Thank you to all new ADA contributors this past week, and

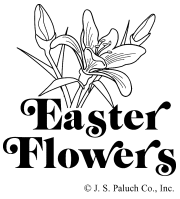
🏆CONGRATULATIONS🏆

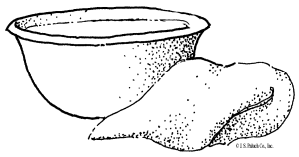
to our parish community for its success in the 2021 Annual Diocesan Appeal! Once again, we exceeded our goal by many percentage points, making it possible for us to collect a rebate to help us with parish expenses during another year of limited income. We could not have had this success without the generosity of so many. Thank you. Special thanks to our chairperson, Frank Bonzell, and to our dedicated gift processor, Virginia Puzar, for all their help. NOTE: It's not too late to help St. Joseph of Cupertino! Even though the campaign is coming to an official end, pledges will be accepted through the end of 2021.

ADA2021 ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL

EASTER FLOWERS

If you would like to donate Easter flowers in memory or in honor of a loved one, please use the flower donation envelopes available after mass or near the chapel doors. You may also mail or drop off your request and any donation. Please be sure to include the names of the persons you want to remember. They will be published in an upcoming bulletin.





Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

RETROUVAILLE
A LIFELINE FOR MARRIED COUPLES

Rediscover Your Marriage –

Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi with a long i) simply means 'rediscovery'. The program offers the chance to rediscover yourself, your spouse, and a loving relationship in your marriage. 10's of 1000's headed for divorce have successfully saved their marriages by attending. Retrouvaille is a not spiritual retreat, not a sensitivity group, not a seminar, not a social gathering. For confidential information about or to register for the January Virtual Marriage Program beginning with a weekend on April 22-25, 2021 call 408-605-4998 , email: SanJose@RetroCA.com or visit the web site at www.HelpOurMarriage.org

PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

MARCH 28, 2021

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc. · Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass © 2008, 1998, 1997, 1986, 1970, CCD. All rights reserved. Photo: jcpjr/Adobe Stock.

It may be Palm Sunday, but the Passion is far more prominent in today's liturgy, which invites us to follow Jesus from his triumphant entrance into Jerusalem to his crucifixion and burial. It simply overflows with the sorrow and intimacy that will be dominant themes in Holy Week.

The first reading from the book of Isaiah gives voice to the suffering of an innocent person—perhaps a prophet—or the people as a whole. The refrain for the Psalm is Jesus' cry from the cross (Mark 13:14), a cry of absolute, existential loneliness. The great kenotic (emptying) hymn in Philippians provides a stunning portrait of Jesus' ultimate emptying, simultaneously intimate and cosmological.

INTIMACY

All four Gospels have a Passion narrative. While there is agreement on the main events—an intimate meal shared by Jesus and the disciples, betrayal by Judas, prayer in Gethsemane followed by Jesus' arrest, trial, and crucifixion—each Gospel has unique variations that give it a particular meaning or tone. In today's Gospel from Mark, Jesus is anointed by an unnamed woman in the house of Simon the leper. All the Gospels have Jesus being anointed by a woman, but only Mark puts this scene just before the Last Supper. Jesus says the anointing is preparation for his burial; it is as if the woman could see a prophet's suffering in Jesus' life and feel it in his presence. Moved by compassion, she empties her jar of expensive nard on his head, pouring out her love in a profoundly intimate act. Perhaps she will also join the women who witness the crucifixion from afar (Mark 15:40–41), after the Twelve seem to be long gone.

Palm Sunday invites us to follow Jesus through the rest of Holy Week. By moving us to feel the injustice and the suffering endured by Jesus, this week's liturgies and devotions present us with those same choices. Perhaps, like the unnamed woman, we can open ourselves to others' suffering and respond with love and compassion. Or perhaps, like the Twelve, we will be conspicuous by our absence.

Today's Readings: Mk 11:1–10 or Jn 12:12–16; Is 50:4–7; Ps 22:8–9, 17–18, 19–20, 23–24; Phil 2:6–11; Mk 14:1 — 15:47 [15:1–39]

We're doing a Read-A-Thon!

This year we are launching a "NEW" fundraiser that not only supports our school, but also supports our specialized programs for the children. This fundraiser will be supporting reading intervention, advanced math, technology, science, physical education, and art. Our goal is to raise $20,000. If each student raises at least $100 we will make our goal.

Our Read-A-Thon campaign started on March 15th and ends this Monday, March 29th.

School Families please use the link for your children to donate. Parishioners if you would like to support the students in general please follow the QR code below.

Stewardship at St. Joseph of Cupertino

Good stewards strive to conform their lives to that of Christ – emptying themselves of all pride and putting themselves at the service of others. Where am I in this journey?

Stewardship Prayer

Rev. Gregory Kimm, 2009

God rich in kindness and generous in love,
You call us to be your people, a church, a community of faith.
You have entrusted St. Joseph of Cupertino Parish to our care.
Help us to be good stewards, always worthy of your trust.
As you are attentive to the needs of each of us,
Enable us to be attentive to the needs of our parish, using the gifts you have given us not just for our own good, but for the good of all.
We ask this in the name of Jesus, our Brother, and in the Spirit, who makes us one.
Amen!

CATHOLICISM 101- QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: What is the Triddum?

"How do we practice the Beatitudes? They do not ask us to do extraordinary things, feats beyond our abilities. They ask for daily witness. The blessed are those who live meekly, who show mercy wherever they happen to be, who are pure of heart wherever they live. To be blessed, we do not need to become occasional heroes, but to become witnesses day after day. Witness is the way to embody the wisdom of Jesus." Pope Francis

Automated Giving is here—Have you signed up yet? All parishioners are encouraged to give a set monthly amount. There are a number of ways this can be accomplished. You can sign up for online giving by clicking on "Give" tab on the St. Joseph website home page (www.stjosephcupertino.org). You can use your bank's online bill pay service to set up a recurring monthly payment to St. Joseph, or you can write one check each month and either drop it in the collection basket or send it to the parish office. If you have questions, please contact Monica at the parish office.
