rogamos que Dios los reprenda. O Príncipe Celestial de la Santa Hostia, que con la ayuda de Dios echas a satanás al infierno y a los espíritus que vagan por el mundo para arruinar las almas. Amén.

Nuestra Oración Familiar

Dios amoroso y fiel, a través de los años el pueblo de nuestra arquidiócesis ha apreciado las oraciones y el amor de Nuestra Señora del Pronto Socorro en tiempos de guerras, desastres, epidemias y enfermedad. Venimos a Ti, Padre, con María nuestra Madre, y te pedimos nos ayudes en la batalla de hoy contra la violencia, el asesinato y el racismo. Te imploramos que nos des la sabiduría para construir una comunidad fundada en los valores de Jesús, que conceden respeto a la vida y dignidad a todas las personas. Bendice a los padres para que formen a sus hijos en fe. Bendice y protege a nuestros jóvenes para que sean hacedores de paz en nuestro tiempos. Da consuelo a los que han perdido a seres queridos debido a la violencia. Te lo pedimos por Jesucristo, Nuestro Señor.

Nuestra Señora del Pronto Socorro, apresúrate a socorrernos. Madre Henrieta Delille, ruega por nosotros para que seamos una familia Santa.
Amén.
