We are continuing to follow directives from Mesa County Health Department and the Catholic Diocese of Pueblo regarding COVID-19.

Are you a Registered Parishioner?

This allows us to reach out to all of our catholic members.

EIGHTH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR: C:

"GOODNESS IS SEEN IN ACTIONS"

(Sirach;27: 4-7 ;1Cor:15:54-58 ;Lk:6: 39-45)

Dear friends in Jesus Christ,

I am very happy to see you all through this Homily; today's first reading is from the book of Sirach. This passage has three picturesque comparisons. These comparisons explain to us that a person's speech reveals the kind of person he or she is.

Second reading is from the first letter of St. Paul to Corinthians. In this passage Paul explains to the Christian community in Corinth and to us that the power of death is once and for all removed by Christ by His victory over sin and death. If we persevere in doing the Lord's work we need not fear death. When we die (the perishable) we will share in His immortality (the imperishable).

"A tree is known from its own fruit"

Today's Gospel reading is from St. Luke. This passage gives us the teachings of Jesus through a series of short parables/sayings. Jesus tells us how we should look at the mistakes and shortcomings of others. He invites us to have a thorough introspection of ourselves in this matter.

1. A blind man cannot lead a blind man. If it happens that a blind man lead another blind man the consequences can be disastrous.
2. A disciple is not above his teacher.
3. Do not look for the speck in your brother's eye when you have a log in your eye. Finding fault with another person when we are also at fault is hypocrisy.
4. No good tree produces bad fruit. And no bad tree produces good fruit. A tree is known from the fruit it produces.
5. Finally Jesus says a good man produces well out of his good heart. Similarly an evil man produces evil out of his heart. Thus Jesus tells us that any goodness has to come from one's heart.

All the above sayings of Jesus explain to us the fact that good and evil are the products of a person's heart.

"Never criticize your neighbor until you have walked for a mile with him". -
An ancient proverb.

I wish you all a very happy weekend and Lovely day to you. Amen. Fr. Selva.

Tour Guide of the Mass

Your Guide for Remembering What in the World Happens During Mass After Being Unable to Attend Because of a Global Pandemic!

We finished the Lord's Prayer! Sort of...OK, not sort of.

We didn't finish just yet (told you this would be a long one!). This gets pretty interesting, because I'm going to use a word that you may not have heard before...at least not in this context. So we just concluded with "deliver us from evil" and now we go into the Embolism! Wait...what? We can't mean that embolism. OK Dictionary time:

em·bo·lism
/'embə,lizəm/

noun | MEDICINE

obstruction of an artery, typically by a clot of blood or an air bubble.

Wow...OK so that is what I meant? I think maybe this time we should use a religious definition. Catholic Dictionary time:

Embolism
Greek: embolismos, from the verb, emballein, "to throw in") Embolism is an insertion, addition, interpretation.

That definitely makes more sense! They do kind of go together—like a medical embolism is the insertion of a clot or air in an artery; whereas, in the Catholic sense, it is a literary device. Now I get it! So what is the Embolism in the Lord's Prayer? Here it is:

Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil,
Graciously grant peace in our days,
That, by the help of your mercy,
We may be always free from sin
And safe from all distress,
As we await the blessed hope
And the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

So, the embolism is a paraphrase of what we just said, an "interpretation", that's "inserted" (after all, that's what an embolism is) between the prayer and doxology (but that's a word for another day). Deliver us from evil, grant the peace and mercy that we need to be freed from sin. Keep us safe from distress while we wait—everything we just prayed, we continue to pray!

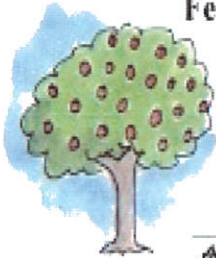

To find out a little history (it goes back a looong way) check out <https://www.newadvent.org/cathen/05399c.htm>, and I'll see you next week! SM

Unscramble the missing words to complete today's Psalm!

It is good to give _____ (KNSHTA)

to sing praises to thy _____ (MNAE).
O Most High;
to declare thy steadfast _____ (OVLE)
in the morning,

by _____ (HGNTI)
The righteous flourish
like the _____ (LMAF) tree,

They are planted
in the _____ (UOESH) of the Lord,
they flourish in the courts

They still bring forth _____ (UFIRT)
