From the Desk of Fr. Mark

Happy 7th Sunday in Ordinary Time! We give thanks to God for all the blessings shared this day and especially for each family in our parish community.

Once more, I thank you for your gifts of treasure in supporting the Annual Diocesan Appeal (ADA). It is wonderful to see many families joining me in support of the ADA. Your support helps our Catholic Church in Santa Clara County reach out in caring for those in need. Your support also assists us to train new leaders from the community through the Institute of Leadership in Ministry (ILM). Many members of the St. Lawrence the Martyr family have been blessed by this ministry and it has benefited our parish greatly.

In the coming weeks, we will introduce to you the newest member of our parish team. Deacon Greg Ortiz has been assigned to St. Lawrence the Martyr Parish to assist our community in growing in faith. Deacon Greg is a permanent deacon, meaning that he is married and unlike Deacon Joseph Nguyen, is not on a journey to the ordained priesthood of Jesus Christ. Deacon Greg will be sharing some of his story in the upcoming bulletins.

It is hard to believe but the holy season of Lent is right around the corner… just 10 days away. As always, time seems to fly. In the early part of the new year, we all looked at the date for Ash Wednesday and relaxed a little because we had 8 weeks of Ordinary time…now we just have one more Sunday.

I would encourage you to begin praying about how you will live your lenten journey through the three disciplines of prayer, fasting and almsgiving during this holy time. I would encourage each family to make use of formed.org and their lenten reflection series that will be sent directly to your email each morning where you can take time in reflection and prayer individually and with your family. It is especially important for those with younger children (or grandchildren) that they see the active spiritual journey we make as a Lenten people.

I would also encourage you to attend our First Friday Mass in honor of our Blessed Mother as we offer the Mass during Lent for the protection of life from the moment of conception to natural death. Look in the bulletin for more details.

Once more I thank you for your continued prayers and support of our parish and parish school…you are in my prayers.

God Bless,
Fr. Mark

Desde el Escritorio del Padre Mark

¡Feliz VII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario! Damos gracias a Dios por todas las bendiciones compartidas en este día y en especial por cada familia de nuestra comunidad parroquial.

Una vez más, les agradezco sus valiosos donativos en apoyo a la Campaña Anual Diocesana (ADA). Es maravilloso ver a muchas familias colaborando conmigo para esta campaña (ADA), que ayuda a nuestra Iglesia Católica en el condado de Santa Clara a apoyar a los más necesitados. Su donativo también nos ayuda a capacitar a nuevos líderes de la comunidad a través del Instituto Ministerial de Liderazgo (ILM). Muchos miembros de la familia de San Lorenzo han sido bendecidos por este ministerio que ha beneficiado mucho a nuestra parroquia.

En las semanas siguientes, les presentaremos al miembro más nuevo de nuestro equipo parroquial. El diácono Greg Ortiz, ha sido asignado a la parroquia de San Lorenzo para ayudar a nuestra comunidad a seguir creciendo en la fe. Greg es un diácono permanente, lo que significa que está casado y, a diferencia del diácono Joseph Nguyen, no está en camino hacia el sacerdocio ordenado de Jesucristo. El diácono Greg nos compartirá parte de su historia en los próximos boletines.

Es difícil de creer, pero el tiempo de Cuaresma está ya casi llegando... estamos a sólo 10 días de que inicie. Como siempre el tiempo parece volar. Al principio de este año, todos veíamos el miércoles de ceniza muy lejos ya que faltaban ocho semanas, pero ahora solo falta un domingo más.

Los animo a rezar para que reflexionemos en la manera de cómo viviremos este tiempo sagrado de cuaresma a través del ejercicio constante de la oración, ayuno y limosna. Invito a cada familia a hacer uso de la página web formed.org y su serie de reflexiones cuaresmales que se enviarán directamente a su correo electrónico cada mañana, donde podrán tener un tiempo de reflexión y oración individual y con su familia. Es especialmente importante para aquellos con hijos (o nietos) más pequeños, para que se den cuenta del recorrido espiritual que hacemos como pueblo durante esta Cuaresma.

También los animo a asistir a nuestra Misa del primer viernes de mes, en honor a nuestra Santísima Madre, ofreciéndola especialmente durante la Cuaresma por la protección de la vida desde el momento mismo de la concepción hasta la muerte natural. Busque en el boletín para más detalles.

Una vez más, les agradezco sus continuas oraciones y apoyo a nuestra parroquia y escuela parroquial... están en mis oraciones.

¡Dios los bendiga!
P. Mark

asking for the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe

Please join us for the First Friday Mass, March 4 at 7:00 PM in honor of Our Lady of Guadalupe as we ask for her intercession for our special intentions

TMIY — THAT MAN IS YOU! — BECOMING A MAN AFTER GOD'S OWN HEART

Saturdays in the Parish Hall

6:45 AM: Breakfast
7:00 AM: Session Begins
8:15 AM: Session Ends

That Man is You! honestly addresses the pressures and temptations that men face in our modern culture, especially those relating to their roles as husbands and fathers. The program harmonizes current social and medical science with the teachings of the Church and the wisdom of the saints to develop the vision of man fully alive!

Please Pray for the Recently Departed

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Be Merciful -
7th Sunday in Ordinary Time by Deborah Ferry
(taken from commentary on this week's readings)

The books of Samuel describe the rise and development of kingship in Israel. Samuel is a pivotal figure. He bridges the gap between the period of the Judges and the monarchy, and guides Israel's transition to kingship. A Deuteronomistic editor presents both positive and negative traditions about the monarchy, portraying it both as evidence of Israel's rejection of the Lord as their sovereign and as part of God's plan to deliver the people. Samuel's misgivings about abuse of royal power foreshadow the failures and misdeeds of Saul and David and the failures of subsequent Israelite kings.

In today's Gospel we hear Jesus' invitation: "Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful." An example of such compassion is David. King Saul, consumed by jealousy of David's rising popularity, has driven the youth from court and pursues him in the Judean desert. Given the opportunity, David refuses to take revenge against his persecutor. One night he and Abishai enter unimpeded into the king's camp and find Saul and Abner, his military general, asleep and unguarded. Abishai proposes to kill Saul. David stops him and instead steals the insignia of his royal person to prove that he had the opportunity to eliminate Saul but declined. David was compassionate toward an unjust persecutor, submitting to God, "Merciful and gracious…slow to anger and abounding in kindness" (Psalm 103:8). He did not deal with his enemy according to the unjust attack against himself. However, David adds: "The Lord will reward every person according to the terms of righteousness and faithfulness," word that foreshadow how David will succeed Saul. Here the book of Samuel anticipates Jesus' teaching on forgiveness, but it does not yet appreciate the value of nonviolence and forgiveness of enemies. For the present, David's respect for the king puts the matter in God's hands.

Palabra Que Da La Vida

"Dad y se os dará. La medida que uséis la usarán con vosotros." (Lc 6, 38)

Esta semana el Evangelio nos ofrece un resumen del mensaje moral de Cristo. Lo hace proponiéndonos algunos ejemplos concretos de difícil aplicación: "amad a vuestros enemigos, haced el bien a los que os odian, orad por los que os injurian". Y a continuación dice algo que nos tiene que servir de estímulo para poder llevar a la práctica sus mandatos: "La medida que uséis la usarán con vosotros".

Ya sin esta advertencia deberíamos estar dispuestos a intentar practicar el mandamiento del amor, pues deberíamos amar, aunque no fuera más que por gratitud a Dios, que tanto nos ha amado. Pero es que, además, nos conviene hacerlo pues si no amamos no nos amarán, si no perdonamos no nos perdonarán. Sólo aquel que cree estar libre de toda culpa o que piensa que nunca va a necesitar ayuda de nadie, puede permitirse el lujo del egoísmo. Pero si obra así, ¿de verdad está limpio de pecado? Quizá lo parezca, pero en realidad está lleno de soberbia.

Por lo tanto, hagamos las cosas por agradecimiento al Señor, con el cual tenemos una deuda infinita. Aunque el prójimo no se lo merezca, hagámoslo por Él, por Dios. Pero no olvidemos que nosotros no somos perfectos y que también a nosotros nos tienen que soportar, perdonar, consolar, ayudar. Si no somos capaces de ser generosos, ¿cómo podemos pretender que lo sean con nosotros?

Propósito: Cada vez que alguien me pida o necesite ayuda, comportarme como me gustaría que me trataran a mí o como yo mismo actuaría si el necesitado fuera mi propio hijo.

Pbro. Santiago Martin (FM) Responsable MARC
