PALM SUNDAY

As he rode along, the people were spreading their cloaks on the road; the whole multitude of his disciples began to praise God aloud with joy for all the mighty deeds they had seen. - Lk 19:36, 37b

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

MISSION STATEMENT

"We, the community of St. Gregory Barbarigo, are called forth in Baptism to follow the mission of Jesus to teach, to love, and to serve."

The Incarnation, when the second Person of the Trinity became man, has one of its goals to inaugurate a new creation. What Christ began is continued in the sacraments from which the Holy Spirit penetrates deeper into creation through sacramentals, blessings, and other devotions. I wrote about this in the last letter, but there are a couple of things I would like to talk about in more detail: relics and Rosaries.

Relics are objects which are part of the body of a saint, or some item the saint wore or touched or used, or was touched to a relic from a saint. Nowadays we have pictures of our deceased loved ones, but that has only been so for less than 200 years. The practice of venerating relics seems to some people to be superstitious, but in fact it has a basis in scripture. Two places in particular come to mind. The first recounts how a dead man is put into Elisha's tomb. When his body touches the bones of Elisha, the man comes back to life. For the details, read 2 Kings 13:21. Another incident is recorded in Acts 19:12, where handkerchiefs and aprons which had touched St. Paul were used to heal people of diseases. In both cases, it was a physical object connected to a holy person which was used to work miracles. Saints are holy men and women, and items connected to them can and do lead to miracles. The Church considers these items to be blessed in a special way by contact with a saint. I have a relic of Blessed Fr. Stanley Rother, given to me for my work on his Cause for Canonization when he was beatified. I also have a relic of St. Albert the Great, my patron saint. St. Gregory's parish has relics from several saints on display for devotional purposes over on the wall by the baptismal font. We will bring out our relic of the Holy Cross for veneration on Good Friday when we venerate the cross that day.

Rosaries have a history of bringing about miracles for those who pray the Rosary. Sometimes when on a pilgrimage, the metal connecting the beads may turn to gold – I know people to whom this has happened. Mary is a powerful intercessor with Jesus on account of her relationship to Jesus. This is a natural and well understood connection – mothers and sons are close to one another. More often one becomes holy praying the Rosary by meditating on the 20 mysteries (Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious, Luminous), most of which refer to the life of Jesus. Meditating on these key moments of His life can lead one to appreciate what God did in sending Jesus to redeem us: the Incarnation, life, passion, death, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus cover the gamut of his work here on earth. You don't need a prayer book, just know a few prayers (Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be, Apostles Creed, and Memorare) and the mysteries, and it can be said anywhere. Those who have a devotion to Mary say that she always leads those devoted to her to her Son, Jesus Christ.

Critics of those devoted to relics and Mary say that they are superstitious practices and appear to worship the relics, images, or statues. It is incumbent upon us to be sure to express our devotion to the saints and Mary in such a way as to acknowledge that we honor them, but worship God and God alone, and that our devotion to the saints and Mary enhances our worship. These devotional practices make Catholicism rich and varied, with many different ways of coming into a profound relationship with our Lord. And the devotions help to bring people to the Liturgy where we are all united into the one Body of Christ. May we learn to appreciate the many and varied ways to enter into the Life of the Trinity through Christ Jesus as members of His Church. May our devotional life prepare us to truly celebrate the Resurrection next week!

Peace, Father Albert, O.S.B.

Blessing for the Child in the Womb

The weekend of Mother's Day, May 7th—8th, Father Albert will be offering the Blessing for the Child in the Womb at Mass. We love babies! If you are expecting, please give our parish the opportunity to pray for your family. Email chriskuhlsg@gmail.com or call the office by April 29th if you would like to receive a blessing, so we know how many roses to order. If you would prefer a private blessing, that can be arranged as well.

SHARING GOD'S LOVE

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. -John 3:16

As we enter Holy Week, we remember how our Lord suffered and died so that each and every one of us might be saved from sin and have eternal life. Reflect on God's infinite love for you. How have you responded to that love this Lent, and how can you share it with others? Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more.

Donna Pope's knitting group is in need of yarn. If you have some that you would like to donate, please put it in the tote in the gathering space. Thank you!

St. Gregory's is going to offer Financial Peace University. This is a nine week program created by Ramsey Solutions. If you are interested in taking this class or would like more information please email chriskuhlsg@gmail.com or call the office.

Come to the Picnic on June 26th!

Each year the entire parish is invited to share a time of fellowship, great food and fun at the picnic. It is one way our parish says thank you to our parishioners for supporting us with their time, talent, and treasure. Many hands work hard to prepare the food and the environment for our celebration. Thank them by showing up and enjoying this time as part of our parish family.

Thank you to everyone who participated in the listening session on March 27!

During the session we prayed for guidance from the Holy Spirit and introduced the Ten Themes. Participants were then asked to vote for the three they felt were the highest priorities for the Catholic church. The themes selected were:

1. Sharing responsibility for our common mission
2. Dialogue in church and society
3. Authority and participation

Next we had a lively discussion about each of the themes. All of the information was recorded and will be submitted to the diocese. Our results will be combined with the rest of the parishes in our diocese and summarized in a 10 page report. This report will be submitted to the next level and eventually will go to the Vatican for discernment. It will be interesting to see what themes are chosen at each level going forward.

Special thanks go out Randy Holtman for being our Host, Sheila Smail for her excellent note taking, and to Roger Laughlin and Susie Holtman and everyone else who helped facilitate the session!

In the discussion a parishioner mentioned receiving a daily email to pray along with the Pope as a way of staying connected. If you would like to subscribe visit <https://missio.lpages.co/advice-from-pope-francis-every-day/>

My personal hope is that "Sharing responsibility for our common mission" is made the top priority of the worldwide church. I believe we all need to strive to be the best version of ourselves in order for the Catholic church to reach its full potential.

Thank you for sharing your gifts. - Chris Kuhlemeyer

CGS LEVEL 1—SUMMER TRAINING

Registration is open, sign up now on our website! Spots are limited.

You're invited to join us for our Catechesis of the Good Shepherd summer training! There is no obligation to teach or assist in our St. Gregory's atrium by attending the training— all are welcome. The course normally costs $600 but St. Gregory's parishioners receive half off ($300) and those willing to teach/assist in the atrium can attend the training for free! The dates for the training are below, you will need to attend all three weekends to complete the course.

June 24-27 (Friday-Monday)

August 3-7 (Wednesday-Sunday)

November 11-14 (Friday- Monday)

If you have any questions, please email Megan Johansen at johansenmegansg@gmail.com.

Reflection on Psalm 23

In the atrium, especially in level 1, the children encounter the Good Shepherd and pay special attention to Psalm 23. Please enjoy the reflection prompt below— use it to pray together as a family!

Psalm 23: 5-6

“You set a table before me as my enemies watch; You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Only goodness and love will pursue me all the days of my life, I will dwell in the house of the LORD for years to come.”

“Goodness” alludes to the preferential love of God. Goodness is like grace, the absolutely gratuitous love of God; it is without cause, it is given in abundance.

(Ways to Nurture the Relationship with God by Sofia Cavalletti, p 40)

NO CGS/EPIC/Little Saints Wednesday, April 13th!

No Wednesday night religious education due to Holy Week and SGB Night at the Museum. We'll pick back up at our usual time the Wednesday after Easter!
