Blessed Lord, accept this burning candle as a sign of my faith and love for You. Like this candle, I am ready to be used in your service without asking why and to what purpose. Even as this candle, I wish to stand in Your presence and to be consumed in the light and warmth of our Love. Please hear my prayer and, if it is Your will, grant my petition. But above all, make me loyal and faithful to You in all circumstances of my life. Amen.

Let Us Pray! O Lord, giver of life and source of freedom, I know that all I have received is from your hand. Gracious and loving God, You call us to be stewards of Your abundance, the caretakers of all you have entrusted to us. Help us to always use Your gifts wisely and teach us to share them generously. Send the Holy Spirit to work through us, bringing Your message to those we serve. May our faithful stewardship bear witness to the love of Jesus Christ in our lives. We pray with grateful hearts, in Jesus' name. Amen.

THE 12 VOICES OF EASTER

1. This is Peter, the voice of Denial. I was closest to Jesus but I pretended I didn't know him when he was in trouble. I did this three times.
2. These are the Chief Priests, the voices of Deception. We are the most powerful men in our church. We think Jesus is a troublemaker. He needs to be stopped.
3. This is Judas, the voice of Betrayal. I told the Roman soldiers where to find Jesus. I did it for thirty pieces of silver.
4. This is Caiaphas, the voice of Condemnation. I told everyone that Jesus was guilty.
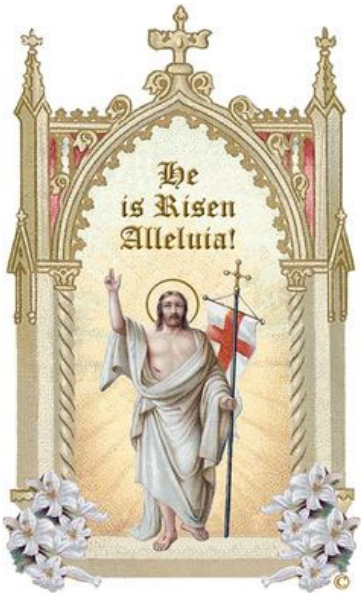
5. This is the mob, the voices of Hatred. We shouted "Crucify Him! Crucify Him!"
6. This is Pilate, the voice of Evasion. I decided that Jesus should be crucified. Then I washed my hands of him.
7. This is the Thief, the voice of Faith. I hung on a cross next to Jesus. I asked him to remember me in heaven.
8. This is the Roman Centurion, the voice of Affirmation. I knew that Jesus was a good man. I watched Him die on the cross.
9. This is Joseph of Arimathea, the voice of Courage. I followed Jesus in secret. I stood up to Pilate and took Jesus down from the cross and laid him in the tomb.
10. This is Mary Magdalene, the voice of Adoration. Jesus changed my life. I went to the tomb and saw the stone moved away. I was the first one to see Him after He rose from the dead.
11. This is Thomas, the voice of Doubt. I saw the Risen Lord but I didn't believe until I put my fingers in his wounds. I needed to see to believe.
12. This is Cleopas, the voice of Assurance. The Risen Lord broke bread in my home. I am here to tell you that Jesus is Risen! He is alive!

Drive ~ In Adoration!

Because we cannot leave all of our church buildings open for private prayer and adoration during the Corona Virus crisis, you can drive into the parking lot at St. Albert the Great Church, face your car towards the front of the church and pray privately in the safety of your car. We set up a wonderful chapel with the tabernacle in the vestibule behind the glass doors for all who want to come and pray!



As I sat in my office thinking about celebrating Easter Sunday in empty church buildings this year, I could not help but feel as though it just doesn't seem right, normal or appropriate to celebrate Easter with joy. After all, you the parishioners, our parish family are not going to be together physically to sing the beautiful Gloria and the Great Alleluia together.

We were unable to be together to celebrate the holiest week of the year and of our faith. I remember a parishioner who was walking in the parking lot at St. Sylvester stop me and remark that they felt as though Jesus was on hiatus and how much they missed him. I asked what they meant. "I really miss not being able to receive communion or be in the presence of the tabernacle," the person responded. I assured them that Jesus is not on hiatus, but was in fact still with them and with us all as he promised at the end off Matthew's gospel, "And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." Matthew 28:20.

Jesus has not left us or abandoned us and he never will even if we are unable to receive him in the Eucharist physically, we receive him in spiritual communion. In the midst of all of the anxiety, fear, worry and wonder we are experiencing, during these difficult and unknown times, we may be feeling desperate, lost or lonely but He is with us through it all. As we face the challenge of being away from one another, our church buildings and the Eucharist because of having to go to our homes and stay in our homes during this crisis, I am reminded of that Jesus said to his disciples prior to his suffering, death and resurrection to give them comfort and hope. "Behold, the hour is coming and has arrived when each of you will be scattered to his own home and you will leave me alone. But I am not alone, because the Father is with me. I have told you his so that you might have peace in me. In the world you will have trouble, but take courage, I have conquered the world." John 16:33

What we celebrate to day, the resurrection of Jesus Christ, is not just about His rising from he dead and going to be with the Father in heaven as if never to return. It is also about His victory over death and this world once and for all and for all of us who believe in Him. Celebrating Jesus' resurrection and ascension into heaven is different from what we celebrate or experience when someone we love passes on. When a loved one passes on, we mourn their loss because they are no longer with us in this world. We pray that they are with God in heaven and that we will see them again someday in heaven. The resurrection if Jesus is different because even though He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father, He is still present to us and with us in this world. We profess what we celebrate Easter Sunday and every Sunday throughout the year: "On the third day, He rose again in fulfillment if the scriptures; He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end."

During these challenging times we must remember that Jesus is still with us in each and every moment of every day. He is with us through it all. Yes we hope and pray for the day, "He will come again in Glory," but he is also with us in the here and now of everyday life. I reflect back over the last year on all of the ways Jesus was present to me, often times through so many of you. When we celebrated together in our churches, when we were together at the parish picnic and festivals, Jesus was present. When we faced the struggles and challenges of merging our parishes and closing the school, Jesus was present, challenging, encouraging, teaching and comforting us. I know He is even more present to us during the frightening and difficult times because, more and more, we are turning to Him in ways we have never done before.

I witness the presence of Christ in so many ways an through so many people who are seeing past our differences and seeing those in need of comfort with the eyes of Christ, being present to and listening to one another with the ears of Christ, and reaching out to one another with love and prayers, bringing the heart of Christ to a world that needs to experience His presence more than ever. Even though we are unable to gather in our church buildings this Easter, we continue to BE THE CHURCH ALIVE, by being the presence of Jesus to all. I look forward to the day we return to our church buildings to celebrate the Lord by celebrating one another as a parish family.

This Easter and always, May the Risen Lord Bless you mind with calm and peace. May He Bless your day with grace and ease. May He Bless your heart with love and light. Wishing you and your families a Blessed Easter!

Christ is Risen Alleluia!

Fr. Steve

DEACON MIKE'S CORNER

A middle-aged couple, whose last child had recently moved out on her own, were having a conversation right before Easter. The wife said to her husband that with the children grown and away from home, this was their first year they were not going to dye Easter eggs and have an Easter egg hunt. To console her, her husband responded, "That's alright, honey, we can just hide each other's pills."

Well this will be our first Easter without many family traditions, and probably without any of our family close by. Everyone is trying to protect the other by staying away. But this will be my first Easter with no Church service. I will probably watch the Bishops Mass that he will stream, but even that seems strange not sitting in church.

So, this Easter find a Mass if you can, online at www.diopitt.org or on TV. During that Mass hold a picture of Mary Magdalene in your mind. She was at the foot of the cross when Jesus died and the first to find the empty tomb. Her loneliness in the death of Jesus was rewarded with meeting Jesus first, after his resurrection, because of her faithfulness. Then Jesus tells her "be not afraid".

Cardinal Timothy Dolan tells us this phrase appears 365 times in the scripture. Once for each day of the year. Jesus must know how much we need this reminder to not fear, because He is with us always. If you get to feeling lonely this Easter, thank Christ for being at your side. Then give the kids and grandkids, or grandparents, a call on the phone and wish them a very Happy Easter.

For all who have contracted coronavirus,
We pray for care and healing.

For those who are particularly vulnerable,
We pray for safety and protection.

For all who experience fear or anxiety,
We pray for peace of mind and spirit.

For affected families who are facing difficult decisions between food on the table or public safety,
We pray for policies that recognize their plight.

For those who do not have adequate health insurance,
We pray that no family will face financial burdens alone.

For those who are afraid to access care due to immigration status,
We pray for recognition of the God-given dignity of all.

For our brothers and sisters around the world,
We pray for shared solidarity.

For public officials and decisionmakers,
We pray for wisdom and guidance.

Father, during this time may your Church be a sign of hope, comfort and love to all.
Grant peace.
Grant comfort.
Grant healing.
Be with us, Lord.

Amen.

Our sympathy is extended to the family of:
