Blessed Lord, accept this burning candle
as a sign of my faith and love for You.
Like this candle, I am ready to be used in your service without asking why and to what purpose. Even as this candle, I wish to stand in Your presence and to be consumed in the light and warmth of our Love. Please hear my prayer and, if it is Your will, grant my petition. But above all, make me loyal and faithful to You in all circumstances of my life.
Amen.

Blessed Trinity Parish is a welcoming & all-inclusive family.
Everyone is welcomed in our parish and to our celebrations.

Expect warm welcomes, regardless of who you are, where you are from,
or where you are following the Lord in life.

We have multiple celebrations of Mass in multiple locations on both Saturday and Sunday. Please see the schedule of masses on the front of this bulletin, and come join us and bring a family member or friend as well!

If you would like to join us for Mass, but can only arrive in the middle of our celebration, please do not feel embarrassed. We are happy to have others join us for Mass even if and when they enter in the middle of our celebration. Everyone is welcome at every and any moment! You are never a bother to us and we understand that life happens!

Cleanliness and Modesty are appreciated and respected, know that we thank you in advance for trying not to dress in ways that could distract others from our praise of the Lord and our celebration of the Church's sacraments. Please know, however, that having you join us as you are,
is more important to us.

Remember! God loves you for who you are, as you are, and so do we!

Welcome

DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME ENDS
NOVEMBER 7TH
AT 2:00 AM
DON'T FORGET TO TURN YOUR CLOCKS BACK!

Fall is upon us!

As I sat home over the last week recovering from a minor surgery, I realized how I almost allowed the fall season to pass by without taking the time, making the time to just take it all in. The beauty of the changing colors of the leaves, the crisp mornings and nights, the smells that are part of the season, pumpkins, apples, decaying leaves, cold air and burning wood from fire places.

Fall for me, is a beautiful and nostalgic time of the year for many reasons. First, it reminds me that once again, change is in the air as the days grow shorter, the darkness lasts longer, the leaves change colors and blow away leaving stark empty trees. It is such a time of transformation and it seems to happen so quickly before we find ourselves in the winter months.

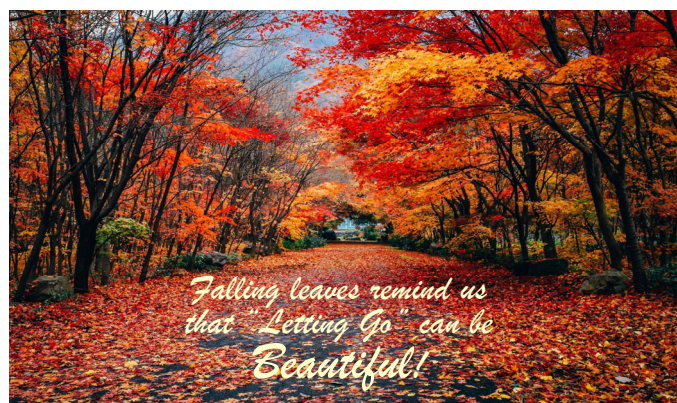

It (fall) is also a season so full of tradition and memories like long Sunday rides with my parents to see the changing leaves, stopping along the way to taste local apple cider buying pumpkins and visiting fall craft shows. Memories of decorating for Halloween and Thanksgiving and more recently, decorating the churches for the season and celebrating Trunk-er-Treat with the children of the parish, young and old alike! For many, fall also conjures up feelings of sadness remembering our loved ones who have gone before us to be with God as we celebrate All Souls Day.

The beauty of fall is that even with the sadness of death and the reminder of the passing of time, death is not the end. Fall is a moment in time and it too will pass and eventually lead us to the new life of spring. Fall also provides an opportunity to take on a new perspective for the upcoming new year and to be open to the possibilities of change.

As I watch the beautiful transformation of the leaves that begin to fall from the trees as they are blown by the wind, I am reminded of the importance of Letting Go of the things that are part of the recent year's past so I can be more aware of the beauty of the present. I often think of my favorite CCD teacher, Mrs. DiDesiderio who taught me that the season of fall is such a beautiful display of God's creation, with an abundance of colors brought about by His use of so many different kinds of trees, all different from each other. I cannot imagine fall without the oranges, yellows, golds, rust tones and shades of reds and browns all mixed together creating a spectacular image that seems to touch the heart and move the soul. Mrs. DiDesiderio would always remind us during this time of the year, that if God can accomplish such beauty with trees in the fall, imagine what He can do with each of you if you share the beauty He gives you with the rest of the world. Thank You Mrs. "D"

Soon enough the trees will naturally and willingly let go of their leaves after sharing a stunning fall show of colors. Now is a good time for us to think about the things in our lives from this past year or the past in general that we are ready to release and let go of for the spirit to carry away and decay so we can be ready for something new to grow.

Fr. Steve

You shall love the LORD, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength.

YOUTH MINISTRY

WELCOME!

Hello teens and their families! My name is Nicholas Wolf and I am the Youth Minister at Blessed Trinity Catholic Parish. I have been with the parish for two years and have met some of the most wonderful families. Due to the pandemic and places being shut down, I have not been able to meet each of you in person, but I hope to do so in the near future. During my time here at Blessed Trinity Parish, I have been able to help coordinate many fun and faith-filled events and activities. Some of these include, Merry Mystery Tour around Pittsburgh, March for Life in Washington D.C., kickball games, frisbee, movie nights, bowling, ice skating and so much more! But the best part of it all, is meeting the wonderful families right here in our parish. Each of you are so special and I sincerely look forward to meeting you and having a fun experience with you. With this being said, I want to personally invite YOU to our upcoming events and activities. I want to assure you that my CORE Team and I welcome you sincerely.
