Reflection on the Readings of 19th Sunday in ordinary time year A

On this nineteenth Sunday of ordinary time, the Church joyfully reminds us that Jesus our Savior is always close to us. He calms the storms of our life. He lifts us from the depths and restores our peace. The presence of the storm, and all that it represents, makes us confused, and afraid in life. Thus, it equally deprives us of our peace. There is something interesting about today's readings. This is simply the fact that all the three great figures and personalities (Elijah, Paul, and Peter) we encountered in today's readings were in one way or the other embattled. As such, their peace was threatened. First, Elijah was fearful, and ran away from Ahab and his wicked wife Jezebel, who wanted him dead at all costs. Second, Paul was ravaged by sorrow and anguish due to the unbelief of his "fellow brothers of Israel." This was a great burden that threatened his peace of mind. Third, Peter was sinking right in front of Jesus, due to fear, his lack of faith and courage. This is the dilemma of our lives. In one way or the other, our peace is threatened.

In the first reading, the embattled prophet Elijah encountered God, and his peace was restored. A very significant lesson for us in this reading is that, when we are internally calm and away from the distractions of life, we hear God speak to us. To say that God spoke to Elijah after the gentle breeze, is simply to say that Elijah experienced peace of mind. God came at the appropriate time, not in the mighty wind, not in the earthquake, not in the fire, but after a gentle breeze. So, contrary to what some of us think, God speaks to us when we are internally recollected and calm. Often, we seek God with distracted minds. In such a state, we may not encounter Him. It is when we are recollected, that we hear him speak to us.

In the second reading, Paul expresses his grief for his people (fellow Jews). This was because they rejected the good news. His sadness and grief were so great that he lamented: "I will willingly be condemned, if it could help my brothers." In other words, he was not at peace because of their situation. Therefore, Paul teaches us that we must not always think about ourselves alone. Rather, we should equally be concerned about the welfare, salvation, and peace of others. It is through this that we derive our own inner peace. When others are saved, our peace is guaranteed.

In today's gospel, the disciples of Jesus experienced the storm of their life, and Jesus was available to calm it, and equally, restore their peace. "Storms" are part and parcel of our human existence. They are inevitable in this world, just as the waves are inevitable in the sea, and death is inevitable to us. Sometimes, they hit us so hard that we are crushed, devastated, and almost annihilated. Like the disciples of Jesus, each one of us experiences the storm in diverse ways in our lives. That is, the storm that robs us of our peace. However, when they encounter

Christ, our peace is restored, and they disappear.

Finally, as Christ said to Peter, so he also says to us today: "Courage! Do not be afraid, it is I." So, all we need to do is to trust Him, and keep walking without the fear of sinking. Like Peter, we must step out with faith and courage against the storms of our life. Therefore, let us hold on firmly to Jesus, who calms our storms and restores our peace.

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Then the LORD said to him,
"Go outside and stand on the mountain before the LORD; the LORD will be passing by." (1 Kgs 19:11)

Psalm:

Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation. (Ps 85)

Second Reading:

My conscience joins with the Holy Spirit in bearing me witness that I have great sorrow and constant anguish in my heart.
For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ
for the sake of my own people. (Rom 9:1-3)

Gospel:

Peter said to him in reply,
"Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water."
He said, "Come."
Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. (Mt 14:28-29)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Christ is always coming to us in ways that we do not expect. Ways that shock us. Ways that frighten us. Ways that seem impossible. Are we ready to accept him however he comes, amidst whatever fear and doubt we are battling with in our hearts?

Observances for the week of August 13, 2023

Sunday: 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Monday: St. Maximillian Kolbe, Priest and Martyr
Tuesday: The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Wednesday: St. Stephen of Hungary
Saturday: St. John Eudes, Priest
Next Sunday: 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Saint of the week

Blessed Fr. Michael Joseph McGivney was a diocesan priest from Connecticut born to an Irish immigrant family. Together with men from his church, St. Mary's in New Haven, he founded what is now the world's largest Catholic fraternal service organization — the Knights of Columbus.

Prayer

Founder of the Knights of Columbus
God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan,
You called Your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor.
Through the example of his life and virtue,
may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ,
more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of Your servant prompt us to greater confidence in Your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of Your holy will.
Through his intercession, grant the favor
I now present. Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

This has been a brutal summer for our neighbors who are without housing.

St. Vincent de Paul is asking for your donations to provide bottled water to our homeless.

On the weekend of August 19th & 20th, SVdP will be collecting donations to provide bottles of water to our homeless. Please use the envelopes featuring water bottles on them, located in the church pews. Donations can be placed in the SVdP blue buckets or sent to the address on the envelope. Thank you so much for your continued generosity. God Bless your good works and God Bless You!!

Thank You!

Your overwhelming response to our School Supply Drive for St. Peter Indian Mission School reflects the wonderful spirit of giving and the generous hearts of our parish family.

Your donations provide the opportunity for each student to have the necessary items for the new school year.

St. Peter's is a humble school filled with the Holy Spirit and the love and dedication of the Franciscan Sisters of Christian Charity who provide not only the academic education for their students, but their mission is to 'Educate the Whole Child; Mind and Spirit'.

They begin that work the Three R's - Respect, Reverence and Responsibility.

Again, we thank you for your generosity and it goes without saying, the Sisters were overjoyed!
