SAINTS PETER AND PAUL, APOSTLES

"You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of the nether-world shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the Kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." - Mt 16:18-19

From the desk of Fr. Mark

Let us praise our God on this, the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles! What a glorious day this is for our Catholic Church. This is also the 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time as we continue our wait for the Sunday green to be seen on our priests. Just a little liturgical lesson.

What is Solemnity? It is a day where we, as Catholics, honor something important and central to our faith. A Solemnity in the Catholic Church is also a Holy Day of Obligation. The Catechism teaches that all Sundays are Holy Days of Obligation. Where all Catholics are called to go to Mass and focus their days around the service and the blessings of God. The intention behind Holy Days of Obligation is to encourage the faithful to participate in the liturgical life of the Church and to grow in their relationship with God.

During the year, when the Solemnity falls on a Sunday, then the Solemnity usually takes precedent, like today. Some Holy Days are already attached to a Sunday, like the prior two weeks, Trinity Sunday and Corpus Christi, but others assigned a specific date, like today, can be celebrated on other days of the week.

As we celebrate today, this Sunday is also marked with some sadness as Fr. Ukeme-Abasi Bassey will be leaving us to begin his assignment at St. Joseph of Cupertino Parish. Fr. Ukeme has been at St. Lawrence for a little less than four years. During this time he has been a blessing in so many different ways to our parish with his wonderful and spirit filled homilies, his musical talents and especially beginning a children's choir (something that needs to be continued), our disagreements over the use of AI and the joy and laughter that filled our dinners together over a dark beer or a glass of red wine. Please continue to pray for your priest as Fr. Ukeme begins this new adventure.

Lastly, the summer activities are still going strong at St. Lawrence, with our Summer Camp moving forward, (registration is still open) the Friday Night Dinners, water aerobics and different liturgical celebrations. It is a time of vacation with days of rest and relaxation. It is a time where schools seems so far away, but is so close. Our Parish School is still accepting applications for the 2025-26 school year.

Please continue to give thanks to God for the blessings of life.

God Bless

Fr. Mark

(from vacation)

Desde el escritorio del Padre Mark

¡Alabemos a nuestro Dios en esta solemnidad de los Apóstoles San Pedro y San Pablo! ¡Qué día tan glorioso es este para nuestra Iglesia Católica! Este es también el 13º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario mientras continuamos nuestra espera para que el verde del domingo se vea en nuestros sacerdotes. Solo una pequeña lección litúrgica.

¿Qué es la solemnidad? Es un día en el que nosotros, como católicos, honramos algo importante y central para nuestra fe. Una solemnidad en la Iglesia Católica es también un día santo de precepto. El Catecismo enseña que todos los domingos son días santos de precepto. Donde todos los católicos están llamados a ir a Misa y enfocar sus días en torno al servicio y las bendiciones de Dios. La intención de los Días Santos de Precepto es animar a los fieles a participar en la vida litúrgica de la Iglesia y a crecer en su relación con Dios.

Durante el año, cuando la solemnidad cae en domingo, la solemnidad suele tener prioridad, como hoy. Algunos días santos ya están vinculados a un domingo, como las dos semanas anteriores, el Domingo de la Trinidad y el Corpus Christi, pero otros asignados a una fecha específica, como hoy, se pueden celebrar en otros días de la semana.

Al celebrar hoy, este domingo también está marcado por cierta tristeza, ya que el P. Ukeme-Abasi Bassey nos dejará para comenzar su asignación en la Parroquia de San José de Cupertino. El P. Ukeme ha estado en San Lorenzo por poco menos de cuatro años. Durante este tiempo, ha sido una bendición de muchas maneras diferentes para nuestra parroquia con sus maravillosas homilías llenas de espíritu, sus talentos musicales y, especialmente, el comienzo de un coro de niños (algo que debe continuar), nuestros desacuerdos sobre el uso de la Inteligencia Artificial, la alegría y las risas que llenaban nuestras cenas juntos con una cerveza oscura o una copa de vino tinto. Por favor, continúen rezando por su sacerdote mientras el P. Ukeme comienza esta nueva aventura.

Por último, las actividades de verano siguen siendo fuertes en San Lorenzo, con nuestro Campamento de Verano, (las inscripciones aún están abiertas) las cenas de los viernes por la noche, aeróbicos acuáticos y diferentes celebraciones litúrgicas. Es una época de vacaciones con días de descanso y relajación. Es una época en la que las escuelas parecen tan lejanas, pero están tan cerca. Nuestra Escuela Parroquial todavía está aceptando solicitudes para el año escolar 2025-26.

Por favor, continúen dando gracias a Dios por las bendiciones de la vida.

Dios los bendiga
(de vacaciones)

PALABRA QUE DA LA VIDA

Reza por el
Vicario de Cristo
en la tierra,
el Papa
León XIV.

“...Y yo te digo: “Tu eres Pedro, y sobre esta piedra edificaré mi Iglesia. Los poderes del infierno no prevalecerán sobre ella. Yo te daré las llaves del Reino de los cielos.” (Mt 16: 13-19)

En esta solemnidad de los Apóstoles San Pedro y San Pablo, es un día para dar gracias a Dios por la existencia del papa, quien es el Vicario de Cristo. Nuestro Señor Jesucristo no ha dejado de pastorear a su Iglesia en estos casi 2000 años de existencia y a enviado a lo largo de la historia a sus pontífices, ha habido de todo: Santos, Mártires, y también Pecadores.

El papa es el Vicario de Cristo, a quien Santa Catalina de Siena le llamaba: El dulce Cristo en la tierra. Y por ser el sucesor de Pedro, es alguien que tiene derecho a recibir, nuestra obediencia, nuestro respeto e incluso nuestro amor. Si olvidamos esto, estamos destruyendo uno de los puntos centrales sobre los que se sostiene nuestra fe. Pero no debemos olvidar que el Vicario de Cristo, no está por encima de Cristo. A quien seguimos es a Jesús, quien ha dado la vida por nosotros es Jesús. Quién es el buen pastor es Jesús. El papa es su Vicario. Somos católicos, y seguidores de Cristo.

Recemos por la Iglesia y por quien ahora ocupa el lugar de Cristo en la tierra, su Vicario, el papa León XIV, cuyo nombre de pila es Robert Francis Prevost, Agustino de 69 años de edad, nacido en Chicago, de madre peruana; quien fue Obispo en Chiclayo Perú, y después presidente del Dicasterio de los Obispos. Formado en una de las espiritualidades más antiguas y hermosas de la Iglesia, la de San Agustín. Y quien al salir al balcón principal de la basílica de San Pedro ha saludado a la multitud que lo aguardaba diciendo que es cristiano con nosotros y pastor para vosotros.

Propósito: No dejar de rezar esta semana por el Papa y por la Iglesia.

Padre Santiago Martin (FM)

Responsable MARC.

SAINTS PETER AND PAUL

by Deborah Ferry

The Feast of Saints Peter and Paul, or properly the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, is a feast commemorating the martyrdom in Rome of the apostles St. Peter and Paul of Tarsus, observed on June 29. The celebration is of ancient origin, the date selected being either the anniversary of their death or of the translation of their relics.

In the calendar of saints, it is celebrated as a solemnity. As such, it is one of the higher-ranking holy days during the ecclesiastical year, but is not a holy day of obligation in most countries.

This is the day of the Roman liturgical year on which those newly-created metropolitan archbishops who have been named in the previous church year receive the primary symbol of their office, the pallium, an ecclesiastical vestment, from the pope.

In recent decades, this feast along with Saint Andrew has been of importance to the modern ecumenical movement as an occasion on which the pope and the Patriarch of Constantinople have officiated at services designed to bring their two churches closer to intercommunion. This was especially the case during the pontificate of Pope John Paul II, as reflected in his encyclical Ut Unum Sint.

Veneration of the two great Apostles, Peter and Paul, has its roots in the very foundations of the Church. They are the solid rock on which the Church is built. They are at the origin of her faith and will forever remain her protectors and her guides.

Peter: Keeper of the Keys

When a young Christian girl is arrested and imprisoned in ancient Rome, she hears stories of martyrs like St. Catherine of Alexandria and St. Lawrence the Deacon—will she find the strength to make the ultimate sacrifice for her faith?

Saint Peter

Watch the epic story of the spread of Christianity during the early years of the Church. This film follows the journey of St. Peter through his martyrdom on a cross.

Paul the Apostle | The Bible Collection

The church's greatest enemy became Christ's most prolific messenger. Beautifully shot in the Moroccan desert, Paul the Apostle is a sweeping saga of the man who brought the Gospel to the Western world.
