CANCELLED

St. Anne's Altar Society meeting for March has been canceled.
Please join us on Tuesday, April 5 in St. Stephen Church at 11:30 a.m. for "Mary's Way of the Cross". Our April meeting will follow.

Some Thoughts from Fr. Brad

We are just days into our forty-day observance of Lent. Typically, we make a personal sacrifice in Lent – giving up something in our lives. The purpose of "giving up" something is to help us give ourselves over to Christ.

I came across the following poem written by a Mr. Craig Gates of Jackson, MS. It got me thinking about how to focus my energies this Lent. It might help you to do the same.

"What to Give up for Lent"

GIVE UP grumbling! Instead, "In everything give thanks." Constructive criticism is OK, but "moaning, groaning, and complaining" are not Christian disciplines.

GIVE UP looking at other people's worst points! Instead concentrate on their best points. We all have faults. It is a lot easier to have people overlook our shortcomings when we overlook theirs first.

GIVE UP speaking unkindly! Instead, let your speech be generous and understanding. It costs so little to say something kind and uplifting. Why not check that sharp togue at the door?

GIVE UP your hatred of anyone or anything! Instead, learn the discipline of love. "Love covers a multitude of sins."

GIVE UP your worries and anxieties! Instead, trust God with them. Anxiety is spending emotional energy on something we can do nothing about: like tomorrow! Live today and let God's grace be sufficient.

GIVE UP TV one evening a week! Instead, visit some lonely or sick person. There are those who are isolated by illness or age. Why isolate yourself in front of the "tube?" Give someone a precious gift: your time!

GIVE UP buying anything but essentials for yourself! Instead, give the money to God. The money you would spend on the luxuries could help someone meet basic needs. We are called to be stewards of God's riches, not consumers.

GIVE UP judging by appearances and by the standard of the world! Instead, learn to give up yourself to God. There is only one who has the right to judge, Jesus Christ.

Making changes in our lives can be challenging. Don't be upset if you stumble during Lent. Like Jesus, who stumbled and fell as he carried his cross to Calvary, pick yourself up and keep going. In other words, don't give up on what you give up!

Have a blessed Lent and a blessed week.

THE WAY OF THE CROSS: A CONTEMPLATIVE JOURNEY

Each one of the Stations of the Cross tells a story. It's not just the story of Jesus' journey to the cross but it's also the story of the people along the way..... and it's our story.

On a contemplative journey through The Way of the Cross we may imagine ourselves as one of the disciples or maybe one of the people along the way or maybe we may see the journey as a mirror of our own life, our wounds, our brokenness or emptiness.

We are all in different places in our spiritual journey and so each of our experiences will be as unique as the creatures we all are in the eyes of our Creator.

on a contemplative journey through the Stations of the Cross we may begin to realize that not only are we invited to walk with Jesus as He carries His cross but also that Jesus has the desire to walk with us and to help us carry ours.

Please join us on Friday March 11 at 5:30 pm at the St. Stephens site for "The Way of the Cross.... A Contemplative Journey"
