HAVE A MERRY AND BLESSED CHRISTMAS

PLEASE COMPLETE YOUR PARISH SURVEY

I have recently written and spoken about your opportunity to complete our parish survey, known as the Disciple Maker Index. The survey is now available and I invite you to PLEASE take the survey. You can do so:

- By scanning the QR code just below or typing this link into your browser: bit.ly/margaretdmi
- By going to the St. Margaret website, www.stmargaretcolumbus.org, and clicking the link to the survey which is near the top of our homepage
- You can find the link to the survey at the St. Margaret of Cortona Facebook page or in your most recent Flocknote.
- Finally, you can scan the QR code which will be posted at each entrance to the Church and will also be posted in the office and at Kulp Hall and in the Borelli Center. This will open the link to the survey on your phone. Just click the link and complete the survey.

The survey will be open until January 6, 2026.

We will also have a few paper versions available for those who do not have internet access. You can get a paper version if you come to the office or if you ask Fr. Jeff after Mass while you are at church. Simply return the paper version to the box in the front vestibule of the church that is designated for survey responses. I am hoping that EVERY parishioner, 12 years of age and older (yes, we very much want to hear from our younger parishioners), will fill out the survey for themselves individually (each member of your family should complete a survey. Do not give a family response). Completing the survey will take only 10-15 minutes and is totally anonymous.

The results will be helpful to me as your pastor and to our staff and volunteers as we seek to support you on your journey of missionary discipleship.

Please go to the link about and fill out the survey today! I thank you in advance.

Sincerely in Christ, Fr. Jeff

ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST

Saint of the Day: December 27, Patron Saint of Turkey

It is God who calls; human beings answer. The vocation of John and his brother James is stated very simply in the Gospels, along with that of Peter and his brother Andrew: Jesus called them; they followed. The absoluteness of their response is indicated by the account. James and John "were in a boat, with their father Zebedee, mending their nets. He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him" (Matthew 4:21b-22).

For the three former fishermen – Peter, James and John – that faith was to be rewarded by a special friendship with Jesus. They alone were privileged to be present at the Transfiguration, the raising of the daughter of Jairus and the agony in Gethsemane. But John's friendship was even more special. Tradition assigns to him the Fourth Gospel, although most modern Scripture scholars think it unlikely that the apostle and the evangelist are the same person.

John's own Gospel refers to him as "the disciple whom Jesus loved" (see John 13:23; 19:26; 20:2), the one who reclined next to Jesus at the Last Supper, and the one to whom Jesus gave the exquisite honor of caring for his mother, as John stood beneath the cross. "Woman, behold your son.... Behold, your mother" (John 19:26b, 27b).
