MISSION STATEMENT

"We, the community of St. Gregory Barbarigo, are called forth in Baptism to follow the mission of Jesus to teach, to love, and to serve."

By the end of the summer we will not have anyone actively doing youth ministry for the parish. When I came, Sam Geringer, who had been in the seminary, was the full time youth minister for both age groups. He was here for three years, then left. Since then we have not had much success in finding someone to do the ministry on a permanent basis. We have had various people step up for a short time, but no real solution at present. While we can advertise for someone (like Sam) to fill the youth position, it remains hard to find people who want to or will move to Maryville. The ideal solution would be to find someone who lives in the vicinity, if at all possible. I will also be looking for college students at Newman to see if there is any interest. If anyone wants to work with youth, please get in touch, or if you know of someone who would be good with youth, encourage him/her to step forward. I just want you to know where we are in regard to our youth ministry, and looking for some help in finding people to do youth ministry.

This weekend is Corpus Christi, and next weekend will be not only Father's Day but the feast of our patron saint, St. Gregory Barbarigo. We will use the readings for the Eleventh Sunday of the Year, but will use prayers and preface for the patronal feast. I would like to have us celebrate this feast annually.

St. Gregory Barbarigo is not as well-known as many saints, but he is our patron. He lived from 9/16/1625 – 6/18/1697. He was born in Venice, was bishop in Bergamo and Padua where he died. He was also a cardinal who was one of the front runners in the 1689 and 1691 papal conclaves. He distinguished himself as a diplomat and a scholar, obtaining doctorates in both civil and canon law as well as theology. He was canonized in 1960 by Pope John XXIII. It is common to name new parishes after newly canonized saints, and the parish was formed from the older two in 1963. Curiously in light of the recent interest created by the apparent incorrupt body of Sr. Wilhelmina Lancaster, the foundress of the Gower sisters, St. Gregory Barbarigo's body is also incorrupt. When only 35 years old, he became a cardinal and distinguished himself as a bishop and as one who helped the poor during an outburst of the plague. His hero was St. Charles Borromeo, and like St. Charles he followed the teachings of the Council of Trent closely. St. Gregory was a conscientious administrator and saw to the needs of the poor. There are a lot of good qualities to emulate in St. Gregory Barbarigo.

It is a privilege to walk together with you towards our heavenly home.

Father Albert, O.S.B.

Smash Those Rotten Potatoes

—by Jacob Struempf

"The devil knows that he has lost the soul that perseveringly practices mental prayer." —St. Teresa of Avila

Have you ever hit potatoes with a baseball bat or seen a video of someone doing it? They explode everywhere. I don't want you to waste food, so use rotten potatoes without letting them go bad on purpose...Anyway, this image came to me during prayer one day recently. Someone was soft-tossed potatoes while they smashed them to smithereens with a baseball bat. The potatoes were obstacles to us receiving God's grace and smashing them with a baseball bat represented what happens in meditative (mental) prayer.

Grace is a big deal. What is it? The Church tells us God gives it to us freely and undeservedly to help us become His children and sharers in His divine nature and eternal life. It's a sharing in the very life of God (Catechism 1996-97). "By grace you have been saved" (Ephesians 2:8). God wants so badly to give us grace but we have a tendency to refuse it. It's scary to refuse it, because we can't enter eternal life without it! I was caught up in worrying about this when the Lord's angels, I think, brought the potato smashing image to my mind in prayer. His solution—persevering meditative prayer. Soak in that grace!

Lectio Divina ("Divine Reading". This is what they've been doing in monasteries for centuries):

1. Pick a small chunk of Scripture. Read it carefully and pay attention to what's going on inside you.
2. See if a word or phrase jumps out. Sit with it and repeat it over and over. See what thoughts, feelings, or desires come up. This is a normal way of telling how the Lord is intimately working in your soul.
3. Have a loving conversation with God in response.
4. It can even lead to resting with Him in His gaze of love (contemplation). Or, it's really dry, and that's totally fine. That purifies the soul and builds us up in ways we often don't see at first.

Parish Picnic

COME TO THE PARISH PICNIC - June 11th!

There are many reasons to have a picnic. This event is a time for us to celebrate as a community and give thanks for all the blessings we have been given. We host this event close to the feast of our patron St. Gregory Barbarigo, plus June is the anniversary month of our two Deacons Randy Holtmann and Mike Casteel. In addition, the picnic is a great opportunity to meet new people or catch up with people you haven't seen for a while. It is also a way for our parish to say thank you to everyone who prays for and serves our parish. So come and enjoy the delicious food, the pool, BINGO, and especially the time in fellowship.

This year the menu is Mike Casteel's pulled pork, baked beans, and chips. We will have lemonade and water to drink. Kool Kats will provide shaved ice and ice cream for dessert.

Food service will be from 5 - 6:30. Be sure to come at 5 for the blessing. Pool party will be from 7-9 pm. BINGO will also start at 7 pm.

The Knights of Columbus generously provide hours of labor to set up, prepare the food, and clean up after the event. We do ask for volunteers to serve the food. If you are wanting to serve in our parish, but can't commit to a ministry, this is a great opportunity for one-time service. So, please consider signing up for a 15 minute shift at the service table.

It's an easy way to meet people and share your joy: <https://stgregorybarbarigo5.flocknote.com/signup/123038>

Thank you for sharing your gifts. — Chris Kuhlemeyer
