Prayer For a New Bishop

O God, Eternal Shepherd, who governs your flock with unfailing care, grant in your boundless fatherly love a pastor for your Church, a bishop for the Diocese of Houma-Thibodaux who will please you by his holiness and to us show watchful care. We ask this through Christ, our Lord.

Amen.

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

July 31, 2022

"Who appointed me as your judge?" (Luke 12:14)

Who wouldn't want to have Jesus on their side in a property dispute? Think of it: The Son of God himself advocating for you to receive as much as possible. Your opponent wouldn't stand a chance!

But then again, judging by today's Gospel, Jesus may be the exact person you don't want to consult. At least not if you're trying to maximize your takeaway. Remember, this is the One who said, "Blessed are you who are poor," and who told a wealthy man to sell all his possessions and give the money to the needy (Luke 6:20; 18:18-23). You might prefer that he stay out of the whole thing. It's just as well anyway, since Jesus didn't seem too interested in engaging in the argument between these two brothers!

Jesus may have seemed disinterested in this man's complaint, but that doesn't mean he didn't care about this fellow. Jesus loved him and his brother just as deeply as he loved Peter or John or anyone else. What he cared about was whether this man would show that same love to his own brother. He cared about whether he would learn to be detached from his possessions so that he could discover the even greater treasure of sharing in his love. That's why he warned the man against greed; he could see that it was motivating him far more than love was.

Jesus ended his parable by urging his hearers to become "rich in what matters to God" (Luke 12:21). And what matters to God is not how much or how little we possess, but how much or how little we are possessed by our possessions. What matters to God is the degree to which we are free to dedicate our money, our time, and our abilities to loving and caring for one another.

Jesus isn't against wealth or possessions. He just values them less than he values our love—and our ability to love one another. That's what truly matters to him.

Mission Appeal Collection – July 30-31, 2022

The Mission Appeal Collection will be this weekend, July 30-31, 2022. Fr. Vincent Lam Nguyen was supposed to be here to make the appeal. However, he has COVID and is unable to come. This Diocese is located in the south-western corner of Vietnam. New chapels and classrooms are needed, and new catechists and evangelization volunteers must be trained. Your help and support is needed in order for the Good News of Christ and the love of God to be available to these people. 100% of the funds generated from your generosity will be utilized for these purposes. "Thank you" in advance.

Attention Parents!

If you have not registered your child for Youth Formation, please do so as soon as possible. Registration forms are available in MFLC, at the office and on our website www.stcharlesthobodaux.org

NEEDED.....YOUTH FORMATION MENTOR!

At this time, there is a need for a 4th grade Youth Formation Mentor for the 2022-2023 year. If you feel God is calling you to teach our precious children about Him and are willing to help, please call the Administration Office (446-6663) to volunteer.

DON'T FORGET YOUR CHURCH!

During the summer months, many of our parishioners take vacations and are sometimes away from the parish over the weekends. Please remember your church parish by sending your church support either before or after your trip. May God bless you for being a faithful steward!
