Meditation

Oh, I Understand

A new month is upon us and with it comes the second Gift of the Holy Spirit that we can work on this month. That gift is the gift of Understanding.

Sometimes people have a hard time understanding (no pun intended) how this differs from the first gift of "Wisdom". While wisdom is the desire to contemplate the things of God, understanding allows us to grasp, at least in a limited way, the very essence of the truths of the Catholic Faith. Through understanding, we gain a certainty about our beliefs that moves beyond faith.

According to several passages in the Catholic Catechism, "Wisdom" is both the knowledge of and judgement about "divine things" and the ability to judge and direct human affairs according to divine truth. The Catechism goes on to explain "Understanding" as a penetrating insight into the very heart of things, especially those higher truths that are necessary for our eternal salvation.

God, grant me the Spirit of Understanding to enlighten my mind with the light of your divine truth.

2024 St. Joseph's Missals have been ordered. We expect delivery to be in about two weeks. Due to past challenges, you might say a prayer that they make it. Some of you did not get a chance to order the first time around. The sign-up sheet is up again for today and Tuesday so a second order may be placed.

Please check the updated ministry schedule posted on the front door. Some changes are effective today.

We would like to update the list of prayer requests that is printed in the bulletin by the end of the church year. (November 26) So if you are on the current list or have requested prayers for someone on the list, please see Jill or leave a message at the office (970-464-5024) to verify the current need. If we haven't heard from you by November 26, we will remove unknown names. Thank you for your help with this.

Catholic Daughters will meet next Sunday, 11/12 from 2:30-4:30 at IHM.
