Blessed Lord, accept this burning candle as a sign of my faith and love for You. Like this candle, I am ready to be used in your service without asking why and to what purpose. Even as this candle, I wish to stand in Your presence and to be consumed in the light and warmth of our Love. Please hear my prayer and, if it is Your will, grant my petition. But above all, make me loyal and faithful to You in all circumstances of my life. Amen.

Lent is here!

This Sunday's Gospel presents us with Jesus going out into the desert where He faces temptation. He faces serious temptations that I would imagine many people today would jump at the chances. Jesus however had the strength to decline those temptations. Where did he get the strength to endure such hard conditions and the devil's temptations? He focused on God's word and found strength in doing His Father's will. Satan is always tempting us and he tries to get us to choose our will over God's will. He tries to separate us from one another so he can overwhelm us. When we stay close to the Lord and to one another in our church community we have strength in numbers to turn away from him and his antics. Jesus was tempted like we are but He overcame sin not by His own human effort but by the grace and strength which his Father gave to him. The Lord gives us the Holy Spirit to help us in our weakness and together we can and will turn away from sin and be faithful to the Gospel.

One of the temptations I found myself falling into more than ever lately seems to be negative thinking. It seems to be all around us, the media, politics, family gatherings and sadly, even church and church functions. It can start so easily by simply laughing and something that seems funny or harmless but soon enough it can get out of control. Before you know it, the negativity grows and spreads, sometimes pulling innocent and normally positive people into it's vortex.

As we begin the season of Lent, I am reminded of the need to eliminate negative thinking and allow room for the Holy Spirit to fill my mind and heart with thoughts of God and what he wants from me. As we begin our Lenten journey as a new parish family, I invite you all to walk together through this season of Lent by letting go of the could-of's, the should-of's, and the would-of's and focus on WHAT WILL BE if we only Let Go and Let God!

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that fish is an important cultural icon?
In the Pacific Northwest fishing is defined as recreational as well as a spiritual way of life. Fish is not only an important source of nutrition, the act of catching, preparing and eating fish are important cultural and family practices as well.
Fish is an excellent source of Omega-3 fatty acids, a fatty acid that our body cannot produce on its own. Omega-3's help keep our hearts and brains happy and healthy!

We have begun our parish FISH FRY and I am very grateful to all who have come out to share their time and talents in preparing the delicious good foods of our two fish fry's. We are having a great time every time we get together and I look forward to meeting more of you in the future. Don't forget to visit both fish fry's to try the different foods and share in lots of laughs!

"Every once in a while, you gotta just stop worrying, stop thinking, and just let go. Have some fun in your life. Trust me, it'll be worth it." ~unknown

DEACON MIKE'S CORNER

A woman was shopping for a new dress and found the most stunning creation she had ever seen. But it was expensive: $750.00. She knew she couldn't afford it, but she had to at least see how she looked in it. So, she tried it on, and it made her look beautiful. She knew someone else would see it and buy it before she could ever save up for it. She knew she just had to have it.

That evening as she showed her husband how beautiful it was and how beautiful she looked with it on. He asked the inevitable question: "how much did it cost?"

She explained the temptation was more than she could resist. He told her when she is tempted, she needs to tell the devil: "get behind me, Satan." She pleaded "that's what I did, and the devil told me it looks fantastic from the back too."

Temptations always attract us to something that looks good, even when we know it will not be good for us. We are all tempted. Even Jesus who was perfect, for he was also human like us in every way but sin.

The story of Jesus' temptation, which we heard in the Gospel today, encourages us to follow Jesus's example. Set aside time for prayer and self-sacrifice so we can have the strength to overpower the temptations that come to all of us. Prayer and fasting can lead us to holiness. In addition, the practice of alms giving can also help lead us to holiness. There is great need for many in today's world. This Lent renew the practices that Christ has given us to find holiness.

~Deacon Mike

DEACON TIM'S BOOK & MOVIE REVIEW

For Lent, I am going to focus my book and movie reviews on works about the lives of various Saints. My goal is to help those that read this column to learn more about various saints, thereby increasing their own knowledge of our Catholic Faith. The book review for this first Sunday in Lent is about one of my very favorite Saints. The book is called Witness to Hope: The Biography of Pope John Paul II. The author is the famous Catholic author George Weigel. For some, this book may be intimidating, as it weighs in at more than 1,000 pages. But please don't let that discourage you from reading this wonderfully informative book. Once you start, you will be sad when the book finally ends, as all of the information, and there is a lot, is presented in a way that is easy to read and enjoyable. The various events of Pope John Paul II's early life are covered in great detail. This includes all aspects of his childhood and his entering the underground seminary during World War II. Poland was occupied by the Nazis, who wanted to destroy all aspects of Polish culture, not the least of which was their strong Catholic Faith. Still, Poland had a clandestine Seminary and Karol Wojtyla, Pope John Paul II's real name, risked his life by entering this underground seminary and was actually ordained a priest on All Saints Day, Nov. 1, 1946. After the Nazi occupation, Poland was taken over by the Communists, who also had no tolerance for the Catholic Faith. The stories told about the persistence of the young Fr. Wojtyla, his friends and the Polish people in general, to participate and spread their Catholic Faith under these two Godless regimes are truly inspiring. Just like the early Church martyrs, this book tells of the beatings, imprisonments and murders that took place for those who stayed true to their Faith.

Finally, one of the interesting things about this book is that it names names when detailing events that took place behind the scenes, whether it was planning the famous trip to Poland, or the ways that Pope John Paul II met with and resolved problems with dissidents within our own Church. For this and many other reasons, I joyfully give this book Five Beards out of Five Beards. After reading this book, you will realize why many people unofficially refer to Pope Saint John Paul II as "The Great".
