

Youth Minister advertisement

St. Dominic Church in Kingsport, Tennessee is currently seeking a faith-filled individual to lead its Youth Ministry Program. Applicant should have the ability to connect with Middle School and High School youth while also offering instruction in our Catholic faith as well as support for our parish's young people in order to assist them in navigating life's challenges. Applicant should have the skills necessary to maintain ongoing and consistent communication with all parties involved in youth ministry, i.e., youth, parents, parish, school and diocesan staff. Applicant should be able to plan and organize ongoing youth ministry activities and events while developing structures of support for the youth ministry program. This is a unique opportunity to develop, shape and lead an engaging program for our parish's youth!

This is a full-time position that is benefits eligible. Some work will be done on weekends and evenings.

We invite all interested candidates in good-standing with the Catholic Church to consider this opportunity. Preferred, but not required, characteristics of the desired candidate include: An undergraduate degree and/or certificate from a Catholic youth ministry program, prior experience in youth ministry, working knowledge of social media and communication platforms.

Interested persons are invited to contact the St. Dominic Parish office for more specific information regarding the position and/or to submit a resume by Friday, June 30, 2023. The parish can be contacted at (423) 288-8101. Application and resumes can be emailed to secretary@saintdomchurch.com or mailed to:
