The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed / Conmemoración de Todos los Fieles Difuntos

THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

"And this is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, but that I should raise it on the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him up on the last day." - Jn 6:39-40

"Y la voluntad del que me envió es que yo no pierda nada de lo que él me ha dado, sino que lo resucite en el último día. La voluntad de mi Padre consiste en que todo el que vea al Hijo y crea en él, tenga vida eterna y yo lo resucite en el último día". - Jn 6, 39-40

Triennial National Collection for the Military

Collection Date: November 8-9, 2025

Our parish will take up the Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS), next weekend, a collection approved by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops to be taken every three years. The AMS provides pastoral care to Catholic men and women serving in the U.S. Armed Forces, enrolled at a U.S. Military Academy, being treated as a patient at any of the 153 U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Centers, or who work for the federal government beyond U.S. borders - including those from our own parish and diocese. The AMS does not receive any funding from the government or military, and has no parishes from which to receive a weekly assessment. To learn more about the AMS, go to www.milarch.org/nationalcollection

A Message from Fr. Mark / Un Mensaje del Padre Mark

This weekend we celebrate the Holy Days of All Saints and All Souls Day. It is a time to remember those who are in heaven numbered among the communion of Saints and those who have died and are in need of our continued prayers.

"We believe in the Communion of Saints. We proclaim this when we pray the Creed each Sunday at Mass. The Communion of Saints refers to the family of God.

We are all called to be saints. We are all called to live the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ daily in our lives. We are also called to recognize the holiness in others. In this sense the Communion of Saints refers to members of the Church because we have been baptized into Christ. The term also refers to those who have died. Our belief in the Communion of Saints proclaims our belief that death does not separate us from those who have died.

At every Mass, in every Eucharistic prayer, we remember all our brothers and sisters who have gone to their rest and ask to share eternal life with Mary and all the saints throughout the ages." (from www.teachingcatholickids.com)
"On November 2nd, every year, Catholics observe The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, also known as All Souls Day. We are encouraged to pray for the dead and to remember our loved ones who have gone before us. Our prayers for these souls assist in expediting the "process of purification." The Church recognizes that few people achieve perfection in this life (after all, we are human!), and therefore, go to the grave with remaining traces of sinfulness; a period of purification is necessary to prepare the soul to join God. The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains, "All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven." (www.catholicapostolatecenter.org)

This month we look forward to the Parish School Open House on November 16, 2025. Please see the flyer for more information. Please invite friends and neighbor with school age children to come and share in the good news about our call to help our children with growing in faith and knowledge in the Dual Language Immersion model. Lastly, don't forget to buy your tickets for the Creche Raffle on November 30th.

God bless,

Fr. Mark

Este fin de semana celebramos las Fiestas de Todos los Santos y el Día de los Fieles Difuntos. Es un tiempo para recordar a quienes están en el cielo, entre los santos, y a quienes han fallecido y necesitan nuestras oraciones constantes. Creemos en la Comunión de los Santos, lo proclamamos al rezar el Credo cada domingo en la Misa. La Comunión de los Santos se refiere a la familia de Dios.

¡Todos estamos llamados a ser santos! Todos estamos llamados a vivir la muerte y resurrección de Jesucristo diariamente en nuestras vidas. También estamos llamados a reconocer la santidad en los demás. En este sentido, la Comunión de los Santos se refiere a los miembros de la Iglesia porque hemos sido bautizados en Cristo. El término también se refiere a los que han fallecido. Nuestro credo en la Comunión de los Santos proclama nuestra convicción de que la muerte no nos separa de los que han fallecido.

En cada Misa, en cada Plegaria Eucarística, recordamos a todos nuestros hermanos y hermanas que han partido a su descanso eterno y pedimos compartir la vida eterna con María y todos los santos de todos los tiempos. (de www.teachingcatholickids.com)

"El 2 de noviembre de cada año, los católicos celebramos la Conmemoración de Todos los Fieles Difuntos, también conocida como el Día de los Muertos. Se nos anima a orar por los difuntos y a recordar a nuestros seres queridos que nos precedieron. Nuestras oraciones por estas almas ayudan a acelerar el proceso de purificación. La Iglesia reconoce que pocas personas alcanzan la perfección en esta vida (después de todo, ¡somos humanos!) y, por lo tanto, van a la tumba con rastros de pecado; un período de purificación es necesario para preparar el alma para unirse a Dios. El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica explica: "Todos los que mueren en la gracia y amistad de Dios, pero aun imperfectamente purificados, tienen asegurada su salvación eterna; pero después de la muerte se someten a una purificación para alcanzar la santidad necesaria para entrar en la alegría del cielo".

(www.catholicapostolatecenter.org)

Este mes esperamos con ansias la Jornada de Puertas Abiertas de la Escuela Parroquial el 16 de noviembre de 2025. Para más información, consulte el folleto. Invite a sus amigos y vecinos con niños en edad escolar a venir y compartir la buena noticia de nuestro llamado a ayudar a nuestros niños a crecer en la fe y en el conocimiento mediante el modelo de Inmersión Bilingüe.

Por último, no olviden comprar sus boletos para la rifa de un Nacimiento, el 30 de noviembre.

¡Dios los bendiga!

Thank You!

Our clothing drive was a huge success. Whenever you can squeeze it in, please put the following in the bulletin. Fr. Mark has a picture of us sorting the clothing in the garage and I have a photo of the sorted and bagged donations if you would be able to use either of those as well.

Thank you from St. Justin's Parish and the St. Lawrence Social Concerns Committee. The response to our clothing/toiletries collection was overwhelming. St. Justin's Clothes Closet volunteers were thrilled with your generosity. The cooler weather has brought many clients to their doorstep.

The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed

John 6:37-40

I lost my wallet this year. It was such an annoyance to replace everything in it. A friend, moved by sympathy, gave me a beautiful new one. One month later I lost that one, too, with all my newly replaced cards. No matter what I did, I couldn't find what I had lost. I resigned myself to never seeing either of my wallets again.

Fortunately, the Lord Jesus is not like me in this regard. In today's Gospel (John 6:37-40), he says, "This is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me." Jesus, unlike me, is ever vigilant with what the Father has given him. He searches for every lost soul — as the shepherd leaves the ninety-nine to pursue the one lost sheep, or the woman rejoices upon recovering a lost coin — and even descends to the depths of loss on the cross and into the realm of the dead to recover that which seems forever lost. On All Souls' Day, as we remember our faithful departed, these words kindle a hope beyond hope in our hearts. Even the dead are not lost to Jesus, though they may seem so to us. Nothing entrusted to him by the Father is ever truly lost. So, we may hope that every soul, no matter how wandering or forgotten in life, is secure in his loving care and destined to be raised on the last day. Of what the Father gives him, he loses nothing.

— Father John Muir

THANKSGIVING FOOD BASKET DONATIONS

This year we are again partnering with St. Justin Parish. They will be distributing food items on Saturday and Sunday, November 22 and 23.

We will be collecting the following food items at St. Lawrence church after the 8 and 10 am masses on Sunday, November 16th only.

- Any CANNED or DRY foods that would be suitable for storage in the St. Justin pantry if not used in Thanksgiving Baskets
 - Packaged turkey gravy
 - Boxed stuffing
 - Frozen Turkeys

You may also contribute grocery store gift cards in any denomination as-long-as the dollar amount is indicated on the card.

Donations in the form of checks will be accepted but checks must be made out to St. Justin's parish.

Our Social Concerns group will take all donations to Saint Justin's Parish on Sunday morning where Santa Clara residents can receive a Thanksgiving dinner to prepare at their home.

Palabra que da La Vida

Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adi" Dijo Jesús a sus discípulos: "Que no tiemble vuestro corazón; creed en Dios y creed también en mí. En la casa de mi Padre hay muchas estancias; si no fuera así, ¿os habría dicho que voy a prepararos sitio? Cuando vaya y os prepare sitio, volveré y os llevaré conmigo, para que donde estoy yo estéis también vosotros. Y adonde yo voy, ya sabéis el camino". (Jn 14, 1-5)

La fiesta de los fieles difuntos nos debe servir, ante todo, para renovar nuestra fe en la resurrección. No se trata de creer en algo que es consolador y que nos da un enorme alivio porque nos convenga creer en ello, sino porque tenemos la certeza de que es verdad debido a que Cristo resucitó de entre los muertos. La resurrección de Cristo, como hecho histórico y comprobado, es el fundamento en el que basamos nuestra fe en la resurrección, en la vida eterna. Si esta fe nos produce alivio y consuelo, si nos llena de esperanza, mejor para nosotros. Pero no creemos en la resurrección por sus frutos consoladores, sino porque Cristo realmente murió y realmente resucitó.

En segundo lugar, en este día debemos orar por nuestros seres queridos ya fallecidos.
 Es un deber de gratitud hacia ellos. Dejar de hacerlo es dejar de cumplir el cuarto mandamiento, pues lo que ellos necesitan ahora no son ni nuestros alimentos ni nuestras medicinas, sino nuestras oraciones.

Por último, debemos aprovechar este día para recordar el ejemplo que nos dejaron los que ya han muerto. Esa es la verdadera "herencia". Su comportamiento, tantas veces ejemplar, no debe ser olvidado, sino que tiene que ayudarnos a vivir de manera que ellos, desde el cielo, se sientan orgullosos de nosotros.

Propósito: Renovar la fe en la resurrección, rezar por los difuntos y recordar qué es lo que habría que destacar de ellos para intentar imitarlos.

 Si tiene alguna pregunta, comuníquese con Christine Frea (christine.frea@dsj.org).

We have started a visioning process at St. Lawrence School, and we are asking for your contribution! We are now in our 64th year of service to the families of St. Lawrence, and in this study, we will answer a simple question: what has to happen for St. Lawrence to be flourishing in 2030? In these times of rapid change, it is our goal to serve and sustain the mission for decades to come.

As a parishioner, your voice is particularly important to us. The QR code will lead you to a Google Form with some important questions about the future of St. Lawrence School- we will carefully consider all answers. The survey is anonymous and I ask that you be as forthright as possible with your responses.

Thank you for your support of St. Lawrence School.
