TWENTY FOURTH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

(Is: 50:5-9; Jam: 2:14-18; Mk: 8:27-35)

"THE REAL IDENTITY OF JESUS":

'Who do you say that I am?'

Dear friends in Jesus Christ,

I am glad to see you all in writing through this homily. In today's first reading, the Prophet Isaiah describes the sufferings and the rejection experienced by Isaiah from the people of Israel. He assures us that although people try to disgrace and harm him in every way, the one who trusts in the Lord will not be harmed in any way. He affirms that God vindicates and protects such a person. This passage alludes to the rejection of the suffering servant of the Lord God. It also points to Christ who will undergo all manner of sufferings.

The second reading from the letter of St. James exhorts the Christian community that faith itself is of no use if that faith is not accompanied by action. He gives the specific example of a person who is hungry and that of another who needs clothing. It is not enough to say to such a person, be filled or to the other, be warmed and we do not make any effort to give the person food or clothing. So our faith should be seen in action.

"Confession of St. Peter: 'You are the Christ the Messiah'"

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives us some important clarifications about Himself and His mission. On His way to the village Caesarea Philippi, Jesus put a very vital question to His disciples. "Who do men say that I am?" In response, the disciples gave various answers: some said John the Baptist; others say Elijah or one of the ancient prophets etc. Then Jesus put a very personal question to His disciples. "Who do you say that I am?" Immediately St. Peter confessed "You are the Christ - the Messiah - the anointed one of God".

Subsequently Jesus tried to explain to the disciples what it means to be the Messiah or Christ. It would mean that He has to suffer much and die. The disciples could never understand or appreciate such an answer. Hence they vehemently protested saying, such a thing should never happen. Then Jesus explained to them that to be His disciple would mean that one should take up one's cross and follow Him.

Jesus is putting the same question to each one of us as He put the question to his disciples. Each of one has to make a personal decision regarding who is Jesus for him/her. To be part of Jesus' life would mean that we have to die of our selfishness and pride every day of our lives. Amen. God bless you all.

Yours is Christ Jesus, Father Selva

Tour Guide of the Mass

Your Guide for Remembering What in the World Happens During Mass After Being Unable to Attend Because of a Global Pandemic!

We're back! ...where are we? Oh yeah! We are driving through one of the most important parts of Mass—the Eucharistic Prayer. The consecration is coming up fast, so keep your eyes peeled.

Remember a while ago we talked about the different bullet points of the Eucharistic prayer? We are still walking through that list, and today we get to see the Epiclesis.

Last time, we talked a little about what Fr. Priest is supposed to do, but we didn't mention that he was doing all of that during the Epiclesis. Now we will talk about what he says during the Epiclesis...and what the heck is the Epiclesis (I might throw in a little about what Fr. Priest does at the same time).

You are indeed Holy, O Lord, the fount of all holiness.
Make holy, therefore these gifts, we pray, by sending your Spirit upon them like the dewfall, so that they may become for us the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Well if that's not the most poetic thing ever. That's beautiful! Let's dissect it now (...even dissect make it sound kind of gross...like a frog). So thinking back, Epiclesis means to ask for the power of the Holy Spirit to Consecrate the gifts. That is a big deal. Like BIG.

"You are Holy...the fount of all holiness." Like, all holiness comes from that fount (think pouring like a fountain). And Jesus Christ, our Lord—He is that Holiness.
"Make Holy these gifts" because He is all Holiness, "by sending your Spirit" Epiclesis "like the dewfall" —Poetic.
"So that they may become the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ." Wow. That last line is more than I can cover in one sentence. And because that last line is the most important teaching of our Roman Catholic Faith...I think I'll leave you to chew on it a week! We'll go deeper later, we always do! SM
