On the closing of the liturgical calendar at the last Sunday of Ordinary Time, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Christ the King. In all our readings for this Sunday, Christ is portrayed as a Shepherd-King who cares for his constituents. Unlike many kings or national leaders on earth who appropriate upon themselves power and riches for their own interests and who lead people astray by their own political interests, the Shepherd-King serves His people. He has the best interests of His people in mind. He seeks not only those in need, but also those who are lost who think that it is by faith alone that one can inherit eternal joy. The Shepherd-King wants to give all His subjects the inheritance to His Kingdom. It is for this reason that Jesus, in today's parable, lays down in the most serious manner what we ought to do to inherit God's kingdom: To love God by loving our neighbor, most especially those who are least in the eyes of society. At the end of time, which is the day of reckoning, He will not ask us about our accomplishments, or how much money we have in the bank. He will ask us how much we have loved. Love is the characteristic of our Shepherd-King. It is for that reason that Jesus made it clear that it will not be by believing in Him alone that He will give us the inheritance to His Kingdom, but more importantly it is by how many corporal acts of mercy we do to those in need—the hungry, thirsty, naked, ill, or the strangers. “Whatever you did to one of these least brothers of mine, you did to me. Whatever you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me.”

Please mark these activities on your calendar. The 2nd of the Date Night Series which is designed for couples to enrich their relationships is on Friday, December 1st. This will be from 6:00 pm through 8:00 pm at the Fr. This will be at the Fr. Greg Ng Kimm Community Center from 10:00 am through 11:00 am. Parish's Christmas Concert is on Sunday, December 10th from 3:00 pm through 4:00 pm in the church. Ballroom Dancing Lessons is on Thursday, December 21st in the Parish Hall from 7:00 pm through 8:00 pm. Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

In May 2023, for the first time in almost three quarters of a century, a monarch was crowned in England. A few days later a friend of mine scoffed, “What a waste of time and energy! What is the point of a king?”

I’m a proud American who wants neither theocracy nor monarchical restoration. I like our democratic republic. But the coronation of King Charles reminded me of something needed in every person and community: confidence in the future. The king’s most basic role is to symbolize the unity of the nation. In England, the parliament members handle many of the practical duties of governance. But the king or queen can do what they cannot: embody in a single person the reality and future of a whole nation. To say, “this is our king” is to say, “we exist as a community, and we have a future.” Kingship isn’t primarily about the power of one person or family. It’s about the enduring identity and unity of the whole.

To say Christ is our King is to say we exist as a people. We are one in him. We are, and we will be as long as he is. And since he will be our risen king forever, together we have a future filled with hope. Even the best countries will finally fall. But Christ and his Church will endure forever. What good news! It’s not a waste of time to crown a king. We do it all the time. Let’s be sure to crown the right one — the one whose kingdom never ends.

— Father John Muir

Liturgical Life

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

The King Comes Holding a Mirror

Of all the many wonderful, thorough examinations of conscience I have come across, the one I normally utilize is very simple, and perfectly suited to someone like me who is not capable of profound thought at the end of the day.

It's just one very short question: Which Christs did I not recognize today?

The King always comes in disguise, and I know I miss him in so many ways every single day. I miss him in people ignored or dismissed. I miss him in opportunities avoided and in moments that could have turned into prayer but instead turned into phone-scrolling. I miss him when he is right in front of me, holding up a mirror and calling my name, begging for my conversion of heart.

The Christian life calls us to constant self-scrutiny. It's not a comfortable life, always thinking about what you could do better, but the Lord shepherds us rightly. His pastures have nothing to offer those who are perfect and strong.

He has gone in search of the lost. He has reclaimed those who have strayed, healed those who were injured, given rest to those who were weary.

We can't be followers of Christ if we are not willing to own our sins. God's mercy does not dismiss our sins, as if they never existed and were not important.

No, it does something far, far better — God's mercy absolves our sins. It sets us free from them. But to be truly free, you have to understand the tyranny of what once enslaved you.

"And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats."

— Matthew 25:32

Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Why are some saints honored as "patron saints"?

Answer:

Each person is unique and each of us has different gifts, interests, talents, and, yes, even struggles and areas where we need to grow. This is no less true of those holy women, men, and children who have been canonized or beatified.

Because we believe that the saints and blessed are both models of faith and intercessors, Christians have looked to certain holy people as role models and heavenly protectors for occupations, spiritual charisms, and even places. Although the Church sometimes names a person as a patron saint (e.g. Saint Philip Neri as the patron of Rome, Saint Clare of Assisi as the patroness of television, or Saint Aloysius Gonzaga as the patron of youth and young adults), more often it is popular devotion that inspires lay Christians to turn to a particular saint or blessed for heavenly help and support. This is how, for example, Saint Cecilia came to be honored as the patroness of musicians, Saint Toribio Romo as patron of migrants coming into the United States, and Saint Gertrude of Nivelles as patroness of cat lovers. Although there are official and unofficial lists of patron saints, we should always feel free to ask any and all the saints to give us their patronage and protection in whatever it is that we need.

“When did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?’ And the king will say to them in reply, ‘Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me.’”
- Mt 25:38-40

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading

Ezekiel offers a beautiful vision to the Israelites held captive in Babylon of God as a shepherd tending carefully to the sheep in his flock who are lost, injured, or sick. Who do you know needs to hear this message of hope?

Second Reading

Paul teaches the Corinthians how believers are destined to share in resurrected life with our Lord Jesus Christ. What do you imagine resurrected life with Christ will look like?

Gospel Reading

The final Gospel reading of the Liturgical Year focuses on Judgement Day. All will be measured by how we treated those on the margins of society. What could you do this week to help the poor or the stranger or those in prison?

We are in need of volunteers as financial advisers; in office work, marketing and communications, grounds keeping, minor electrical or maintenance repairs, hospitality and social events, lectors, extraordinary ministers of holy communion, ushers, greeters; and adult and youth altar servers. If you feel moved by the Holy Spirit to share your time and talent, please contact Fr. Michael Syjueco at michael.syjueco@dsj.org.

"Listen and place it in your heart, my dear little child. What is distressing you and making you anxious is nothing. May your face not be sad nor your heart disquieted. Also, do not fear any illness, trouble, anxiety, or pain. Am I not here, your Mother?"
