The Enduring beauty of the Eucharist

Fr. Kelly

On Thursday, we will remember the Lord's Last Supper with his friends. The supper was a festive moment certainly, remembering the salvation of Israel from the Pharaoh all those years ago. With a strong hand and a mighty arm, God had saved the Israelites from slavery and death. They had eaten a meal on that last evening in Egypt, a meal to get ready for the 'passing over', the mighty deed which God would work for them, to get them safely out of Egypt. And so, Jesus, on the night before God's mighty deed of the Passion and Resurrection, also ate the sacrificial lamb with his disciples.

We read in the Book of Exodus that Moses had instructed the Israelites to kill a lamb and cook it, but to sprinkle some of its blood on the doorposts of their houses. The Israelites ate the lamb and got ready for the great and mighty deed which God was going to work among them.

On Thursday, we Catholics will remember that ancient feast of the Israelites, and how God saved them after he had fed them first. We will recall the faithfulness of Jesus to the law of Moses and then we will experience how he had come to fulfill that Law. We will eat of the Lamb which God has provided for us for our salvation, just as the disciples did at that Passover commemoration in Jerusalem.. we will drink the blood of that lamb. And we will know that what we eat and drink is no ordinary thing, no matter made of human hands nor fruit of the vine. in stead the words that have been spoken in Greek, then Latin, then Slavic and by all the languages of the world; TAKE THIS AND EAT IT; THIS IS MY BODY.....TAKE AND DRINK, THIS IS MY BLOOD...

We will obey the command of Jesus; DO THIS IN MEMORY OF ME.

There is a little ill-spelled and ill-carved epitaph of the fourth century from Asia Minor: – 'Here sleeps the blessed Chione, who has found Jerusalem for she prayed much.' Not another word is known of Chione, some peasant woman who lived in that vanished world of Christian Anatolia. But how lovely it would be if all that should survive after sixteen centuries were that you had prayed much, so that the neighbors who saw all your life were sure you must have found Jerusalem! What did the Sunday Eucharist in her village church every week for a lifetime mean to the blessed Chione – and to the millions like her then, and every year since?
