Meditation

Is a Deacon Ordained for a Parish or Diocese?

Wherever a person is ordained, he is to serve the diocesan Church. Deacons are no different in this regard: they are assigned by the bishop to ministries for which the bishop perceives a great need, and for which the deacon may have special gifts and talents. Most often this will be within a parish setting, just as most priests serve in a parish. Once assigned to the parish, the deacon and any other clergy assigned to that parish minister are under the immediate supervision of the pastor. However, that assignment may be changed at the request of the deacon or the initiative of the bishop. Our own Deacon Luke ministers at both IHM and St. Ann’s and is also the chaplain of the Newman Club at Mesa College. As such he plans their services and provides counseling. Deacon Mike is “retired” but ministers to IHM and St. Ann’s as needed. Our deacons are very busy, and we are so grateful to them for all the time they devote to us. USCCB.org
