Congratulations to the First Communion Class of 2023!

MISSION STATEMENT

"We, the community of St. Gregory Barbarigo, are called forth in Baptism to follow the mission of Jesus to teach, to love, and to serve."

Last Sunday we had a beautiful celebration for our First Communion class. I want to thank Megan Johansen, Michele Starke and those who assisted her in the atrium, Kelly Bostwick, Abby Dropinski and the choir, the 1st Grade parents who did the meal on Saturday, and all who made this a special celebration. Lots of work and lots of hands were involved in making this a memorable event. THANK YOU!

As I said in last week's Bulletin Letter, we are going to concentrate on Christ the Good Shepherd in this Sunday. In doing so, there are a couple of things in the first reading I would like to comment about, but won't have the time or the opportunity to from the pulpit. So I will do it here. The first reading from Acts (2:14a, 36-41) is the second part of St. Peter's first sermon – the first part was last week. The result of the sermon was impressive – 3,000 people were baptized! That is definitely a sign of the Holy Spirit anointing the hearers and the preacher. I wonder what we would do if 3,000 people showed up at our doors to be baptized...

What do I want to point out? This passage from Acts gives part of the answer to the question, "Why do Catholics baptize infants?" After all, infants can't make a choice, which means that they can't choose to accept Jesus as their Lord and Savior, so why should they be baptized? But here in this passage it says "repent and be baptized, every one of you." This along with Acts 13 and 16, where whole households are baptized (parents, grandparents, children, servants, servants' children, etc.), indicates that infant baptism was practiced by the apostles. It does not say "except those who have not yet reached the age of reason." The Father would convert, and the whole household would follow suit. Every one. Baptism is for "every one of you." Can it be that Baptism is for Gentiles, but not babies? Baptism has the power to forgive (wash away) sin just as water has the power to wash away dirt. That is what we call a sacrament when it does spiritually what it signifies physically. But in addition, Baptism is the sign of the New Covenant. The sign of the Old Covenant with Abraham was circumcision. Male babies were circumcised shortly after birth as infants. They did not have to wait until they reached the age of reason to make a choice for themselves. Could the New Covenant be any less inclusive than the Old Covenant? The New Covenant is more effective and more inclusive. It allows us to cross the chasm that the sin of Adam and Eve created between God and us, and enter into the New Creation set up for us by Christ's death, Resurrection, and Ascension.

Let us continue to thank and praise the Lord in this time of Easter for the salvation He brought us through His Resurrection. The Risen Lord is still with us, especially in the Eucharist.

It is a joy to be your pastor.

Diocesan Strategy Planning Sessions – 2023

On Tuesday, April 18th, there was a parish meeting, for all parishioners, to update St. Gregory Barbarigo parishioners about the status of the Kansas City-St. Joseph Diocese's long-term vision. Information covered, pertained to Deanery 10, which we are a part of. The content covered was mainly about the demographics of our Deanery. It also gave those that attended, an opportunity to respond to five separate categories in a survey. The categories were: Parish Organization, Worship and Evangelization, Faith Formation and Catholic Schools, Outreach to Those in Need, and Community Building and Communications.

Since then, a draft plan has been put together and will be reviewed in a 2nd parish meeting.

On Tuesday evening, May 9th at 7 pm in the parish hall, the initial draft will be presented, and parishioners will have an opportunity to comment on the draft plan. Russ Schuster and Sheila Smail will host the meeting. Please join us.

Please call the parish office to let Devin know how many in your household are coming so that we know how many parishioners will be attending. Phone No.: 660-582-3833

The final plan will be completed by the end of June. Watch future bulletins for details.

Blessing for the Child in the Womb

The weekend of Mother's day, May 13-14, Father Albert will be offering the Blessing for the Child in the Womb at Mass. We love babies! If you are expecting, please give our parish the opportunity to pray for your family. Email chriskuhls@gmail.com or call the office by May 5th if you would like to receive a blessing, so we know how many roses to order. If you would prefer a private blessing, that can be arranged as well.

Rosary on Tuesdays at 1:30 pm May 2nd, 9th, and 15th

Our small faith groups are finishing the Fearless study soon. One big takeaway from this study is to combat fear with prayer. In order to put this into action, I invite everyone to join me in the parish hall on the first three Tuesdays in May to pray the Rosary. First we will give everyone the opportunity to share their intentions, then we will pray for healing for all who are suffering, and for the intentions of everyone gathered.

Whether you have prayer requests to share, or just want to pray for others, please join us if you can.

Thank you for sharing your gifts. —Chris Kuhlemeyer

Mystic Minutes - "My Daughter [or Son], Help Me Save Souls"—by Jacob Struempfh

February 3, 1938: There was a man who was despairing of God's mercy and about to go to hell forever. The Lord said to a humble nun, St. Faustina, "My daughter, help Me save souls." He transported her soul into a cottage where an elderly man was dying and tormented by demons, which were throwing his sins in order to prevent him from turning to God and be saved. But, not so fast! St. Faustina writes, "When I began to pray [the Chaplet of Divine Mercy], the spirits of darkness scattered with hissing and threats aimed at me. This soul calmed down and reposed in the Lord full of trust." She literally helped God save a soul. He wants to save us, but He doesn't force anything on us. We must choose. What is so beautiful and powerful is that we can let God save souls through us! Say often, "Jesus, I love You. Save Souls!"

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy...God gave it to us through St. Faustina for the salvation of souls. He told St. Faustina that prayer for conversion of sinners is the most pleasing to Him and that it is "always heard and answered". The Lord gives several promises to souls who pray the chaplet. He pretty much promises eternal salvation to souls who pray it. When we pray it in the presence of a dying person, He promises their salvation as well. One chaplet takes about 5 minutes. The small Divine Mercy images in the church foyer have instructions on the back for praying it. Do you want more life and love? Offer God your life. Ask Him to save souls through you. Become a continual offering to God. This is probably the greatest act of love for God and others that we can make. We can't do it, but God can. Ask Him to do this in you. There will be suffering, but we will suffer on earth whether or not we choose God. He'll give you strength.

Camp Savio Raffle

Youth that will attend Camp Savio are selling raffle tickets for $5 for one chance to receive a $25 gift card to the Printery House, Deen's Greenhouse, or Daylight Donuts There will also be one drawing for a Mother's Day basket from Deen's Greenhouse. All drawings will take place on Mother's Day, after the 10:30 Mass.

1/2 Lock In! School will be out soon enough and we are going to end with a big get-together in the gym. School gets out the afternoon of May 19th. That evening, starting at 7pm, please join myself (Tilena) and a few others in the gym until....MIDNIGHT! There will be food, drinks, and plenty of games to play. We will have a $5 entrance fee for the night.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED:

We are looking for volunteers to help with our end-of-the-year party for religious education on May 17th from 6-7:30pm! We plan to have outdoor stations (weather permitting) so we'll need some help supervising/running these stations. If interested, please contact Megan Johansen at johansenmegansg@gmail.com

Congratulations to all the children and families of those that received their First Reconciliation and First Communion last weekend!

It was a beautiful weekend and our hearts are full!
