“When you pray say: Father, hallowed by your name.....”

Not only does Jesus teach his disciples how to pray, he teaches them why their prayer will be effective. Parents give their child gifts that are desired and appreciated. God is that parent to all of us. We are all children of God, after all, and so we are taught to call God our Father. Our Father has already given us Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit, so we know how generous a parent God is, giving us all that we need and more than we could ever ask for. In teaching us to ask for bread daily, Jesus teaches us that God's generosity is continual. This is important, for forgiveness of sins needs to be unceasing as well. When we in turn forgive one another's sins, we are sharing God's mercy. We are, in fact, bringing God's kingdom to come in some small way.

What do you ask of God in prayer?

How do you listen for God's response?

YOUTH FORMATION COORDINATOR

We are very happy to “WELCOME” our Youth Formation Coordinator, Amber Dugas!

“My name is Amber Dugas. I am married to Ben Dugas, and we have two beautiful daughters, Kenadee and Reagan. I have been blessed with the St. Charles Borromeo Church community for over 10 years now. I am excited to spread the Word of the Lord with our youth and meet our new and returning students this school year.”

(Signed- Amber Dugas)

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

July 24, 2022

"Father . . ." (Luke 11:2)

Imagine the insider's view that Jesus' disciples must have had. They lived with him; they ate and drank with him. They saw his countless everyday interactions, most of which weren't recorded in Scripture. But today's Gospel gives us one that did.

Luke tells us that Jesus was praying, as he often did. The disciples must have observed him because they asked, "Lord, teach us to pray" (Luke 11:1). In response, Jesus gave them more than a set of words or a format or technique. He gave them an example and an invitation: to have a share in his own loving relationship with his Father.

How amazing that Jesus teaches the disciples to call God "Father" (Luke 11:2)! What a privilege to speak so directly and familiarly to God! The Hebrew Scriptures had referred to God as the father of the people of Israel or father of the king (Deuteronomy 32:6; 2 Samuel 7:14). But here, Jesus invites his disciples to call almighty God their own Father. Jesus likely used the word Abba, a word that expresses the bond of a child with his father. Isn't that amazing? Jesus gives them his own status as children of God and tells them to pray with the same childlike trust that he has (Luke 10:21).

Of course, this boldness didn't come naturally to the disciples—and it doesn't come naturally to us. So Jesus gives all of us an insider's view of the kind of Father we have. He is more merciful and generous than the best human father (Luke 6:36; 11:13). He is attentive to our needs and always ready to hear and answer our prayers (12:30; 11:10). He will not give us a scorpion when we ask for an egg (11:12). He is rich in kindness and forgiveness (23:34). How awesome that he welcomes us as his children!

Jesus wants to give you the courage to pray, "Father." So at Mass today, pray the Lord's Prayer with gratitude and awe that God is your loving Father.

Mission Appeal Collection – July 30-31, 2022

The Mission Appeal Collection will be July 30-31, 2022. Fr. Vincent Lam Nguyen will be here that weekend to make the appeal on behalf of the Diocese of Long Xuyen. This Diocese is located in the most south-western corner of Vietnam and have over 234,000 faithful people. Many Catholics are migrating away from their home parishes to the new land where there are neither churches nor catechetical schools. New chapels and classrooms are needed. New catechists and evangelization volunteers must be trained. Your help and support is needed in order for the Good News of Christ and the love of God to be available to these people. 100% of the funds generated from your generosity will be utilized for these purposes. "Thank you" in advance.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY!

If you wish to participate in Diocesan Wedding Anniversary Celebration on October 23rd at St. Joseph Co-Cathedral at 3:00 P.M., please notify the Administration Office to register before July 29th.
