FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT: C:

"THE RETURN OF THE PRODIGAL SON"

(Jos: 5:9-12; 2Cor:5: 17-21; Lk; 15: 1-3 and 11-32)

Dear friends in Jesus Christ,

I am very happy to see you all through this homily. Today's first reading is from the book of Joshua. This passage describes how the Israelites were freed from the slavery of Egypt by the mighty power of the Lord God and their journey to the Promised Land. Their first act of public worship and thanksgiving to the Lord God on entering their home land was the celebration of the Passover feast lasting seven days. Their possession of the land became a reality when they ate the produce of the land of Canaan.

Second reading is from the second letter of St. Paul to Corinthians. In this passage Paul explains to the Corinthian community that the whole aim of Christ's mission was to bring about reconciliation between God and humankind. The Apostle reminds us that we are ambassadors for Christ and for God.

"I will arise and go to my father"

Today's Gospel reading is from St. Luke. This passage has one of the immortal parables of Jesus - the parable of the prodigal son. It has been called the greatest short story ever told. This is a story about a father and his two sons. The father loved his sons very much. Yet the younger son asked for his share of the property and he spent his money in loose living. When he had spent all that he possessed, he found himself in a very miserable situation - feeding the pigs.

Desperate as he was he came to his senses and realized the great love of his loving father. Finally he returned to his father thinking that he would be accepted at least as a servant in his father's house. The loving father accepted him back unconditionally and showered love and affection on his lost son. The father's love for the lost son vividly explains God's unconditional forgiveness and love for the lost ones.

In the second part of the parable we meet the elder son who served the father faithfully. The elder son was not amused by the turn of events. He in fact revolted against the father for his forgiving love for the younger son. His attitude was harsh and judgmental.

This parable tells us about the story of our own lives. The part played by the prodigal son and the elder son are two sides of the same coin- our own selves. Let us remind ourselves during this Lent that the merciful father is always waiting for us to return to Him and our loving God is prodigal with His forgiveness and mercy.

"Love never reasons, but profusely gives: it gives like a thoughtless prodigal its all, and then trembles lest it has done too little." - H. More

"Every parent is at some time the father of the unreturned prodigal with nothing to do but keep his house open to hope". - John Clardl.

Thank you very much, I wish you all a very Happy and Lovely Sunday and weekend. God bless you all. Amen. Fr. Selva.
