How shall I make a return to the Lord for all the good He has done for me? (Psalm 116:12)

The Financial Report is not available this week. The bulletin went to print early due to the Easter holiday. The reports for the next two weekends will be printed in the January 19th bulletin. Thank you for your understanding and ongoing generosity.

Thank you for your continuing generosity.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Today, the Second Sunday of Easter, is known as Divine Mercy Sunday. St. John Paul, our late pope, canonized Sr. Faustina Kowalska in the Jubilee Year 2000 and the devotion which Jesus revealed to St. Faustina has now been formalized as a feast day of the Church, the Feast of Divine Mercy. Just as the doubting Apostle Thomas received mercy from Christ Jesus as recalled in today's gospel, so too we may come to the Lord with whatever sins we may have and seek mercy from Him. It seems to be the Lord's greatest joy, offering mercy to sinners as Jesus said on the cross, "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do" LK 23:34. Here are the words of Jesus to St. Faustina about the feast as recorded in her diary, #699:

My daughter, tell the whole world about my inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of my tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of my mercy. The soul that will go to confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet.... Everything that exists has come forth from the very depths of my most tender mercy. Every soul in its relation to Me will contemplate my love and mercy throughout eternity.... Please join us for a Divine Mercy Holy Hour this Sunday from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. and let us pray: Jesus I trust in You!

CATHOLIC ADULT SINGLES

A new Catholic Singles group is launching right here at Annunciation Parish. Come join for prayer and fun events including bike rides, bowling, praying the rosary, hikes, Bible study, wine tasting, comedy shows, theology on tap as well as country & swing dancing. The goal of the group is to create friendships and community with other Catholic Singles age 35-65, single, divorced and widowed. Come for an informational meeting on Wed., April 15 at 6:00 p.m. in St. Bakhita Hall. Call the office for more information.

EASTER THANKS

Thank you for all the many cards, wishes, goodies and prayers sent to us here at Annunciation for Easter. Thanks, also, to all who have decorated, prepared and served in the liturgies of Holy Week and Easter. Thank you to all in the OCIA and the Sacramental Preparation, especially the staff, team members, sponsors and catechists who prepared so many souls this year for their Easter Sacraments.

Let us welcome all of our new Catholics, both younger and older, into the life of our parish. God bless you and happy Easter season to all of you!

ST. THOMAS AQUINAS

The renowned physicist and expert on St. Thomas Aquinas, Dr. Anthony Rizzi, discusses "How St. Thomas can save the World" with Fr. Mitch Pacwa, S.J. on EWTN Live, Wed., April 15th at 6:00 p.m. See how St. Thomas is at the core of the solution and how modern physics is too. Learn the importance of this convergence of wisdom for our nation as we celebrate our 250th birthday as the United States of America.
