MISSION STATEMENT

"We, the community of St. Gregory Barbarigo, are called forth in Baptism to follow the mission of Jesus to teach, to love, and to serve."

I was gone for the end of our fiscal year, and upon returning found that our deficit in was reduced from almost $50k to $18k by the end of the fiscal year. Thank you for your generosity! I am working on some ideas for boosting revenue, and am open to suggestions as our expenses continue to rise, as are yours, with inflation.

Please, please get your pictures into the Parish Pictorial Directory! When we have new parishioners, when I was a new pastor here, when we have a new staff person, these pictures are invaluable. Russ Schuster has done a great job organizing the effort, and we are about done taking pictures, so please take advantage of this opportunity.

Things are getting busy here as the school year approaches. It will be good to have the energy and activity the children bring with them. Forming our children to be excellent students, citizens, and most of all Christians holds a high priority. May the Lord bless us, our staff, and our children this school year!

The picture you see is my office door. I stepped out for an hour and when I returned, the door was covered by notes from the children in our Vacation Bible School. It is just one of the many perks of my job – children often do something endearing like this, expressing appreciation for my being their priest or pastor here. You can see why it is so easy to say, “It is a joy to be your pastor.”

Father Albert, O.S.B.

Library Weekly: Each week, one item from the library will be highlighted.

The Power of a Praying Parent by Stormie Omartian, 248.322 Oma

This is one I will continue to go back through! The prayers were so good! They kind of help set the pace if you need help getting started with praying for your children- but what I loved was that the scriptures are included. I have always prayed scriptures over my kids and some of the ones used in this book I hadn't thought to before. I will definitely keep this close by as a reference at times, it has just about every circumstance you can think of, from how they obey parents, love God, eat, friendships, to praying through their rooms. Excellent book and very easy to read through! Definitely recommend! (Review from Good Reads.)

We now have a small collection of DVDs and audio CDs as well as 1100 books. Search the library online at <https://www.librarycat.org/lib/stgregory>
