Why would Jesus, who is known to have a gentle heart, use a whip to drive the money-changers out of the temple? What is it that caught the ire of Jesus? To be sure it wasn't the business transactions going on where people needed to exchange coins to buy animals that they could use to make offerings. Rather, it was where these people were doing business. It was in the outer court of the temple which was supposed to be set apart for the God-fearers who were not Jews to worship and venerate God. How can these people pray amid oxen, sheep, or goats bleating? These people were being robbed of their sacred space to worship! What can this mean for us? Our hearts are set apart for God. It is a place where the Holy Spirit dwells so we can encounter God. We cannot venerate God in our hearts when it is full of noise like what we hear in a marketplace. If there is a lot of stuff going on in our hearts robbing us to hear God speak to us, then like the moneychangers, we are desecrating what God has set apart as His sacred place. How can we spend hearing God in our hearts when many times we spend our time on Sundays, the day that God set apart for Him, doing all sorts of activities but rest and meditate scriptures, or reading spiritually inspiring books? Our hearts have been occupied already with noise from Monday to Saturday. We ought to give at least one day, Sunday, as a day set apart for God so we can quiet down, and He can meet us and speak to us. As you prepare to meet Christ in the Eucharist in His true Body and Blood, you do well to reflect, what are the marketplace-like noises in your hearts that are robbing you of the opportunity to rest in God and hear Him? Allow God to whip these out of your heart so that He can again sanctify your heart as a sacred space for Him.

Incidentally, we have a Lenten reconciliation on Friday, March 8, 2024 in the church from 7:00 pm—8:00 pm. Take this time to reconcile with God and ask Him to take out all the noises in your heart.

We have reached about 83% of our goal for the ADA 2024. We're almost there! Any amount that we collect that is over our goal will return to the parish as a rebate. I want to thank all those who have already participated. If you have not yet given your share, please prayerfully make an offering of gratitude for the many blessings that God has given you and help not only our Diocese but also our Parish. Any amount will make a difference! Make an online donation by scanning the QR code, by mail, or drop your ADA envelope into the collection basket.

The Holy Name Society of St. Joseph of Cupertino will again host a Crab Feed near St. Patrick's Day. This year is on March 15. Tickets will be sold before and after Mass for the next two weekends at the Saturday, 5pm Mass and the two Sunday morning masses.

The free ballroom dancing classes will resume in April.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Jesus was not afraid to confront iniquity wherever he encountered it, and his zeal for righteousness was so strong it looked like anger as he drove the moneychangers from the temple. Pray that, with that same devotion and care, he will cleanse our hearts from sin.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I am the Lord your God ... You shall not have other gods beside me.
—Ex 20:2-3

One of the greatest golfers of all time — if not the greatest — was Jack Nicklaus. Which is why it is baffling that at the beginning of each season he would return to his childhood coach and re-learn how to grip the golf club. It's like Shakespeare re-learning the alphabet and grammar. Why would he do that? Because Jack knew that the fundamentals are always relevant. Perfecting and obsessing over his grip allowed him to do everything else in the game well. In sports and life, the best ones love the basics.

Similarly, as we begin Lent, we re-learn the spiritual basics in the Ten Commandments. Consider the first, to “have no other gods besides me.” This is our “grip.” Is our connection to God one of absolute fidelity and exclusive worship? Am I willing to let go of my precious idols, the things I cling to instead of God? Once we say “yes” to this fundamental question of our spiritual “grip,” then we are ready to properly engage with everything else in life. Watch how beautifully the game of life unfolds in the next nine commandments (numbered in parentheses): how we speak to God and others (2 and 8), how we organize our week (3), how we relate to our family (4) and the wider community (5 and 7), how we live our sexuality (6), and how we order all the other desires of the human heart (9 and 10). But don't rush to these later Commandments too soon! Everything in life is built on the first Commandment. The more we focus on worshipping God alone, the better we navigate the complexity of life with panache, effectiveness, and love.

Lenten challenge: This week, identify what you can do to better worship God alone. If you're not sure, scan the last nine commandments to identify what you are most likely to worship instead of God. Power, pleasure, control of your time, possessions, family, health, reputation, money? Commit to concrete action to help you let go of this “idol” to better hold on to God alone in faithful worship. Remember: the best love the basics.

— Father John Muir

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

The Merciful Anger of Jesus

Watch your fellow churchgoers today as the priest or deacon reads the story of Jesus raising hell (or perhaps he's raising heaven?) in the temple square. Dollars to donuts, they'll be squirming.

As Catholics, we have become very uncomfortable with Angry Jesus. He makes us cringe in the same way that the Old Testament God does when He calls Himself "jealous" and talks about punishment. That level of intensity makes us recoil. If it were present in a human relationship, it would be toxic and abusive, because in humanity, fierceness and love rarely coexist in a healthy way.

But what a tragedy it would be for us to mistake our relationship with God for our relationship with our spouse, our best friend, or even our human father. Because we cannot see clearly, we would mistake His zeal for anger and His law for diktat.

The strong and sure movement of a wave against a rocky cliff will, over time, erode its surface, just as an overabundance of raindrops will flood a city. We do not call the water callous and cruel. We still luxuriate in its coolness and refreshment. Its destructive powers don't negate the life-giving properties of water. We do not demand that water apologize to us for being strong.

Fierce, uncompromising — but also, soft and merciful. How can God — and God's law — be both, at the same time? How can Christ cast a whip at someone's foot, overturn a table and scatter coins? How can the law of God be perfect, as the Psalm says, and refresh the soul — while demanding so much of it?

All I can say is, thank God for Angry Jesus. We need his fierceness and thank God it does not wane because it confuses us. Thank God his mercy does not decrease because we doubt it.

"For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength." — 1 Corinthians 1:25

- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Is it ever Ok to leave Mass before it ends?

Answer:

This is an interesting question because beneath the surface there seems to be an assumption that if it's okay, then why do we have to stay after we receive communion? The short answer is "no," but we definitely want to go a bit deeper as we consider why.

First, when we think about questions like this, we must consider this in adult terms. If there is something gravely important that we need to do, then we must attend to that. However, if it is a matter of convenience or preference, then we really have to stop and think again. First, while we always want to recognize the importance of sacramental communion in the Mass, we also need to understand how important the time of thanksgiving and prayer after communion is. This is summarized in the Prayer After Communion offered by the celebrant and then we are also commissioned to "Go forth" during the Dismissal of the Mass, reminding us that we have been entrusted with a gift — the Word of God and the Presence of Christ in the sacrament — and that we are to share that gift with others.

If we simply leave after we receive communion, we risk two things. First, there is the possibility that we will turn our reception of communion into a purely personal, individual experience that is separated from our common experience of worship — and communion in the fullest sense — and, second, we lose an opportunity for gratitude and serious reflection if we simply leave after communion. This time of thanksgiving, reflection, and, ultimately, missioning, are important and, in the end, an essential part of the celebration of the Mass.

And to those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me.

- Jn 2:16-17

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading

The "10 Commandments" given to Moses at Mount Sinai reveal God's moral and ethical expectations for Israel. Which of these Commandments do you personally find most challenging to follow?

Second Reading

Early in his letter to the Corinthians, Paul speaks of his firm conviction in the power and wisdom of his proclamation, "Christ crucified." What are you confident about in your faith life?

Gospel Reading

Jesus' deep passion ("zeal") for the Jerusalem Temple led to his strong (and violent) reaction to what he witnessed in the Temple. What is something you feel passionate about as it relates to your faith?

We need volunteers as financial advisers; social events planner; for hospitality; basic maintenance and electrical repairs; grounds upkeep; lectors, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion; ushers/greeters; youth and adult altar servers. If you're interested, please contact Fr. Michael Syjueco at michael.syjueco@dsj.org.

Your words are everlasting life.

Psalm 19

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area.
- Jn 2:13b-15a
