Meditation

Our Father's Care

The first reading tells us that Noah endured the forty-day devastation of the flood. In a similar way, the Spirit in today's Gospel drives Jesus into the forty-day trial in the desert. Satan conspires to make Jesus compromise his relationship as Son to his Father. But Jesus remembers how the flood ends with God's promise, "I will recall the covenant I have made between me and you..." Genesis 9:15 The Father now continues that promise in his own Son. The temptations reveal that Jesus is unshakably certain of His Sonship. Through our trials the Father's care is evident.

Oh God, make us always mindful of the care you have for us.

Gratitude Corner:

To Mary for providing an opportunity for our children to understand the Sunday readings in their own language during the Children's Liturgy of the Word.

Congratulations to Father Selva who celebrated his 15th anniversary as a priest earlier this month! Let's keep him in our prayers as his workload has increased greatly until our new pastor is assigned.

Today's Mass is in remembrance of Kenneth D. & Mary Ann Howell by Rosemary & Steve LaTourette. Tuesday's Mass is in remembrance of Phil Farney by Jill & Bob Delavan.

This year we will conduct stations of the cross a little differently. The leader will stand at the ambo so everyone can hear the prayers more clearly. Someone will walk to each station carrying the cross. If you would like to serve in either of those capacities, please sign up on the list in the narthex.

Finance & Parish Councils will meet this Thursday, 2/22, at 5pm.
