Fourteenth Sunday in OT

Meditation

Come To Me

In today's Gospel, we hear those wonderful words of comfort: "Come to me all, you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you'll find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light." Matthew 11: 28-30. What an incredible message! It is reassuring that no matter what we face, if we give ourselves to God, he will take care of us.

The other readings as well as the responsorial psalm echo that theme. The first reading from Zechariah, tells us that the king, who is just and victorious but also humble, will bring peace to the nations. Psalm 145, praises and blesses the Lord declaring his graciousness, mercy, and kindness to all. Also, the second reading from Romans tells us that those who have the Spirit of Christ dwelling in them belong to him and will have life. A truly uplifting and encouraging Sunday!
