When I was in Human Resources, part of my responsibilities was recruiting engineers for a geothermal company. There were many intelligent fresh graduate engineers in the market. The problem was many, if not, all of them have no single experience in actual engineering work. In order not to lose these potential engineers to other oil companies, the company developed a cadet program to train and prepare these engineers for the work they would do. But, it was important for us that these candidates would have a high success rate in the training. And so, in recruiting fresh engineering graduates we looked into transferable skills that they could apply to their work. The cadet program would then use these transferable skills to train them to do actual engineering work in the company. It was a highly successful recruitment and training program. This is exactly what Jesus did in recruiting people who would spread the good news to the world and save souls. Jesus chose mostly fishermen to do the work, because as one biblical scholar said, fishermen have the skills and attitude that would make them successful as evangelizers. They have patience, they know how not to rush things. They are open to possibilities. They didn't become skilled fishermen overnight, they opened themselves to learn the skills of fishing and honed these. They are adaptable. They study the right places, the right weather, the right conditions to fish. Finally, they know how to rely on the providence of God as they fish. We all have our own set of skills and attitudes that make us successful in our profession. God is calling us ; he is calling you to use those skills and attitudes to help Christ's Church. Will you respond?

We did it again! For two consecutive years, our St. Joseph of Cupertino School has been voted as the best private school in Silicon Valley!! The survey was organized by the Mercury News to determine which private school in the Bay Area has the greatest number of residents who feel strongly about it. Our School came out as the winner this year, again! As a Parish, we should be proud that St. Joseph of Cupertino School is the educational gateway to a child's future. In the heart of Silicon Valley, our TK, K-8th grade Catholic school is focused on the care of the whole person. Our School goes beyond caring for the educational growth of our students and strives to foster their moral, emotional, and spiritual growth. Earning the top academic schools in the Diocese of San Jose is one example of reaching our academic goals. Our School indeed looks forward to a bright future, and every faculty, staff, student, and family is gearing up for it! Check out our website sjcschool.org. Tours are available every day! If you wish to meet our faculty and staff and get to know more about our School, come to the Open House on Tuesday, January 30. Spread the word, bring your friends, and celebrate our successes!

The disciples were fishing when Christ found them, hard at work to support their families, casting their nets into the sea. Sometimes when God calls us, we are in the middle of something else. Don't be afraid to change your plans to follow Him.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

We start telling lies around the age of three, the experts tell us. It's understandable. Lying is a god-like power. Whatever I want, I need only say it, and the world rearranges itself accordingly. It's amazing at first. But soon reality snaps back and I'm faced with a dilemma. If I remain committed to my lie I start to fracture into pieces. My words and reality drift apart, and I find myself lost in a lonely world of further falsehoods and fear of being found out.

How marvelous, then, that Jesus begins his ministry by proclaiming: "Repent!" We tend to think it means "stop doing bad things" but it doesn't. It literally means "go beyond the mind you have." Think in a new way. It's painful to admit, but some portion of my mind is addicted to lie-telling, usually to protect my ego or make life easier. To repent means to admit this tendency, to say, "I'm done lying," and to move beyond my split mind into a complete commitment to the truth. Perhaps that's why at Mass we together proclaim, "I have sinned in my thoughts, and in my words..." Repentance and truth-telling work together.

Those who know the twelve-step process of addiction recovery know this process well. The fourth step requires radical truth-telling: listing our moral defects. This isn't being scrupulous. Rather it is freedom from falsehood, and entrance into the real world. This week, I invite you to join me in this practice. Get your phone or piece of paper. Answer the question: what are your true moral defects? Write them down. Remember, the Lord knows them already and loves you. We have a sacrament where this truth-telling is celebrated: Confession. Perhaps it is finally time to go beyond our childish lies.

— Father John Muir

Liturgical Life

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

A Good Time for Fulfillment

There are some things that always come at the worst time. I've never gotten a telemarketing call and thought, "This is a really convenient moment for me to listen to a sales pitch." I've never seen the compulsory software update notice flash on my computer screen when I didn't have a deadline I was struggling to meet. My kids never come down with the flu unless it's the weekend and the line at Urgent Care is stretching out the door.

And I never, ever feel the calm, persistent shoulder-tap of the Holy Spirit without thinking, "Now? Now is not a good time. Can you try again when I'm..."

But then I stop and think: when I am what? When I am stronger? When I am happier? When I am smarter? When I am a different person?

When God calls us, He calls the person He sees in front of Him. "Come on," He says, and He doesn't mean "When you're finished" or "When it's convenient" or "Think about it." He means now. This moment.

This is what Paul is saying when he writes that "the world in its present form is passing away." He is saying that your plans mean nothing, the kingdom of God is at hand. Abandon your nets, let your catch escape into the sea. You're not who you thought you were, and you don't need what you thought you needed.

Your sins do not define you. Your fears are not fate. Your inclinations do not govern you. Your life can be changed. We live in the time of fulfillment, and fulfillment is coming for you — ready or not.

"Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: 'This is the time of fulfillment.'" — Mark 1:14

Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Can a person (the mother, father, or provider) ever be forgiven for an abortion?

Answer:

For people of faith, any conversation of human sinfulness should always lead us to reflect on God's loving mercy. Because God's mercy is greater than any sin, the Church is clear that even those involved in the sin of abortion can be reconciled with God and the Church. To help make this grace more available through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Pope Francis extended the permission to absolve someone of the sin of abortion to all priests in 2016.

Even with the grace and blessings of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, the tragedy of abortion and the aftermath of abortion takes a toll on everyone involved. Ministries of outreach and support, such as Project Rachel, offer pastoral counseling, support groups, retreats, and other forms of care. As Christians, we are also called to help promote this healing and reconciliation in all its forms.

The people of Nineveh (the capital city of the Assyrian Empire and historic enemy of Israel) repented of their sins when they heard Jonah's warning of God's impending destruction of their city. What motivates you to repent?

Second Reading

Paul encouraged the believers in Corinth to live with a sense of urgency and in a radically different way than before coming to faith in Jesus. In what way are you living counter-culturally as a person of faith?

JOIN THE SERRA CLUB

MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Serra Club is an international organization, founded in 1935. There are 1,100 Serra Club Chapters chartered in 46 countries around the world. The Santa Clara Chapter was formed in 1968. The main objective of Serra Club is to foster and support vocations to Priesthood, Religious and consecrated life and the Diaconate. Serra members follow in the footsteps of St. Junipero Serra, whose motto was "Always forward, never back."

We pray for the increase and perseverance of vocations to the Priesthood and the Religious Life, support diocesan men's and women's discernment retreats, host receptions for the ordinations of new priests and deacons, support vocation programs for 8th-graders in our Catholic schools.

We are looking to increase our members. For more information about the Serra Club, please contact Our President, Jack Oneto at 408379-8379 or Lavita at lavita.ferns@yahoo.com. We invite you to join us at the next Serra Club meeting on January 12, 2024, at 12:00 pm at Bill of Fare, 1069 Saratoga Ave. San Jose, CA 95129. You will also meet our guest speaker Fr. Eric Piczon, Vocation Director. Please RSVP at email: johnoneto@earthlink.net
