Our SCRIP box has been restocked with the popular Gift Cards you have requested like Starbucks, Safeway, Walmart, Lucky's, Target, fast food places, and others. Sorry we will not stock Costco due to the cost and low percentage we receive. Please buy your SCRIP Gift Cards by visiting our Scrip window in the vestibule when we have a volunteer after Masses. You can also purchase SCRIP at the Parish Office on Thursdays from 2:30-4:30pm or through the online phone App named Benefit Mobile. Remember that when you buy SCRIP Gift Cards through us you still receive the value you paid for the gift card, but we receive a percentage (ranging from 1% to 21%) for every purchase you make. This is a very easy way with no additional cost to you to support Saint Lawrence Parish and School with the normal shopping you do for your household. For questions, please call the Parish or School offices to find out how the SCRIP program works.

San Francisco de Asís (right side of church, when facing the altar, between Station XIII and XIV)

The Sixth Mission: Mission San Francisco de Asís, San Francisco, CA

Mission San Francisco de Asís, or Mission Dolores, is the oldest surviving structure in San Francisco. The Mission was founded on October 9, 1776, by Francisco Palóu (a companion of Saint Junípero Serra) and Co-founder Fray Pedro Combón. Some of the Mission's buildings have been turned into businesses, including a print shop and several saloons. The settlement was named for St. Francis of Assisi, the founder of the Franciscan Order, but was also commonly known as "Mission Dolores" owing to the presence of a nearby creek named Arroyo de Nuestra Señora de los Dolores, meaning "Our Lady of Sorrows Creek." During the expedition of Juan Bautista de Anza, this site was identified by Pedro Font as the most suitable site for a mission in the San Francisco area.

The original Mission was a small structure dedicated on October 9, 1776. It was located near what is today the intersection of Camp and Albion Streets (according to most sources), about a block-and-a-half east of the surviving Adobe Mission building

The present Mission church, near what is now the intersection of Dolores and 16th Streets, was dedicated in 1791. Though most of the Mission complex, including the quadrangle and Convento, has either been altered or demolished outright during the intervening years, the façade of the Mission chapel has remained relatively unchanged since its construction in 1782–1791. The Mission chapel, along with "Father Serra's Church" at Mission San Juan Capistrano, is one of only two surviving buildings where Saint Junípero Serra is known to have officiated (although "Dolores" was still under construction at the time of Serra's visit). During the 1906 San Francisco earthquake, the adjacent brick church was destroyed. By contrast, the original adobe Mission, though damaged, remained in relatively good condition. However, the ensuing fire touched off by the earthquake reached almost to the Mission's doorstep. To prevent the spread of flames, the Convento and School of Notre Dame across the street was dynamited by firefighters.

Saint Francis of Assisi, born Giovanni di Pietro di Bernardone, informally named as Francesco (1181/1182 – 3 October 1226), was an Italian friar, deacon and preacher. He founded the men's Order of Friars Minor, the women's Order of Saint Clare, the Third Order of Saint Francis and the Custody of the Holy Land. Francis is one of the most venerated religious figures in history.

In our window, St. Francis is depicted in his Franciscan robes, holding a cross and with animals as he is associated with patronage of animals and the natural environment.

Stations of the Cross & Soup Supper

Again this year we will be observing one of our SLM Lenten traditions of Friday evening Stations of the Cross and Soup Supper. Stations will begin at 6 pm. With Soup Supper to follow. Stations of the Cross in Spanish will be at 7 p.m.

This simple meal of hearty soup, bread, coffee, tea or water, in the spirit of Lent, provides us with an opportunity to identify with those who may not always enjoy a hot meal. The proceeds this year will benefit our own St. Vincent de Paul Society outreach. Please join us on six Friday evenings during Lent beginning on February 28th and ending on April 3rd. Hope to see you there as we journey through Lent together.

We ask that you bring containers from home if you wish to purchase "soup to go". We will try to be "earth friendly" by using recycled drinking cups and biodegradable coffee cups again this year.

Sign-ups for those who would like to help the various sponsoring groups by making homemade soup or helping with set-up or clean-up, will be available as you leave mass February 22/23.

Dave & Roseann Zimbauer (408) 246-5310

Palabra que da Vida

“Hab is o do que se dijo: ‘Amar s a tu pr jimo y aborrecer s a tu enemigo’. Yo, en cambio, os digo: Amad a vuestros enemigos y rezad por los que os persiguen. As  ser is hijos de vuestro Padre que est  en el cielo.” (Mt 5, 41-43)

Cuando el Se or nos pide amar al enemigo, nos est  pidiendo algo que va m s all  de lo que el hombre por s  s lo puede realizar. Sin la ayuda de la gracia, este mandato de Cristo es imposible cumplirlo. Quiz  se podr a no devolver mal por mal, pero de ah  a hacer el bien a quien te ha hecho da o hay un largo trecho. Y, sin embargo, eso es lo que pide Cristo porque eso es lo que  l practic .

Ahora bien, quiz  este mandamiento lo valorar amos de otro modo si cambi ramos la perspectiva.  Qu  nos parecer a si en realidad el Se or no nos estuviera hablando a nosotros sino a esa persona a la que hemos hecho da o y que tiene la posibilidad de vengarse de nosotros, de devolvernos el golpe que antes nosotros le dimos?  Verdad que en ese caso ya no nos parecer a tan descabellada la orden del Se or?  Verdad que le rogar amos a nuestro enemigo que la cumpliera e incluso le recordar amos que no ser a un buen cristiano si no lo hiciera?

Cuando tratamos el tema del perd n siempre pensamos en el que nosotros debemos dar, pero no en el que necesitamos que nos den. Quiz   ste no lo recibamos, pero debemos empezar por dar el nuestro, porque a lo mejor as  el otro se anima a dar el suyo y porque, como tambi n dijo Cristo, “la medida que us is la usar n con vosotros”. Necesitamos ser perdonados, por Dios y por los hombres; para que ese perd n nos llegue, empecemos nosotros por otorgarlo a quien nos ha ofendido. Eso es lo que rezamos en el Padrenuestro.

Prop sito: Empecemos por perdonar y rezar por los que nos han hecho da o y luego recemos para que aquellos a los que nosotros hemos herido nos perdonen.
