God In Three Persons

In an essay from 2005, Elaine Rendler-McQueeney talks about a time when the concept of the trinity was challenged.

"The Council of Nicea was convened by the Emperor Constantine and took place in 325 AD because of the Arian heresy... The Arian heresy involved the Trinitarians, who insisted there were three persons in one God, and the Monarchianists who believed in only one indivisible God, who created a second being, the third part of a chain. This denies the divinity of Jesus. Jesus has the same nature as the Father. Since a mere human couldn't redeem humans, the heresy, in fact, denied the redemption of Jesus. Without Jesus' redemptive act, our sufferings would have no meaning, nor would we be able to share in the divine life as won for us by Jesus through his suffering, death, and resurrection. The Nicene Creed is a result of this first Council....

Today's well-known Gospel, John 3:16-18 ('God so loved the world') has greater significance if viewed in the light of this chapter of Church history. Today's preface clarifies any doubt about the divinity of Jesus." (Today's preface-in part-: "For with your Only Begotten Son and the Holy Spirit you are one God, one Lord: not in the unity of a single person, but in a Trinity of one substance.")

Gratitude Corner:

To Mary, Scott, and their family for heading up the yard sale. Also to Lisa and Garrett, their right-hand "men". And finally, to all who helped in any way with the yard sale.

Several people have been frustrated that they cannot get ahold of the church. We only have office hours on Tuesdays from 9-11:30am. If you need to speak to someone at any other time, please call Jill at 970-261-4806. Or you could volunteer to be in the office some other morning and we could be open more.

The feast of Corpus Christi is next week.

There will be a procession of the Blessed Sacrament. This is a beautiful way to honor the greatest gift we can ever receive. We will have a commissioning of Eucharistic Ministers at Mass that day also. If you would like to become an EM, please see Jill.

Today's Mass is in remembrance of Jerry & Billie Kay Huber by Jill & Bob Delavan.

Tuesday's Mass is in remembrance of James & Ursula Monson by Lisa Abadie Lanosga and the Abadie family.

You may have noticed that we don't have many altar servers. Pretty soon our numbers will be even less due to college, jobs and traveling. You don't have to be a young person to be a server. You just have to be able to kneel for a while and learn a few basic ways to help the priests. It's a wonderful opportunity to serve the Lord and your parish family. If you would like to join this ministry, please see Jill.
