RAISING DISCIPLES TO INSPIRE RELATIONSHIPS WITH JESUS

The First Five Saturdays by Sean O'Neill, Faith Catholic,

Guest Columnist for The Living Garden Diocese of Pueblo

In 1917, three children from Fatima, Portugal, had an encounter that they would never forget. Most of us know the story. On May 13 of that year, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to three shepherd children, Lucia dos Santos, Francisco Marto, and Jacinta Marto, just outside the village of Aljustrel, near Fatima. For the next few months, the children would see Mary five more times.

Fatima and other Marian apparitions are deemed by the Church to be “private revelation” and therefore worthy of belief, but we are not required to believe in them or to observe any related devotions. There were three “secrets” told to the Fatima children. In the first, they were shown a horrifying vision of hell in which the damned are tormented by dark, ugly, and terrifying demons. In order to save those souls who “go down into the pit,” Our Lady urges devotion to her Immaculate Heart and that people make reparation for offenses committed against the Sacred Heart and her own Immaculate Heart. As part of that reparation, Our Lady asks for the “Five First Saturdays” devotion to be carried out. That devotion consists of receiving Communion, going to confession, saying the rosary, and meditating on the mysteries of the rosary for 15 minutes on the first Saturdays of five successive months. The purpose of this devotion is to make reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary for sins committed against her. It is meant to console the Immaculate Heart of Mary and therefore console the Sacred Heart of Jesus in a most special way. Here’s what Our Lady said to Lúcia: My daughter, the motive is simple: There are five ways in which people offend and blaspheme against the Immaculate Heart of Mary:

- The blasphemies against the Immaculate Conception
- Against her Virginity,
- Against the Divine Maternity, refusing at the same time to accept her as the Mother of all mankind,
- Those who publicly seek to instill in the children’s hearts, indifference, contempt, and even hatred against the Immaculate Mother,
- Those who offend her directly in her Sacred Images

This idea of making reparation, at first, sounds as if God and the Blessed Mother had been hurt by blasphemies and curses against them. And it would be easy to mischaracterize the two exalted figures of Jesus and Mary as peevishly going into a huff until people say they are sorry. However, we know that God is impassible, in other words, incapable of suffering or feeling pain, and that those in heaven cannot suffer anguish or hurt in the same way that we do on earth. So, if Mary and Jesus are impervious to suffering, how should we understand this idea of making reparation for our sins against them? In the same way that, when we commit any sin, we damage ourselves, we also injure ourselves when we sin against Mary and Jesus. The act of reparation, then, becomes an act of repairing the harm we have done to ourselves. And the consolation that we give to God the Son and his mother becomes a way of our repairing the relationship that we have broken through our sin. In fact, all penance has this remedial effect. But, you might argue, I’ve never said a word against Jesus or Mary. Why, or indeed how, can I make reparation for the sins of others? This goes back to the reality that we are a human race and, like it or not, we are all connected. Although God recognizes that we are each unique, he also treats us as a people together, as one body, with Christ as the head. In the same way that the original sin of Adam and Eve had a devastating impact on the rest of humanity, the action of one man, Jesus, redeemed the entire human race. Likewise, any act of reparation by one of us has the effect of contributing to the healing of the wound in that damaged relationship by petitioning God to mend the breach. This proves true when you think about the first Fatima message. Our Lady tells us that our acts of reparation can be used by God to save souls from going down into the fires of hell. The First Five Saturdays devotion might look a tad inconvenient, but that means it also has the advantage of injecting some self-discipline into our spiritual life. And when you think that a little effort can actually contribute to saving souls from eternal death, then the discipline is certainly worth it.

Book Review - THE HOLY LONGING, Ronald Rolheiser

After my initial reading of Fr. Rolheiser's writing, I re-read it for a fuller impact of his writing. There is so much in here through personal examples that help to unpack our restlessness and deep desire for a healthy spirituality. Not a difficult read, but a wonderful, refreshing dive into what we can use for our personal spiritual development. Can be found on the library's Spirituality shelves.

Looking for a way to make a difference? Join the Grand Valley Catholic Outreach volunteer team!

Volunteers are needed to serve one or two mornings a week in the following areas: Day Center Volunteers welcome and assist community members who are homeless, providing needed services: mail delivery, laundry, shower facilities, secured storage, and more. Outreach Office Volunteers to fill orders in the emergency food pantry, interview and screen guests requesting assistance with utilities and other financial needs, sorting donations in the clothing bank, greeting and checking out guests as a clothing desk receptionist. Outreach Soup Kitchen Volunteers prepare and serve a noon meal Monday through Friday. Volunteers also assist with clean up. Greatest need is for cooks and dishwashers. Book-in-Hand Volunteers provide books to children and read with them while they wait for parents in our office lobby. Volunteers with flexible schedules are also needed as substitutes in all areas. Please email jimh@catholicoutreach.org for more information or call Outreach Volunteer Coordinator, Jim Hebenstreit, at (970) 241-3658 ext.103.

RAISING DISCIPLES TO INSPIRE RELATIONSHIPS WITH JESUS

Today is World Mission Sunday! Today, every parish across the globe joins together for the only worldwide collection mandated by Canon Law—World Mission Sunday. Your generosity today supports the Pope’s missions in more than 1,124 territories where the Church is young or struggling. This year’s theme—“Missionaries of Hope Among the Peoples”—is a call to embody the love of God, poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit (cf. Rom 5:5). Your offering today provides hope where despair too often dominates—through the building of churches, formation of seminarians and religious sisters, healthcare clinics, and Catholic schools.

Thank you for responding with faith, love, and generosity. As Pope Francis told us, “Each of us is a mission on this earth” (Evangelii Gaudium, 273). Together, we share in that mission by ensuring that no one is excluded from the invitation to encounter Christ.

Thanksgiving Baskets Planning

The IHM Parish Community & HFS generously gives food, funds and their time to provide 130+ families with Thanksgiving baskets each year. We are looking for volunteers now to help with the planning and organization for next month and then volunteer help through the month of November to move food, setup and pack the boxes. The work is easy, straightforward, and incredibly rewarding.

Kids Corner- Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Never Give Up!

Have you ever felt like giving up on praying because it seemed like God wasn't listening?

In today's Gospel reading Jesus tells the disciples a parable about a widow who kept bothering a bad judge to help her. Finally he did what she asked so that she would stop bothering him. Jesus said that if someone like that will do what a person asks, God will certainly listen to everything we ask him.

But does God always do what we ask when we ask Him to? God always hears what we say to Him, but He has a few ways of answering our prayers. Sometimes He gives us what we ask for right away, but sometimes He lets us wait a while before we get it. And sometimes He doesn't give us what we are asking for because He has a better plan for us.

So always persevere when you're praying for something. God hears you and you can trust Him to do what is the very best for you!

Never give up!
