THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

They all ate and were satisfied. - Lk 9:16

EL CUERPO Y LA SANGRE DE CRISTO

Comieron todos y se saciaron. - Lc 9, 16

From the desk of Fr. Mark

Joyous blessing of peace and hope as we come together to celebrate The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (also known as Corpus Christi Sunday). It is today where we recognize the call to unity of prayer and service through the Most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist where we are gathered into one family one common Church in the Body of our Lord Jesus Christ.

In this good news we are happy to welcome Fr. Nghai Cao, CSsR (Redemptorist) representing Cross Catholic Outreach, whose mission simply stated is to “mobilize the global Catholic Church to transform the poor and their communities materially and spiritually for the glory of Jesus Christ.” It is the mission of our Church here in Santa Clara and each and every community served by Cross Catholic Outreach.

In an important way on this Corpus Christi Sunday this message of hope and of one Church is the unity of the Body of Christ. I invite you to listen to Fr. Cao with open hearts, to understand how we can support our brothers and sister all over the world. We are reminded that this mission is not to re-invent the work the Church is already doing but to enhance the mission of the Church in leading the spiritual growth in faith and hope.

Fr. Cao’s message and the mission of Cross Catholic Outreach aligns with the Pastoral Plan of the Diocese of San Jose in bring a renewed spiritual growth to all people in recognizing the presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist and in our brothers and sisters, especially the poor of the world. Thank you for your generosity and prayers.

Speaking of the Pastoral Plan, it seems like a long time ago we celebrated our Ministry Fair. Once more thank you. What are the fruits? Many fellow parishioners stepped up to seek more information or directly volunteered for many ministries. We have the seeds planted and growing for a “young men’s group” at our parish. We also had a fellow parishioner step up to begin an adult class on faith formation following the Catechism of the Catholic Church. This is only the beginning...if you have any ideas for new ministry or wish to volunteer for an existing ministry, please contact us.

Lastly, after the 12:30 p.m. Mass we will have a time of Eucharistic prayer and procession. Fr. Ryan will lead us in a bilingual celebration in honor of this great Solemnity.

God Bless

Fr. Mark

Desde el escritorio del Padre Mark

Gozosa bendición de paz y esperanza al reunirnos para celebrar la Solemnidad del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo (también conocido como Domingo de Corpus Christi). Es hoy cuando reconocemos el llamado que se nos hace a la unidad en la oración y el servicio a través del Santísimo Sacramento de la Eucaristía, donde nos reunimos en una sola familia, una sola Iglesia común en el Cuerpo de nuestro Señor Jesucristo.

Con esta buena noticia, nos complace dar la bienvenida al P. Nghai Cao, CSsR (Redentorista), representante de Cross Catholic Outreach, cuya misión, en pocas palabras, es «movilizar a la Iglesia Católica mundial para transformar a las comunidades que viven en la pobreza material y espiritualmente para la gloria de Jesucristo». Es la misión de nuestra Iglesia aquí en Santa Clara y de cada comunidad servida por Cross Catholic Outreach.

De manera importante, en este Domingo de Corpus Christi, este mensaje de esperanza y de una sola Iglesia es la unidad del Cuerpo de Cristo. Los invito a escuchar al Padre Cao con corazón abierto para comprender cómo podemos apoyar a nuestros hermanos y hermanas en todo el mundo. Recordamos que esta misión no consiste en reinventar el trabajo que la Iglesia ya realiza, sino en fortalecer su misión de liderar el crecimiento espiritual en la fe y la esperanza.

El mensaje del Padre Cao y la misión de Cross Catholic Outreach se alinean con el Plan Pastoral de la Diócesis de San José para brindar un renovado crecimiento espiritual a todas las personas, reconociendo la presencia de Jesucristo en la Eucaristía y en nuestros hermanos y hermanas, especialmente en los pobres del mundo. Gracias por su generosidad y por sus oraciones.

Hablando del Plan Pastoral, parece que fue hace mucho tiempo que celebramos nuestra Feria de Ministerios. Una vez más, gracias. ¿Cuáles son los frutos? Muchos feligreses se ofrecieron para buscar más información o se ofrecieron como voluntarios para diversos ministerios. Hemos sembrado y cultivado la semilla para un grupo de jóvenes en nuestra parroquia. También tuvimos un feligrés que se ofreció para comenzar una clase para adultos sobre formación en la fe siguiendo el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica.

Esto es solo el comienzo... Si tiene alguna idea para un nuevo ministerio o desea ser voluntario para un ministerio ya existente, por favor, contáctenos.

Finalmente, después de la misa de las 12:30 p. m., tendremos un momento de oración eucarística y procesión. El padre Ryan nos dirigirá en una celebración bilingüe en honor a esta gran solemnidad.

¡Dios los bendiga!

P. Mark

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Bishop Cantu's Pastoral Statement on Immigration Reform, Human Dignity, and the Family Unit

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

For decades Congress has failed to fix the broken immigration system of the United States. It seems that the only bipartisan agreement to be found on immigration is that the system does not work. Even the most recent legislative proposal – a rather restrictive, bipartisan, bill, which was far-reaching and promising – failed for partisan political reasons.

The Catholic bishops of the United States have advocated for decades for comprehensive immigration reform. The basic moral values for this reform are: 1) respect for the family unit, the basic cell of society which helps to form healthy communities; and 2) human dignity (a process that respects the basic dignity of every person no matter their race, language, or provenance). From these basic moral values derive other policy actions, such as: reducing family reunification waiting times; restoring due process rights; addressing root causes of migration (such as civil unrest, climate change, violence, and political persecution, lack of economic opportunity, etc., in countries of origin); appropriate recalibration of border enforcement; and earned legalization for foreign nationals of good moral character already contributing to society and the economy.

Responses to the needs of the broken immigration system have concentrated on an “enforcement only” model, which fails to address the needs of the U.S. economy in sectors such as technology, agriculture, construction, hospitality, food processing, etc., as well as the push factors in countries of origin, let alone family unity and human dignity.

What we have been witnessing recently in Los Angeles, and now across the U.S., is the result of Congress's inability to fix a broken immigration system.

My heart is with the many families in our communities who are now living with renewed fear and anxiety as immigration enforcement actions unfold here in California and across the country.

Every immigrant, every family, every child is a beloved child of God, created in His image and worthy of dignity and protection. The family is the foundation of society and the domestic Church; it must not be torn apart.

While nations have the right to secure their borders and enforce laws, enforcement must always respect human dignity and protect family unity. Foreign nationals who have committed violent offenses should be prosecuted according to the law in order to maintain safety in our communities. However, raids conducted by masked federal agents, carried out sometimes without due process, separate parents and children, sow fear, and leave families in crisis and industries without needed workers. These actions do not make our communities safer; rather, they violate both justice and mercy. As Pope Francis reminds us: “Migrants are not a danger — they are in danger.” For too long, our country has delayed comprehensive immigration reform. This failure has left millions of families vulnerable and living in fear. We continue to urge our leaders to enact policies that safeguard both the rule of law and the God-given dignity of those seeking a better life.

To our immigrant brothers and sisters: the Church walks with you. We pray for you, we advocate for you, and we entrust you to the care of the Holy Family, who themselves sought refuge in a foreign land to protect the Christ Child.

May our nation find a path forward that upholds both security and mercy, law and human dignity. May God's peace reign in our hearts and our communities.

United with Jesus, Mary, and Joseph,

+Oscar Cantú
Bishop of San José

OFICINA DEL OBISPO

Declaración Pastoral del Obispo Cantú sobre la Reforma Migratoria, la Dignidad Humana y la Unidad Familiar

Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

Durante décadas, el Congreso no ha logrado reparar el deficiente sistema migratorio de Estados Unidos. Parece que el único acuerdo bipartidista en materia de inmigración es que el sistema no funciona. Incluso la propuesta legislativa más reciente —un proyecto de ley bipartidista bastante restrictivo, de amplio alcance y prometedor— fracasó por razones políticas partidistas.

Los obispos católicos de Estados Unidos han abogado durante décadas por una reforma migratoria integral. Los valores morales fundamentales de esta reforma son: 1) el respeto a la unidad familiar, célula fundamental de la sociedad que contribuye a la formación de comunidades saludables; y 2) la dignidad humana (un proceso que respeta la dignidad fundamental de cada persona, independientemente de su raza, idioma o procedencia). De estos valores morales fundamentales se derivan otras medidas políticas, como la reducción de los plazos de espera para la reunificación familiar; el restablecimiento del derecho al debido proceso; Abordar las causas fundamentales de la migración (como los disturbios civiles, el cambio climático, la violencia y la persecución política, la falta de oportunidades económicas, etc., en los países de origen); recalibrar adecuadamente la aplicación de medidas de control fronterizo; y obtener la legalización de los extranjeros de buena conducta que ya contribuyen a la sociedad y la economía.

Las respuestas a las necesidades del deficiente sistema migratorio se han centrado en un modelo de “solo control”, que no aborda las necesidades de la economía estadounidense en sectores como la tecnología, la agricultura, la construcción, el hotelaría y el procesamiento de alimentos, entre otros, ni los factores de expulsión en los países de origen, y mucho menos la unidad familiar y la dignidad humana.

Lo que hemos presenciado recientemente en Los Ángeles, y ahora en todo Estados Unidos, es el resultado de la incapacidad del Congreso para arreglar un sistema migratorio deficiente.

Mi corazón está con las muchas familias de nuestras comunidades que viven con un nuevo tipo de miedo y ansiedad a medida que se desarrollan las medidas de control migratorio aquí en California y en todo el país.

Cada inmigrante, cada familia, cada niño es un hijo amado de Dios, creado a su imagen y digno de dignidad y protección. La familia es el fundamento de la sociedad y de la Iglesia doméstica; no debe ser desmembrada.

Si bien las naciones tienen derecho a asegurar sus fronteras y hacer cumplir las leyes, estas deben respetar siempre la dignidad humana y proteger la unidad familiar. Los extranjeros que hayan cometido delitos violentos deben ser procesados conforme a la ley para mantener la seguridad en nuestras comunidades. Sin embargo, las redadas realizadas por agentes federales enmascarados, a veces sin el debido proceso, separan a padres e hijos, siembran miedo y dejan a familias en crisis y a industrias sin los trabajadores necesarios. Estas acciones no hacen que nuestras comunidades sean más seguras; al contrario, violan tanto la justicia como la misericordia. Como nos recuerda el Papa Francisco: «Los migrantes no son un peligro, están en peligro».

Durante demasiado tiempo, nuestro país ha retrasado una reforma migratoria integral. Este fracaso ha dejado a millones de familias vulnerables y viviendo con miedo. Seguimos instando a nuestros líderes a promulgar políticas que salvaguarden tanto el estado de derecho como la dignidad divina de quienes buscan una vida mejor.

A nuestros hermanos y hermanas inmigrantes: la Iglesia camina con ustedes. Oramos por ustedes, abogamos por ustedes y los encomendamos al cuidado de la Sagrada Familia, quienes buscaron refugio en tierra extranjera para proteger al Niño Jesús.

Que nuestra nación encuentre un camino hacia adelante que defienda la seguridad y la misericordia, la ley y la dignidad humana. Que la paz de Dios reine en nuestros corazones y nuestras comunidades.

Unidos con Jesús, María y José,

+Oscar Cantú

PALABRA QUE DA LA VIDA

“Caía la tarde y los Doce se le acercaron a decirle: ‘Despide a la gente: que vayan a las aldeas y cortijos de alrededor a buscar alojamiento y comida, porque aquí estamos en descampado’. Él les contestó: ‘Dadles vosotros de comer’.” (Lc 9, 12-13a)

Hay teólogos que opinan que el milagro de la multiplicación de los panes y de los peces nunca ocurrió, que fue sólo fruto de la conversión de los discípulos que, al poner lo que tenían en común, permitieron que hubiera bastante para todos. Esta teoría no es cierta. Aquel milagro sucedió realmente, por más que en las enseñanzas de este pasaje evangélico haya, efectivamente, una apelación a la solidaridad. De forma permanente debería sonar en nuestros oídos la frase de Cristo: “Dadles vosotros de comer”. Es una orden que el Señor nos dirige a nosotros con el fin de estimular nuestra generosidad y de que compartamos lo que tenemos con quien no lo tiene y lo necesita. Pero en aquel pasaje, el Señor también rezó a fin de que sucediera el milagro. Del mismo modo se nos invita a nosotros a rezar para que ocurra la multiplicación de los bienes necesarios en caso de que no baste con lo que hemos recogido mediante la solidaridad, y para que se conviertan los corazones de los que tienen bienes sobrantes a fin de que se decidan a compartirlos con los necesitados. Y es que, normalmente, el que reza se siente movido a compartir y el que, por amor a Dios comparte, se siente llamado a rezar para darle gracias a Dios por haber sido capaz de repartir lo que tenía con los que lo necesitaban. Por eso, en esta fiesta del Corpus, debemos tener presente las dos cosas: la llamada a la solidaridad con el prójimo mediante las obras de caridad y la llamada a la solidaridad con Cristo, el permanente solitario en el sagrario, que es un pobre necesitado de nuestro amor.

Propósito: Caridad con Cristo, presente en la Eucaristía, visitándole y comulgando. Caridad con Cristo, presente en el prójimo, mediante la solidaridad.

Padre Santiago Martin (FM)

MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

by Deborah Ferry

(this article has run previously)

The Feast of Corpus Christi (Latin for Body of Christ) honors the Eucharist. It is held on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday or on the following Sunday. Its celebration on a Thursday is meant to associate it with Jesus' institution of the Eucharist during the Last Supper, commemorated on Holy Thursday. The feast is officially known as the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

The appearance of the Feast of Corpus Christi was primarily due to the petitions of the thirteenth-century Augustinian nun Juliana of Liège. From her early youth Juliana had devotion for the Blessed Sacrament and always longed for a special feast. This desire is said to have been increased by a vision of the Church under the appearance of the full moon having one dark spot, which signified the absence of such solemnity. In 1208 she reported her first vision of Christ in which she was instructed to plead for the institution of the Feast of Corpus Christi. The vision was repeated for the next 20 years but she kept it a secret. When she eventually relayed it to her confessor, he relayed it to the bishop.

In 1264, Pope Urban IV declared Corpus Christi to be a feast celebrated throughout the church.

A new liturgy for the feast was composed by St. Thomas Aquinas. This liturgy has come to be used not only on the Feast of Corpus Christi itself but also throughout the liturgical year at events related to the Blessed Sacrament. The hymn Aquinas composed for Vespers of Corpus Christi, Pange Lingua, is also used on Holy Thursday during the procession of the Blessed Sacrament to the altar of repose. The last two verses of Pange Lingua are also used as a separate hymn, Tantum Ergo, which is sung at Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Until the two feasts were combined in 1970, separate feasts existed for the Body of Christ and the Most Precious Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ, with a feast on July 1.
