From the Desk of Fr. Mark

Happy and holy Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ! It is a day filled with many blessings as we recognize the true presence of Jesus Christ, body and blood, soul and divinity in the Eucharist.

Today also officially begins the three year Eucharistic Revival called by the Bishops of the United States to help us as Church to grow in deeper devotion and love of the Eucharist. The Bishops offer us a road map to growing in faith in their document The Mystery of the Church in the Life of the Eucharist.

"Why is it so important that we understand the Eucharist as a sacrifice? It is because all that Jesus did for the salvation of humanity is made present in the celebration of the Eucharist, including his sacrificial Death and Resurrection. Christ's sacrifice of himself to the Father was efficacious and salvific because of the supreme love with which he shed his blood, the price of our salvation, and offered himself to the Father on our behalf…As a memorial the Eucharist is not another sacrifice, but the re-presentation of the sacrifice of Christ by which we are reconciled to the Father. (#14)

"The reality that, in the Eucharist, bread and wine become the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Christ without ceasing to appear as bread and wine to our five senses is one of the central mysteries of the Catholic faith. This faith is a doorway through which we, like the saints and mystics before us, may enter into a deeper perception of the mercy and love manifested in and through Christ's sacramental presence in our midst (#21)

The Sacrament of the Eucharist is called Holy Communion precisely because, by placing us in intimate communion with the sacrifice of Christ, we are placed in intimate communion with him and, through him, with each other. Therefore, the Eucharist is called Holy Communion because it is "the efficacious sign and sublime cause of that communion in the divine life and that unity of the People of God by which the Church is kept in being." (#25)

On a personal note, I will be away for the next few weeks with family vacation and then some study. As we say goodbye to Fr. Angelbert, we also welcome Fr. Anthony to our parish. I know we will be giving him a great St. Lawrence the Martyr welcome and I will see you in July.

God Bless,
Fr. Mark

Desde el Escritorio del Padre Mark

¡Feliz y santa Solemnidad del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo! Es un día lleno de muchas bendiciones al reconocer la verdadera presencia de Jesucristo, cuerpo y sangre, alma y divinidad en la Eucaristía.

Hoy también comienza oficialmente el Avivamiento Eucarístico de tres años convocado por los obispos de los Estados Unidos para ayudarnos como Iglesia a crecer en una devoción y un amor más profundos por la Eucaristía. Los Obispos nos ofrecen una hoja de ruta para crecer en la fe en su documento El Misterio de la Eucharstía en la Vida de la Iglesia.

"¿Por qué es tan importante que entendamos la Eucaristía como un sacrificio? Es porque todo lo que Jesús hizo por la salvación de la humanidad se hace presente en la celebración de la Eucaristía, incluyendo el sacrificio de su muerte y su resurrección. El sacrificio de Cristo de sí mismo al Padre fue eficaz y salvífico por el amor supremo con que derramó su sangre, precio de nuestra salvación, y se ofreció a sí mismo al Padre por nosotros. [...] Como memorial, la Eucaristía no es la simple representación de un sacrificio, sino la verdadera reconciliación. (#14)

"La realidad de que, en la Eucaristía, el pan y el vino se convierten en Cuerpo y Sangre, Alma y Divinidad de nuestro Señor Jesucristo sin dejar de parecer como pan y vino a nuestros cinco sentidos, es uno de los misterios centrales de la fe católica. Esta fe es una puerta a través de la cual nosotros, como los santos y los místicos que nos precedieron, podemos entrar en una percepción más profunda de la misericordia y el amor manifestados en y a través de la presencia sacramental de Cristo entre nosotros (#21)

El Sacramento de la Eucaristía se llama Sagrada Comunión precisamente porque, al ponernos en íntima comunión con el sacrificio de Cristo, somos puestos en íntima comunión con él y, a través de él, entre nosotros. Por eso, la Eucaristía se llama Sagrada Comunión porque es "el signo eficaz y la causa sublime de esa comunión en la vida divina y de esa unidad del Pueblo de Dios por la cual existe la Iglesia". (#25)

Un comentario aparte: Estaré fuera durante las próximas semanas tomando unas vacaciones familiares y luego un poco de estudio. Al despedirnos del P. Angelbert damos la bienvenida también al P. Anthony a nuestra parroquia. Y sé que, en San Lorenzo Mártir, le daremos una calurosa bienvenida. ¡Nos vemos en julio!

¡Dios los bendiga!
Padre Mark

Palabra Que Da La Vida

"Caía la tarde y los Doce se le acercaron a decirle: 'Despide a la gente: que vayan a las aldeas y cortijos de alrededor a buscar alojamiento y comida, porque aquí estamos en descampado'. Él les contestó: 'Dadles vosotros de comer'."
(Lc 9, 12-13a)

Hay teólogos que opinan que el milagro de la multiplicación de los panes y de los peces nunca ocurrió, que fue sólo fruto de la conversión de los discípulos que, al poner lo que tenían en común, permitieron que hubiera bastante para todos. Esta teoría no es cierta. Aquel milagro sucedió realmente, por más que en las enseñanzas de este pasaje evangélico haya, efectivamente, una apelación a la solidaridad. De forma permanente debería sonar en nuestros oídos la frase de Cristo: "Dadles vosotros de comer". Es una orden que el Señor nos dirige a nosotros con el fin de estimular nuestra generosidad y de que compartamos lo que tenemos con quien no lo tiene y lo necesita. Pero en aquel pasaje, el Señor también rezó a fin de que sucediera el milagro. Del mismo modo se nos invita a nosotros a rezar para que ocurra la multiplicación de los bienes necesarios en caso de que no baste con lo que hemos recogido mediante la solidaridad, y para que se conviertan los corazones de los que tienen bienes sobrantes a fin de que se decidan a compartirlos con los necesitados. Y es que, normalmente, el que reza se siente movido a compartir y el que, por amor a Dios comparte, se siente llamado a rezar para darle gracias a Dios por haber sido capaz de repartir lo que tenía con los que lo necesitaban. Por eso, en esta fiesta del Corpus, tenemos que tener presente las dos cosas: la llamada a la solidaridad con el prójimo mediante las obras de caridad y la llamada a la solidaridad con Cristo, el permanente solitario en el sagrario, que es un pobre necesitado de nuestro amor.

Propósito: Caridad con Cristo, presente en la Eucaristía, visitándole y comulgando. Caridad con Cristo, presente en el prójimo, mediante la solidaridad.

Feast of Corpus Christi - Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ by Deborah Ferry
(This article has run previously)

The Feast of Corpus Christi (Latin for Body of Christ) honors the Eucharist. It is held on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday or on the following Sunday. Its celebration on a Thursday is meant to associate it with Jesus' institution of the Eucharist during the Last Supper, commemorated on Holy Thursday. The feast is officially known as the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

The appearance of the Feast of Corpus Christi was primarily due to the petitions of the thirteenth-century Augustinian nun Juliana of Liège. From her early youth Juliana had devotion for the Blessed Sacrament, and always longed for a special feast. This desire is said to have been increased by a vision of the Church under the appearance of the full moon having one dark spot, which signified the absence of such a solemnity. In 1208 she reported her first vision of Christ in which she was instructed to plead for the institution of the Feast of Corpus Christi. The vision was repeated for the next 20 years but she kept it a secret. When she eventually relayed it to her confessor, he relayed it to the bishop.

In 1264, Pope Urban IV declared Corpus Christi to be a feast celebrated throughout the church.

A new liturgy for the feast was composed by St. Thomas Aquinas. This liturgy has come to be used not only on the Feast of Corpus Christi itself but also throughout the liturgical year at events related to the Blessed Sacrament. The hymn Aquinas composed for Vespers of Corpus Christi, Pange Lingua, is also used on Holy Thursday during the procession of the Blessed Sacrament to the altar of repose. The last two verses of Pange Lingua are also used as a separate hymn, Tantum Ergo, which is sung at Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Until the two feasts were combined in 1970, separate feasts existed for the Body of Christ and the Most Precious Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ, with a feast on July 1.

WALK THE WALK: FOLLOWING CHRIST AS HIS DISCIPLE BY DR. TIM GRAY

Being a disciple of Jesus has always been synonymous with being a Christian. From the Scriptures and from his own experience, Dr. Tim Gray explains how Christian discipleship calls us to follow in the footsteps of Christ as engaged participants in God's plan. In doing so, we bear witness to the Lord in our families,
