Meditation

Your Own Church

*There is a little church I know not very far away
You'll be surprised to hear of it
Yet see it every day.
You need not walk to reach the Church
No riddle this, but true
Nor wonder on what street it is
That little church is you.
Is not your noble brow the tower
Your eyes the windows bright
Your heart the Sanctuary lamp
That casts its crimson light?
Is not your voice the organ sweet
That sounds the hymns of love
Your holy thoughts the altar pure
When God comes from above?
Is not your soul, your precious soul,
The tabernacle white
And your poor body not the veil
That hides Him from your sight?
Your tongue the table of the Lord
Your lips the open door,
Your prayers the tinkling of the bell
Your humble mien the floor?
Then place your hand upon your breast
A thousand times a day
And in your own dear little church
Oft loving visits pay.
