Some Thoughts from Fr. Brad

I hope your Thanksgiving Day celebration was as nice as mine was. I am thankful for being able to celebrate the day with my brother Brian and his wife Rita. Brian is wrestling with Dementia/Alzheimer's Disease. I know, in time, he may not be able to recognize me. That is why I am grateful to spend time with him when I can. I am thankful, too, for the great care Rita gives to him.

My brother's condition causes me to approach Advent differently this year. It is an opportunity for me to reflect upon my life and to recognize those moments when I have had "spiritual Alzheimer's" – moments when I "forget" that God is with me.

The beauty of Advent and especially Christmas is that we embrace the truth: "that God never forgets us." As we prepare to celebrate Christmas, let us take time to reflect upon and meditate upon this truth. Let us never "forget" – Emmanuel, "God is with us."

This week we celebrate how God chose to come to us through the instrument of his grace – Mary. This Wednesday is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. We will have three opportunities on Wednesday to celebrate this blessed event. Mass will be celebrated at the following times:

8:30 a.m. at St. Stephen's
12:15 p.m. at St. Joseph's
6:30 p.m. at St. Stephen's.

I hope you will join me at one of those times to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary.

During Advent I will be hearing confessions at St. Stephen's after weekday morning Masses. I will hear confessions at St. Joseph's on Wednesdays from 12:15-1:45 p.m. These times are in addition to the regular confession times of 6-7 p.m. on Wednesdays and 9-10 a.m. on Saturdays.

PLEASE NOTE: Because of the holy day Mass schedule on December 8th, I will not hear confessions at St. Joseph's that day, nor will there be adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and confessions that evening.

The priests of Our Family of Parishes are scheduled to hear confessions at St. Mary's in Port Huron, on Friday the 17th, beginning at 6 p.m. Hopefully, the new variant of the corona virus will not prevent us from gathering that evening.

Have a blessed week, and I hope to see you at one of the holy day Masses on December 8th.

RELIGIOUS FORMATION NEWS – December 5, 2021

Welcome to the second week of Advent.

Our RCIA participants are intrigued with our Liturgical calendar and our traditions related to the season of Advent, including the Advent wreath, the Jesse tree and the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

This is the season as well, where our newly catechized young people will attend the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time!

Our second or third graders have been preparing by learning their Act of Contrition, examining their Conscience, and discerning what being “selfish on purpose” might mean in the area of sinfulness!

Above all they learn that this Sacrament is ultimately about God’s GREAT MERCY and LOVE toward his sinful people and that we can always repent and start over again!! He welcomes us with open arms.

In a wonderful video “The Lump” there is a statement made by the narrator...“Nothing you could ever do would make God love you less!” Now that is an awesome God!!

Advent, where we wait for Jesus coming (both to celebrate HIS birth and HIS second coming) is a perfect time to discern and examine our lives and where we are “being selfish on purpose” and how those sins are affecting our lives and the lives of people around us??

Then off to the Sacrament of Reconciliation we go to make “all things new again”!

How very fitting that God uses HIS chosen servants, the priest, to be HIS conduit for this welcoming back!!

Fr. Brad will be hearing confessions at extra times during Advent. Along with his regular schedule Wednesdays at St. Joseph from 6 – 7 p.m. and Saturdays at St. Stephens from 9 – 10 a.m. he will be in the Reconciliation Room after each weekday Mass at St. Stephen and for ½ hour on Wednesday at St. Joseph from 12:15 – 12:45.

God is waiting for us with open arms! Now is the time for us to return with all our hearts!

God bless you week, Karen Clor – DRE/Holy Trinity Parish 810 985-9069

Mrs. Clor

MOMENTS HERE & THERE

Gloria Korhonen, OP

Brief reflections strike us differently at different times. We keep our imagination and our hearts open.

“It’s morning again and I am that lucky person who is in it!”

— Mary Oliver

“God is closer to us than water is to a fish.”

— St. Catherine of Siena

“The presence of God is infinite, everywhere, always, and forever. You cannot ‘not’ be in the presence of God. There’s no other place to be.”

— Richard Rohr

“The privilege of a lifetime is to become who you truly are.”

— Carl Jung

“Knowing yourself is the beginning of wisdom.”

— Aristotle

“You are not just a drop in the ocean. You are the ocean in a tiny drop.”

— Rumi

“Hope is definitely not the same thing as optimism. It is not the conviction that something will turn out well, but the certainty that something makes sense regardless of how it turns out.”

—Vaclav Havel

“There is a difference on doing church work, and the work of the church. Our church is not liberal or conservative, but transforming.”

— Roger Painter

“Christ has no body but yours,

No hands, no feet on earth but yours.

Yours are the eyes with which he looks With compassion on this world.

Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good

Christ has no body now on earth but yours.”

— St. Teresa of Avila
