4th Sunday of Easter
John 10:27-30

A few years back, I felt as if I couldn't hear God's voice the way I used to. The words in the Bible seemed like cold ink on a page. Prayer felt like sitting anxiously in a lonely room. I was worried — how could I, a priest, preach or help others if I couldn't hear God's voice? It went on for months.

Then a friend encouraged me to go on a retreat and spend as much time as possible in silence. After a day or two of quiet prayer, I noticed gentle but clear thoughts of repentance in two specific areas of my life. I asked God for the grace to change, and I went to confession. Suddenly, the divine silence that haunted me was filled with a sense of God's closeness and goodness. I realized, gratefully, that God had been speaking to me in the quiet voice of my conscience.

This week we hear Jesus say, "My sheep hear my voice. I know them and they follow me" (John 10:27). Jesus links the hearing of his voice to following him. He speaks to us in our conscience in an intimate, personal way, when we most need to hear him. When you feel deaf to God's voice, perhaps it is time to listen in silence for His voice in your conscience calling you to hear and follow the Good Shepherd of your soul.

1st Reading Question:

Paul and Barnabas experienced resistance from some of the Jews and leaders of the city of Antioch. What sustains you in difficult and challenging experiences?

2nd Reading Question:

John sees a vision in which those who have suffered and died for the faith are comforted by God and relieved of their distress. Is there a family member or friend you could comfort this week?

Gospel:

We hear how Jesus gives eternal life to all who follow him. How does following Jesus impact your work or family life? ©LPi

Baptism

The parents and godparents must be registered, active in a parish, and receiving the sacraments. Parents are to call the Parish Office to make an appointment with the pastor to make arrangements for baptism. The date of baptism, class, and godparents will be discussed with the pastor during the appointment.

Marriage

Marriage preparation requires a minimum of 6 months during which the couples participates in a pre-marriage class, an inventory, attends an introduction to Natural Family Planning class, and completes a marriage file with the pastor. Dates for weddings will be set after a meeting with the pastor and the freedom to marry has been established. Call the Parish Office to make an appointment with the pastor.

Funerals

Always call the parish for guidance about your loved one's Catholic funeral and to inquire about dates and times available in the parish before making arrangements at a funeral home. Funeral services must take place as soon as possible after death and should not be delayed out of respect for the deceased person. Rosaries/Vigils take place on the evening prior to the day of the Funeral Mass according to the long custom of the Church. The burial at a cemetery must take place on the same day as the Funeral Mass unless the body is to be cremated. Cremated remains of a body must be buried immediately after the cremation takes place.
