MISSION STATEMENT

"We, the community of St. Gregory Barbarigo, are called forth in Baptism to follow the mission of Jesus to teach, to love, and to serve."

The latest issue of the "Catholic Key" (www.CatholicKey.org, page 10 of latest edition) has a story spotlighting a volunteer from our parish, Jolaine Zweifel. I recommend you read it. It is entitled, "Saying YES Can Lead to a Life Full of Grace." We are proud of Jolaine, and I can honestly say that there are MANY people like Jolaine who make St. Gregory Barabigo a special place through their gift of selves to ministries, to cleaning, to cutting grass, to feeding people at funeral dinners and Manna Kitchen, to supporting the school with fund raisers or events for the children, to wedding coordinators, to funeral coordinators, to coaches, to committee members, to... The list goes on and on. People who visit here say that we have a lot going on. It is true. The reason? So many people step forward to make things happen here. I am lucky if I can just keep track of what is going on, much less get involved in all that is happening. The article is personally about Jolaine, but she represents a much larger group, more like an army of volunteers who make this parish thrive.

The new budget is out and we have increased our offertory goals by 3.5%. That is less than the 4% inflation rate from last year, but we hope to keep pace with prices and find ways to cut some corners and raise some more money. We have just completed a good year financially, and speaking for our employees, me, and especially our Business Manager, want to offer a big THANK YOU for your support of the parish, your generosity in giving both monetarily and with your time and talent. We are so blessed.

REBOOT! Is coming soon – before we know it. I have had some questions about Chris Stefanick. Who is he? He is married and the father of six who has become a well-known international speaker whom many find inspiring – especially many youth whom we are hoping to attract. If you know of someone who has fallen away from the faith or is seeking for deeper meaning in life, Chris Stefanick has the gift of connecting with many while inspiring others. The REBOOT! event is meant to be inspirational and practical – to inspire us to see the gospel and our relationship with Jesus as the key to a more meaningful way of life, and then to supply some practical advice for living more closely to Christ Jesus. You may have seen him in the videos "The Search" or "Fearless," which we have shown in small groups. Whether you agree with everything he says or not, I hope you recognize that he has a gift for communicating the gospel. And he is coming to Maryville! If you went to Omaha or K.C. or Des Moines, it would cost you the price of travel, a meal or two, maybe lodging, plus the price of the ticket. Originally we had hoped to hold the event at NWMSU through the Newman Center, but we could not get the date we wanted, so we moved it to the church. Our church is a fitting venue for his message. I encourage you to come, and to invite/enable others to come to this event. It is a joy to be your Pastor.

Peace, Fr. Albert Bruecken, OSB

Parish Notes

A special thank you goes out to Annie Parra & Ashley Barber for heading up our VBS this summer! We appreciate their willingness to take on such a big project without hesitation. Also, thank you to each of the volunteers who came each day to help with activities, snacks, Mass, crafts and more. Without each of these individuals we might not have been able to provide a fun week for our area kiddos to learn more about faith & Jesus!

Did you see the results of the Deanery 9,10, and 12 study and recommendations? If you haven't, here is the link to it: <https://kcsj catholic.org/wp-content/uploads/Pastoral-Plan-Deaneries-IX-X-XII-June2023.pdf>

The plan starts with a letter from the Bishop. In this letter, he references the study that was conducted in order to develop this pastoral plan. This study shows that we are projected to have fewer priests and fewer Catholic families in the future. My conclusion is that while St. Gregory Barbarigo did not get impacted by this current plan, we must continue to grow our parish.

The study showed that since 2016 our average Mass attendance went down by 50% from over 900 to around 450. Our number of registered Catholic households went down by 10%. I know from trying to communicate with these registered households that even more than 10% are no longer engaged in our parish, they just haven't asked to be removed.

The Bishop ends his letter with "Many of the parishes in these deaneries were established at a time when the Catholic Church and the neighborhoods looked different than now: pews and Catholic schools were filled, and the parish was at the center of people's lives. From our experience, we know that people, neighborhoods, and society change. The opportunity is now for the parishes in each deanery to focus on building up the Church by casting our nets wider and deeper."

This concept of casting our nets is the biblical call to be disciples as Jesus commissioned. It is easy to be critical of the Bishop, the diocese, the religious and cast blame for our current situation. Of course, we need great leaders to move the church in the right direction. But, if we want real and lasting change, we, the laity, must also be involved and accountable for the future.

The appendices of the plan have survey results and suggestions for how to build up the church. Many of these, thanks to our actively involved laity are already happening. We have great catechesis, we have a growing Catholic school, we have many adult faith formation opportunities, and we have active ministries. We have planted many seeds, but in order to grow fruit, we need even greater participation, and we need to invite and welcome back the people who stopped showing up.

I know it can be daunting to invite people to Mass, but you don't have to. That is one of the great things about our upcoming REBOOT event. This event is designed to be the spark that gets people to engage in their relationship with God. Invite them to REBOOT and let Chris Stefanick ignite their faith.

Thank you for sharing your gifts. —Chris Kuhlemeyer
