What the Catechism says about Purgatory

1030 All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven.

1031 The Church gives the name Purgatory to this final purification of the elect, which is entirely different from the punishment of the damned. The Church formulated her doctrine of faith on Purgatory especially at the Councils of Florence and Trent. The tradition of the Church, by reference to certain texts of Scripture, speaks of a cleansing fire.

As for certain lesser faults, we must believe that, before the Final Judgment, there is a purifying fire. He who is truth says that whoever utters blasphemy against the Holy Spirit will be pardoned neither in this age nor in the age to come. From this sentence we understand that certain offenses can be forgiven in this age, but certain others in the age to come.

1030 Los que mueren en la gracia y en la amistad de Dios, pero imperfectamente purificados, aunque están seguros de su eterna salvación, sufren después de su muerte una purificación, a fin de obtener la santidad necesaria para entrar en la alegría del cielo.

1031 La Iglesia llama purgatorio a esta purificación final de los elegidos que es completamente distinta del castigo de los condenados. La Iglesia ha formulado la doctrina de la fe relativa al purgatorio sobre todo en los Concilios de Florencia y de Trento. La tradición de la Iglesia, haciendo referencia a ciertos textos de la Escritura habla de un fuego purificador:

Respecto a ciertas faltas ligeras, es necesario creer que, antes del juicio, existe un fuego purificador, según lo que afirma Aquel que es la Verdad, al decir que si alguno ha pronunciado una blasfemia contra el Espíritu Santo, esto no le será perdonado ni en este siglo, ni en el futuro. En esta frase podemos entender que algunas faltas pueden ser perdonadas en este siglo, pero otras en el siglo futuro.

The Reinstatement of the Distribution of the Precious Blood to the Faithful

Archbishop of San Antonio

DECREE

The Reinstatement of the Distribution of the Precious Blood to the Faithful

October 25, 2022

My beloved Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In this time of Eucharistic Renewal, we are reminded in many ways that the Eucharist is the source and summit of our faith.

When the Sunday Mass Obligation was reinstated in this Archdiocese on May 23, 2021, Holy Communion was to be administered and received only in the hand and not on the tongue. On May 20, 2021, Bishop Mike Boulette sent a letter stating that Holy Communion on the tongue was once again permitted. However, the Chalice was still not be shared with the assembly, out of an abundance of caution.

After prayerful discernment, and in consultation regarding the reception of the Precious Blood, I decree that, effective November 27, 2022, on the First Sunday of Advent, all parishes will once again offer Holy Communion under both species. The Precious Blood of Christ is to be administered to the faithful at Sunday Masses (and the Vigil) and, weekday Masses, if that has been the practice in the past.

The theology of the Catholic Church is clear – Christ is fully present in each one of the species whether we receive one or both. While some will still be concerned about the transmission of germs during the reception of the Precious Blood, you are reminded that you may choose to receive Holy Communion under a single species, the Body or the Blood of Christ. At the same time, there is a spiritual benefit in receiving under both species. "So that the fullness of the sign may be made more clearly evident to the faithful in the course of the Eucharistic banquet, lay members of Christ's faithful, too, are admitted to Communion under both kinds, in the cases set forth in the liturgical books…" (Redemptionis Sacramentum, 100)

A parish may offer Communion under both species when a sufficient number of Extraordinary Ministers have been invited, approved by their pastor, received formation and have been commissioned to serve. This will ensure that the Eucharist may be administered to the faithful with dignity, reverence, and grace. In preparation for this return to Holy Communion under both species, parishes will receive revised Guidelines for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, along with pastoral suggestions for pulpit announcements and for formation of the faithful in the proper manner of receiving Holy Communion under both species.

I pray that this time of the Eucharistic Renewal will bring each one of you to a deeper encounter with our Eucharistic Lord.

Most Reverend Gustavo García-Siller, MSpS
Archbishop of San Antonio
